FACING A WALL.

Representative James E. Watson, of Indiana, has been studying the attitude of democracy in this campaign, and he furnishes this illustration, which, though it may not be entirely pleasing to them, is too pat to be lost in that wilderness of words, the Congressional Record:

"What, then, is their proposition? Simply that this measure is unconstitutional. If these gentlemen are to be believed, the constitution is a prison with the windows all in the rear. We can see backward, but can never catch a glimpse of the future. The walls are forever established.

"Mr. Speaker, what is the constitution? It is a collection of elemental principles laid down for our guidance. It is not the cause of our liberty, but the result of it. It took 6000 years of struggle and endeavor to make possible that instrument. It was born of the spirit of progress, and it must be interpreted in accordance with that spirit. It does not prevent progress, but, like a finger board, points out the way along which we must march.

"If it be a wall, it is one built behind us to prevent our retrogression rather than before us to prevent our advancement. But the democratic party, with its face always to the rear, imagines that it is in front of us and stays our onward march."

The figures furnished by savings banks are the best evidences of the condition of the working classes, mechanics and laborers. In 1889 there were in the United States in all 3,800,000 depositors in the savings banks of the country. Ten years later, in 1899, there were no less than 5,200,000 depositors, a gain of 1,400,000 in ten years. In 1894 each depositor had an average of $369 in the bank. In 1899 the average had risen to $419, so that, while the number of depositors had largely increased, the average amount of money on deposit increased in practically the same ratio.

Tonight and tomorrow night calamity oratory, imported all the way from the sunny south, will be on tap at the Baldwin opera house. The middle-of-the-road brand will be tapped tonight by Congressman M. W. Howard, of Alabama, and Hon. J. B. Osborne of Atlanta, Georgia, and the Bryanite brand tomorrow night by Hon. J. S. Bradley, of Texas. Let us go and hear the whole outfit. There is a philosophic pleasure in watching men trying to sweep back the swelling tide of human progress with a popo-Bryanite broom.

"Resolved, That the democratic party is in favor of the acquisition of the Island of Cuba, on such terms as will be honorable to ourselves and just to Spain, at the earliest practicable moment." That was democratic doctrine just forty years ago, as declared by the democratic platforms put forth at both Charleston and Baltimore. Expansion was not then denounced as undemocratic and un-Jeffersonian.

In the greatest year of prosperity the United States has ever known the democratic party will nominate a calamity for president. It's queer, but characteristic of that kind of politics.

The democrats of this county remind one of two small boys fighting over who shall get the core of an apple—only in this case there "aint goin' to be no core."

Columbia Southern Warehouse.

At Shaniko the Columbia Southern Railway Co. controls 80x100 feet of the Shaniko warehouse building, to be used as a freight warehouse, through which they will receive and forward freight in the usual manner. The impression that all business must be done through forwarding houses is an erroneous one and we take this means of dispelling it. Freight received and held twenty-four hours will be turned over to a forwarding house subject to the order of the consignee. The rate on wool in sacks or in bales from Shaniko to The Dalles is 25 cents per 100 pounds.

For rates or other information call on or address C. E. LYLE, G. F. & P. A., or Geo. F. Ross, Agent, Shaniko, Or.

Glorious News.

Comes from Dr. D. B. Cargile, of Washita, I. T. He writes: "Four bottles of Electric Bitters has cured Mrs. Brewer of scrofula, which had caused her great suffering for years. Terrible sores would break out on her head and face, and the best doctors could give no help; but her cure is complete and her health is excellent." This shows what thousands have proved,—that Electric Bitters is the best blood purifier known. It's the supreme remedy for eczema, tetter, salt rheum, ulcers, boils and running sores. It stimulates liver, kidneys and bowels, expels poisons, helps digestion and builds up the strength. Only 50 cents. Sold by Blakeley & Houghton, Druggists. Guaranteed. 4
