DESERVES AN INCREASED MAJORITY.

The citizen in the second congressional district that votes against Mr. Moody injures himself, says the Oregonian. Mr. Moody has been one of the most untiring committeemen in the house, and his attention is always devoted to the measures which affect the interests of his district and state.

The minimum land bill, especially important to settlers along the Columbia river in the forfeited North Pacific railroad land grant.

Bill for $75,000 appropriation for Baker City assay office.

Tabling of bills of Senator Foster, of Washington, and Representative Mondell, of Wyoming, which contemplated the leasing of government grazing lands. This action was taken with a view to rendering it impossible for legislation to be enacted which would turn over public domain to corporations or large stockmen, to the detriment of settlers and small stockowners.

The establishment of the free rural delivery for residents of the Hood River valley. This serves a population of about 3,000, and is highly satisfactory to them.

The introduction into star-route contracts, now being let in Oregon, of the free rural delivery of mail, where desired, along the stage lines.

The designation of Astoria as a port of entry.

The securing of the first pension granted to an Oregon volunteer in the Spanish war, (Jacob C. Binns).

He has co-operated with all members of the delegation in their efforts for legislation necessary to the state, such as appropriations for the Columbia river, Portland public buildings, etc. A man of this fidelity and energy should be returned by an overwhelming vote, provided he is sound on main questions. Mr. Moody's loyalty to republican principles has never been questioned. He deserves the gracious compliment of an increased majority.

Don't overlook the fact that the men you elect to the legislature the 4th of June will elect a United States senator, says the Antelope Herald. Do you want a democrat sent to the United States senate, who will favor the removal of the tariff on wool, cattle, hides and every other product of this country, and consequently a depression and stagnation in your business, or will you prefer a republican, who will vote to keep your business protected and the tide of prosperity flowing your way? It depends upon you whether a republican or democrat is elected. Vote for the republican candidates for the legislature.

If the Boer representatives are familiar with the history of the United States they know that this country has never interfered in the wars of Africa or any other foreign continent, and that to do it now would be a complete departure from the traditional line of action. President Fillmore lost no time in conveying this information to Kossuth, the Hungarian patriot and agitator, and it was done, as was proper, in direct and unmistakable terms. In refusing to admit the Boer deputation to the floor the senate simply affirmed the time-honored position of neutrality in conflicts between foreign countries.

Admiral Dewey is getting no delegates to the Kansas City or any other national convention, but he sizes up the situation for that other democrat very accurately. "The south was never in a more prosperous condition than it is today," says the admiral, who has just been through that section, "and I know that the people of the south don't want Bryan for president." Neither do the people of the east or of the west.

"I should like to see the revenue tax taken off beer," said Richardson of Tennessee, leader of the democrats in the house. Then there was deep applause from his side. Richardson appears to have a sneaking envy of Bryan's hold on the party.
