A STRONG ENDORSEMENT.

T. Brownhill, long and favorably known in the commercial circles of Sherman county, was a visitor last week, says D. C. Ireland in the Sherman County Observer. Mr. Brownhill is a rising attorney now in our sister county of Wasco, having recently passed a very favorable examination and been admitted by the supreme court to the practice of law in Oregon. He is at present justice of the peace for Dalles City district and has been nominated to retain the same position after this election. From a long acquaintance with Mr. Brownhill and a knowledge of his worth, we feel assured of his election. Voters this year are called upon to exercise more than usual care in electing a justice of the peace. The last assembly passed a law revolutionizing the practice in justice courts for the purpose of doing away with numerous appeals that have heretofore been taken. The new law makes the rules of practice of the circuit court applicable to the justice court with these exceptions. The membership of the jury is limited to six, and the amount of controversy to $250, but outside of this the justice court applies the same rules to pleadings. The jurors are subject to peremptory challenges and challenges for cause. The court can instruct the jury as to this law. Judgments are rendered and entered in the same places as in the circuit court, and the court has the power to set aside a verdict and grant a new trial on the same ground and for the same causes as the circuit court. It is therefore apparent that it is to the interest of a community that a person of legal ability and learning should be elected to the office of justice of the peace. Such a person is Mr. Brownhill—to elect him voters will find that they have conferred benefit upon themselves.

If you are out of a job, says the Oregonian, and never expect to have one because you are too faint-hearted to get it and too empty-headed to hold it; if you are broke and expect to be always broke on the gold or the silver basis, under free trade or protection, with $26 per capita or 26 cents; if you are penniless and always will be because you have nothing to sell for money and nobody will trust you with a loan; if every successful man fills you with rage because he reminds you of your own uselessness; if you feel that every man that has anything is at natural enmity with you and your class—then come to me, says Bryan, and I will give you rest. Whatever the cause of your discontent, if you are discontented, I will soothe you; if you are enraged, I will avenge you. All ills that fret you and griefs that bow down spring from the money power, whose mortal antagonist you behold in me, whose activities shall be forever stilled with my panacea of free coinage. For coughs, colds, rheumatism, headache, backache, dizziness, loss of sleep, weak eyes, catarrh, diabetes, cancer, consumption, scrofula, eczema, appendicitis, inflammation of the throat and lungs, bowel complaint, sallow complexion, torpid liver, inflamed eyelids, deafness, freckles, chapped hands, chilblains, corns and bunions, take 16 to 1.

Come, you democrats, be honest for a minute and own up, says the Spokane Chronicle. Candidly, doesn't it make you feel proud of your country to know that the United States for the year 1900 continues to break all records? In the nine months ending with March, exports of agricultural products were $18,000,000 greater than those of the same months in the preceding fiscal year, products of the mine exceeded those of the corresponding months of 1899 by 33 per cent, those of the forest showed a like increase, and fisheries and miscellaneous also showed a gain over the corresponding months of the preceding fiscal year, and with the phenomenal increase of $30,000,000 in April, 1900, as compared with April, 1899, it is quite apparent that the record of the year, which ends less than sixty days hence, will exceed that of any earlier year in our history.

The republican ticket, from top to bottom, is composed of clean, honorable and efficient men, the peers morally and intellectually of their opposer. They belong to no ring, and are pledged to nobody and nothing save faithful and devoted service to the interests of the people. They represent the party and the principles that have rescued the masses from poverty and free soup. If you want to "let well enough alone" go to the polls next Monday and vote the republican ticket from A to Izzard.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N.Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing.
