"God knows that if the United States falters in the present crisis, we shall be laggards until dooms day," writes John Barrett, a democrat and former editor of the Portland Telegram, and late minister to Siam.

Senator Fulton stole all Judge Bennett's campaign thunder the other night when he announced that he and Mr. Williamson and Mr. Barrett, who were on the platform with him, were in favor of the legislation asked for by the railroad men and would vote for it, if elected.

The republican convention honored Hood River with the nomination for county judge. The Glacier believes Hood River will do its duty on election day by giving the republican candidate for county judge a majority too large to be overcome by any disaffection said to exist in that party in any part of the county over his nomination.—Hood River Glacier.

The Times-Mountaineer says it never knew till it heard Messrs. Wilson and Fulton Thursday night that the way to relieve people in distress was to tax them. The Times-

Mountaineer in its brief career as a Bryanite organ has acquired a vast fund of misinformation. Congress had no choice in the matter of the Porto Rican tariff between a direct tax in cash, that Governor General Davis assured the administration would be actual confiscation, and an indirect tax that would fall largely on the sugar and tobacco trusts.

The Grass Valley Journal has a very kind word to say of Timothy Brownhill, republican candidate for justice of the peace of The Dalles. Mr. Brownhill lived in the suburbs of Grass Valley town for some eight years. The Journal closes a very complimentary article with these words: "Mr. Brownhill was a good worker in the church and literary societies of this place, and was greatly missed by them upon his leaving for The Dalles, where he went to complete the study of law. We are glad to note that the people of The Dalles have given him the nomination for the office of justice of the peace, and the only thing we are sorry for is that we are not allowed to vote for him."

The whole country is watching Oregon. Will she declare on June 4th for or against the development of Pacific commerce and trade? Will Oregon show the eastern states that she is not unmindful of our trans-Pacific opportunity? Will she lead the way, throughout the section which has the greatest interests at stake, in urging upon the rest of the United States that there must be no faltering, first, in courageously meeting our unavoidable moral responsibilities in the Philippines and, second, in developing our consequent material interests in all the far east?

Can Oregon logically expect congress to order the further dredging of the Columbia river bar and those of other Oregon harbors, if she elects men to congress June 4th who would erect an insuperable barrier to our commerce with Asia by withdrawing our flag from the Philippines and destroying our prestige and influence among 800,000,000 Asiatics, along a coast line, opposite Oregon's shores, of 5,000 miles and having already a foreign trade valued at nearly $2,000,000,000, of which our share now is only one-tenth, or $200,000,000, where it should be half or more?

Denver journeymen plumbers have struck for an increase of wages. Their plutocratic masters have compelled them to work for the pittance of four dollars a day, and the men very properly want an increase, and will very likely get it. Think of a plumber working for four dollars a day under the last democratic regime! Why most of them didn't then work at all and got their soup free into the bargain.

If Oregon votes against holding the Philippines which we undeniably occupy as a result of the Spanish war, and hence against paramount America in the Pacific, she will place a discouraging and possibly destructive handicap on such vitally important measures as the Nicaragua canal and Pacific cable bills now before congress.

The funds of the county have been well and safely handled for the last four years by C. L. Phillips. There is no reason in the world why they should not remain in his hands for two years more.

Can we afford to vote for candidates who, under the cover of a false cry against so-called imperialism, claim they are also for legitimate expansion, when in fact, by endeavoring to straddle the issue, they are the enemies of that development which is so necessary for Oregon's well being?

Notice. Caught a Dreadful Cold. Marion Kooke, manager for T. M. Thompson, a large importer of fine millinery at 1658 Milwaukee Avenue, Chicago, says: "During the late severe weather I caught a dreadful cold which kept me awake at night and made me unfit to attend my work during the day. One of my milliners was taking Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for a severe cold at that time, which seemed to relieve her so quickly that I bought some for myself. It acted like magic and I began to improve at once. I am now entirely well and feel very pleased to acknowledge its merits." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.
