

THE MUSE IN DISTRESS.

The war spirit and the divine afflatus don't flame together in the breast of Alfred Austin, England's poet laureate.

"As pressed the foe more near, Only with naked spear, Ne'er knowing what to fear,

"Then, when hope dawned at last And fled the foe aghast At the relieving blast

"Oh, when they saw us come, Drubbed well was every drum, And shrill the fife's tum-tum

A private letter from Porto Rico says that everybody there is pleased with the new tariff except one man.

The election is over and we are right glad of it. We shall now for a time at least have a chance to find space for something besides politics.

A Practical Demonstration.

A fact proven by actual demonstration is more satisfactory than any theoretical proposition. Realizing this, and knowing that they have a proposition which they can guarantee, the Oregon Sanitary Closet Company, of The Dalles, Or., have constructed one of their sanitary closets and put the same into actual operation.

A Good Cough Medicine.

It speaks well for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy when druggists use it in their own families in preference to any other.

DIVORCE IN MEXICO.

The Republic, by a Recent Decree, Does Not Recognize Divorces Granted in United States.

The laws of Mexico have always been strict in regard to marriages and divorces. Recently a case has been decided in the City of Mexico which attracted attention on account of the plaintiff's prominence in society and the legal points involved.

In 1895 an American citizen, Edgar Joseph Hahn, of St. Louis, married a young Mexican lady, Senorita Par Diez Barrasso. The wedding was a society event and some of the chief dignitaries of the land were present.

The rules of the Roman Catholic church do not permit a divorcee to marry. The question of one desiring to do so was not to be considered by the church, and there was no civil law to cover the case.

The plaintiff in question claimed to have discovered after her marriage that her husband had a wife living from whom he was divorced. Therefore, as her church did not allow her to marry a divorced man—or him to marry her—she prayed that the contract be declared null and void.

He names as witnesses: J. B. Gott, D. P. Ketchum, Joseph Hanna and William Spencer, all of The Dalles, Oregon, and Geo. W. Berry, United States Commissioner for District of Washington, at his office in Goldendale, Wash., on Saturday, June 30, 1900, viz:

Thus it is clear that, while Mexico recognizes a foreign marriage, she does not recognize a divorce secured in any country as giving a right to marry again within her limits.

WORDS WE SAY BACK.

Encouragement for the Little One Does Much to Brighten Their Lives.

Little Dorothy came from the kindergarten with her eyes shining, holding in her hand a braided mat of bright-colored paper. The little mat found approving words and admiration in the family circle, and was exhibited when Miss Cary, her mother's friend, came to supper that night.

Dorothy's eyes shone with pleased excitement at the little kindergarten story, and eagerly she asked: "And what did you say back?" The quick question was a revelation. To the little child the success of the story lay in what was "said back."

Words of encouragement are perhaps oftener called for in what we say back than any others; encouragement to begin, to keep on, and to try again, hold within them the kernels of a happy childhood, and successful manhood and womanhood.

Starvation never yet cured dyspepsia. Persons with indigestion are already half starved. They need plenty of wholesome food. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat so the body can be nourished while the worn out organs are being reconstructed.
