EXPERIENCE AGAIN AN EF-FECTIVE TEACHER.

The Oregonian has learned something from the election of last Mon- operation. The closet is now located in day as the following leader from the rear of Chas. Burchtori's bicycle retoday's issue clearly shows. If it pair store on Second, between Federal and the faction it represents had and Laughlin streets, The Dalles, and pursued towards those whom it and inspect the same. The Oregonian suggested such policy, Railway Co. controls 80x100 feet of the at the beginning of the contest for Shaniko warehouse building, to be used the nominations this year. It was not heeded. What has followed is the usual manner. The impression that matter of course. But the result is all business must be done through formembers of the house of representatives have been re-elected, and, though the status of the legislature is not yet entirely clear, it is benot disastrous. The two republican warding houses is an erroneous one and lieved that some kind of a republican in bales from Shaniko to The Dalles is will be or may be elected to the 25 cents per 100 pounds. senate. Whether these bickerings in the party will ever cease till there shall be a smashing defeat in both state and nation seems uncertain; but they ought to cease, for they are very tiresome."

Oregon is not only safely repub-on the party like a mountain of lead, and the everlasting nag-nagging and carping, and the nearly always unjust and unreasonable and always just and unreasonable and always of these were cases of grippe, croup may12-if of particles.
