WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Baker county republicans have re-elected for sheriff A. H. Huntington, brother of our fellowtownsmen, B. S. and J. M. Huntington.

The finishing touches are being put on The Dalles scouring mill, and Monday next the machinery will be started to run for two or three days as a test.

The Hood River cannery has contracted with the farmers to take all the tomatoes they can raise at $9 per ton. The cannery is now putting up straw-benches.

The walls of the theater are resounding all day long to the merry coon songs of minstrelsy, and the girls feet are keeping time. The dates are Wednesday and Thursday, June 14th and 15th.

An adjourned meeting of The Dalles Commercial Club will be held tonight at 9 o'clock sharp, to consider matters of vital importance to the welfare of the club. A full attendance is requested.

C. H. Smith, the wool buyer for C. S. Moses & Co. of San Francisco, has arrived here on his annual wool-buying trip. Besides Mr. Smith, Mike Manning is the only other wool-buyer in town at this date.

We export American brooms to various countries, and we send broom handles to Australia. American churns of one sort and another are sold wherever churns are used. Of woodenware in general, indeed, this country is the great source of supply for the civilized world.

Woodcraft Social Club excursion to Bonneville and return, 75 cents, Sunday, June 10th. Tickets for the excursion will be on sale at the following business houses: Clarke & Falk's drug store, J. R. Rees' barber shop, Parkins & Menefee's book store and William Jones' cigar store.

Herbert Spencer, in a recently reported conversation, replied to the question as to when he thought society would be perfect by the statement: "When it is truthful. No one is now. We all exaggerate; we all use 'very' when we do not mean it. Truth is the one foundation stone possible for perfection."

The present common council are deserving of great praise for the economical business administration they are giving the city. As will be seen by the report of last night's council meeting, they have, during the past eighteen months, placed $7,500 in the sinking fund against the city debt. Were it not that they are required to set aside $1000 a year against this fund and pay annual interest on the debt to the amount of $3,420, the income from licenses, fines and other sources would maintain the city government without a cent of taxes. What city the size of The Dalles, or any size, can beat this?

The voters of Multnomah county have repudiated Assessor Greenleaf, the man who reduced the assessable value of Multnomah property last year by over eleven million dollars and "saved" that county some $46,000 of state taxes that the other counties had to pay—Wasco among the rest. The republican convention repudiated Greenleaf, who thought he was strong enough to run as an independent. Now notwithstanding his demagogic appeal to the pockets of his constituents, they very justly sat down on him.

"Whatever other states may declare for, Oregon is for expansion and all that it implies," said a prominent and well-known democrat, who always voted with his party, today in the hearing of a CHRONICLE representative. "Oregon is for expansion and the gold standard, and the rest of the country will declare itself as Oregon has done the moment it gets the chance. The only thing the coming democratic national convention can wisely do is to come out boldly for expansion and denounce imperialism, and imperialism is only a Don Quixote windmill."

A Dalles physician of large practice was rung up at 1 o'clock this morning and asked to visit a sick woman in what proved to be the tenderloin district. The woman was a stranger, a cyprin from Arlington, and in fits of convulsions she had chewed her tongue into rags. To add to the wretchedness of the scene she was surrounded by a half dozen bleer-eyed women of her class and another half dozen whiskey-gorged things in men's clothes, of a still lower class, all in drunken hysterical phrenzy, screaming out their prescriptions for the woman's relief. The doctor has seen some pictures of human wretchedness and depravity, but he never saw one that quite equals the picture of last night.

The board of school directors of The Dalles district met yesterday and elected the entire present corps of teachers to serve for the next school year. At her own request Miss Elsie Ball was granted leave of absence for one year to attend the Monmouth normal school, and her sister, Miss Alice, was elected to serve in her place for the coming year. Miss Alice is a former graduate of The Dalles high school and has been teaching at Starbuck for the last two years. The Dalles schools have a very excellent corps of teachers and the action of the board in retaining them will meet the approval of the patrons of the schools.

Washington correspondents say that an amusing and good-natured rivalry exists between Congressman Eddy, of Minnesota, and Congressman Cushman, of Washington, as to which of them shall be entitled to the distinction of being the homeliest man in congress. It was Eddy who was charged at one time by a rival candidate for congress in his district with being "two-faced." He went home from Washington to answer the charge. "I hardly think," he said, "that this charge needs a serious answer. Does any one think that if I really had two faces I would keep on wearing the one I have with me today?"

Election Aftermath.

Multnomah county gives Congressman Moody 4863 majority over Smith.

The county seat fight in the new county of Wheeler, has resulted in a complete victory for Fossil.

Tongue appears to have carried every county in his district except Linn, and there the majority against him is less than 250.

Today's Oregonian figures that the next Oregon legislature will have a republican majority on joint ballot of twenty-eight.

The republicans have carried the state and congressional tickets in Umatilla county by majorities of 360 to 550. Sheriff Blakeley, democrat, and brother of our Judge Blakeley, is re-elected by 889 majority. The Blakeleys, both here and there, are sprinters.

Crook county fusionists have elected every man on their ticket but one, the candidate for school superintendent, Arthur Hodges, who had held the office of clerk for some fourteen years, was defeated for re-election by a nephew of the late well-known Warm Springs Indian agent, Captain Smith.

From the returns, it will not be doubted that Oregon is a republican, not a democratic, state. Oregon will go against the Bryanized democracy in November by sheer momentum and force, if not another word should be spoken on the subject from now till November, says the Oregonian.

A Great Victory.

Oregon has gone republican by increased majorities. With reports yet incomplete, Wolverton for supreme court judge and Bailey for dairy and food commissioner have carried the state by majorities exceeding that given for the republican ticket two years ago, when the war spirit was active to swell the republican vote to abnormal proportions. For congressman, Tongue in the First district already has a plurality of 2629 votes, while in 1898 his entire plurality was but 2637. In the Second district Moody's plurality of the present incomplete returns is 8200, whereas in 1898 he won by only 6657.

These figures show that it has been a notable republican victory. Local issues mixed in the election of members of the legislature, so that the increased vote is not so apparent in those officers, but the legislature is strongly republican. From only one county of the state has the complete unofficial return been reported—Benton. For all others, including Multnomah, the figures are more or less incomplete.—Oregonian, June 6th.
