WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Tickets for the Lady Minstrels will be on sale at Clarke & Falk's tomorrow morning.

Baker City has a number of cases of smallpox, but, like the Moro people, the Bakerites insist on calling it the Filipino itch.

An exchange says a census enumerator gets double pay for taking the name of any one who keeps a goat. It will be a red-letter day for Jerry Patterson the day he calls on Louis Comini.

The annual encampment of the G. A. R. will be held at La Grande beginning June 19. The various committees for arrangement have been appointed and are at work preparing for the event.

Complete returns show the election of Fossil as the county seat of Wheeler county. Twickenham, the strongest competitor, received 298 votes against 436 for Fossil. The victory was made the event for a grand celebration Tuesday evening.

The box sheet for the Lady Minstrels to be given Tuesday and Wednesday evenings next, will be open tomorrow (Saturday) morning at Clarke & Falk's. General admission, 50 cents; reserved seats 75 cents, children 25 cents.

Don't forget the minstrels at the Vogt opera house next Tuesday night. Make sure you buy at least one ticket whether you go or not, and thus help a most worthy cause, The Dalles public library. Then, if you want to have a good time you may be dead sure the minstrels will give you the full worth of your money.

Don't forget to purchase a ticket for the Woodcraft Social Club excursion to Bonneville Sunday. Round trip only 75 cents. Tickets for sale at J. Reese's barber shop, I. C. Nickelsen's book store, Clarke & Falk's drug store and W. H. Jones' cigar store. As the number of tickets is limited, if you want one you had better buy it immediately.

From a telephone message received this afternoon from J. N. Williamson, of Prineville, we learn that Williamson's majority over Judge Bennett in Crook county is 94, in Lake county 108, and in Klamath county 34. As will be seen elsewhere, Judge Bennett ran ahead of Mr. Williamson in this county 85 votes. These figures, which are partly official, give Mr. Williamson a majority over the judge of 151 in the district.

Rev. G. W. Black, late a resident of this city, returned yesterday from Roslyn, Wash., where he has, for a few months, been serving the Baptist church of that place as pastor. Mr. Black will leave next week for Burns, where he has accepted the pastorate of the Baptist church. In the absence of Rev. W. B. Clifton, who is attending the Baptist Association at Fossil, Mr. Black will preach in the Calvary Baptist church next Sunday.

The many friends of Mrs. Fred Bronson will regret to learn that her mother, Mrs. Gore, died last night at Oswego, Oregon. Mrs. Bronson had arrived at her mother's bedside before her departure, having been summoned there by a dispatch which said that she had been severely burned. No further particulars have reached here at the hour of going to press.

With official figures of four counties, and more or less imperfect reports from the other thirteen counties of the First congressional district, Tongue's plurality over Daly is 3139. In the Second congressional district three counties have reported officially figures, and the other thirteen are incomplete, and the showing thus made is a plurality of 8622 for Moody over Smith. On the state ticket Wolverton, for supreme court judge, leads Greene by 10,380 votes. As the reports gains in completeness the republican pluralities increase.

The city fathers at Hood River this week passed an ordinance (which, however, the mayor refused to sign) reducing the saloon license from $1000 a year to $600. "It is expected," says the Glacier, "that three saloons will take out licenses under this new law, and Hood River will put on city airs. With three saloons we will have a 'live' town. Our town has been rather 'live' for the past month or so, and if we keep on at the present rate, it will be 'live' enough for the most zealous advocate of the theory that the saloon makes the town."

The barn of Larkins Lamb, of Mosier, was burned to the ground yesterday afternoon. It contained a nearly new wagon, about a thousand pounds of hay, a lot of grain, a set of double harness and a number of other things. The cause of the fire is unknown. The barn was a long distance from any other building and no one is known to have been near it when the fire started. Mr. Lamb happened to be at the Mosier store, half a mile distant, when he heard of the fire, but before he could reach the building it had fallen in. There was no insurance.

The Hood River Glacier says the strawberry yield is not so good this year as in former years. Some think the shortness is caused by the severe frost we had in April. Various causes are given, but many are of the opinion that the Clark's seedling strawberry is running out, the fate of all plants of its species. Our growers have been careless in selecting plants when setting out a new plantation. No other berry has yet been found to be as good as the Clark's seedling for Hood River, and this favorite variety might be saved to us for years to come, by judicious selection of new plants. Settlers should be taken only from new plants, and these new plants should not be allowed to mature fruit.

Miss Bess Isenberg returned on Tuesday from her trip to Kansas, where she spent six weeks delightfully in visiting old friends. On her way home, while at Colorado Springs, she saw two crates of strawberries placarded, "Hood River Berries." Other berries were on the long table, but no others were placarded. She inquired of the merchant why those two crates were singled out, and none of the others marked. The merchant said: "Here are berries from California; here are Missouri berries, and here are Kansas berries, but these marked 'Hood River' are the best. They come from Oregon, where they can grow the best berries, and where they know how to put them up in good shape for market." She then told the merchant she was from Hood River and asked to see the berries. He opened a crate and they proved to be very fine. They were from H. S. Hibbard's fruit ranch.—Glacier.

Fire insurance agents in The Dalles have received new rate books from the board of fire underwriters which recognize the late valuable improvements to the fire department and water supply of The Dalles. The rates apply only to property below the bluff and are equivalent to a reduction of about ten per cent below former rates. In some instances the reduction is more than ten per cent, in others less; but the adjustment is generally recognized as uniform and equitable. Agents are advised that as the reductions would prove onerous to companies and agents if they made necessary the return of premiums on policies in force at date of publication, the board has ordered that the reductions shall only apply to renewals on policies issued on or after March 25, 1900, and that reports of return premiums on account of said reductions on policies issued prior to that date will not be approved.

Incomplete Official Vote of Wasco County

The official canvas of the vote of Wasco county is still in progress and will not be completely available till tomorrow. The following figures are given from the incomplete official footings: Moody's majority over Smith for congressman is 1118. Wolverton's majority over Green for supreme judge is 412. Menefee's majority over Moore for district attorney is 670. Bennett's majority over Williamson for state senator is 85. Johnston's majority over Dufar for state senator is 135.

The vote for members of the lower house had not been officially counted in time for today's issue. The republican candidates have run ahead of their fusion opponents an average of about four hundred votes. H. C. Liebe, democrat, ran ahead of his ticket some 300 votes. Lake's majority over Filloon for county clerk is 286.

Glass and His Political Sheep.

[From the Oregonian.]

A Klamath county lawyer who has been watching the local political situation pretty closely was asked yesterday what he thought Graham Glass would say to Senator Simon when the latter returned from Washington and asked how a 5000 majority had been converted into a 1000 minority.

"I don't know," said the lawyer, "but I have an idea it will be something like the answer of the Klamath sheepherder. Never heard of that? Well, this herder was engaged by a rancher to herd a band of sheep, and he went out on the range. In about a month he came back and asked his employer if there was any more work for him to do.

"Work!" exclaimed the rancher. "Of course there's work. Didn't I hire you to herd my sheep?"

"Well," said the herder, "if you want me to do that you will have to get some more sheep, for them I had is all gone."
