Professor Fairview, alias John McCaran, an old-time resident of the Cascade Locks, is in the city, the guest of the European House. The professor, who is a native of the Emerald Isle, has applied to the county court to have his name changed from McCaran to that by which he has been known since the "Bridge of the Gods" spanned the Columbia at the Cascades.

Fred E. Wilmarth, of the Harney County News, sends us the following under date of June 15th: "Malcolm Moody's total vote in Harney county—abstract made today—is 365; his plurality over fusion, 39; Simmons got 95 votes. Two years ago Donaldson's plurality over Moody was 73. Moody's gain in the opposition is 17. Wolverton lost Harney county by 67."

Louis Comini, a few days ago returned home from St. Vincent's hospital, whither he went for treatment for one of his eyes that had been injured by a chip of steel flying off a chisel he was using at his trade of stone cutting. It gives great pleasure to the old residents in this community to see the notice of one of our own boys in the Oregonian's issue of June 17th. The notice is appreciative and complimentary, if we cannot say as much for the accompanying picture. The boy is all right, if the picture is a little mixed. Thackeray says it is often a help to a young man to have a millstone about his neck. Our Mr. Angell had his millstone in the loss of his good right hand, and that loss may have been instrumental in making him strenuous in putting out every possible exertion, where one not so hampered might have been tempted to rest a little on his oars. Whatever be the reason, the result gratifies us all, and we congratulate the mother, to whose happiness her son has so largely contributed, his family, and his larger family, our schools, feeling sure that in the future, as in the past, the name of Homer D. Angell will never be mentioned but with love and pride.

The City Election.

The city election yesterday was more hotly contested than any we have had for several years. It turned wholly on the question of an elaborate sewer system at a cost that three-fourths of those who have to foot the bill consider utterly beyond their means, or one believed to be equally effective at probably not half the cost. So far as the election was an expression of opinion on the proposed sewer system, it was overwhelmingly against it.

The fight centered around the mayorship, and Hon. E. B. Dufur, who represented those opposed to the projected system, beat his opponent, Chas. E. Stephens, by a vote of 421 to 143, or a majority of 278.

In the First ward Harry C. Liebe beat J. M. Toomey for councilman, unexpired term, by a vote of 129 to 31. In the Third ward Fred Lemke beat Dr. J. A. Geisendorfer by a vote of 169 to 46.

The councilmen elected are: First ward, F. W. Wilson, Harry C. Liebe. Second ward, A. A. Jayne. Third ward, Fred Lemke.

The water commissioners elected are: First ward, T. J. Seufert. Second ward, A. R. Thompson. Third ward, Hans Hansen.

C. J. Crandall for city treasurer had no opposition.
