NORTH WESTERN NOMENCLATURE.

A prospector in the Methow country has named his claim the "King Savey," says the Spokesman-Review.

The corruption of Indian, French and Spanish words has led to some amusing results in the Pacific northwest. In early days in Oregon, French Canadian settlers bestowed the name of La Creole on one of the streams.

The faciousness of the miner and the trapper has also left its impress upon the nomenclature of this country. Names abound like Jump-off Joe, Hell-to-Pay (since softened into Eltopia), Raw Dog, Yaller Dog, Starveout, Hardscrabble, Keno, Long Tom, Saddle and Bake Oven.

Despite this smattering of coarseness and levity, the nomenclature of the Pacific northwest abounds in much that is beautiful, melodious and poetic. The white man has not improved on the Indian names of streams, mountains and localities.

PERTINENT PRESS COMMENT.

The Sioux Falls populist convention has afflicted Bryan with a stoppage in his speech.—Star.

When a man is referred to now as a "veteran of the war," it is necessary to specify the war—Civil, Spanish or Kentucky.—Albany Democrat.

Pettigrew and Lentz lament over the death of 1721 of their Filipino brethren who died valiantly trying to get a shot at the "Old Flag."—Eugene Register.

General Otis says the withdrawal of our troops from the Philippines would expose to great danger all the natives who have been friendly to Americans. But what copperhead cares for anything connected with the American side of the case?

A nut for Bryan and his party to crack: Wool and sheep are now twice their value, as compared with their market price in 1896. Why? Can they not see what the gold standard and protection have done? American owners of sheep are now having a little profit. It will be hard to change them off with the Bryan ruse.—Ex.

The Chinese are fighting for the independence of their country—for liberty, if you please, and the right to run China in a way to suit the Chinese. But no resolutions of sympathy with the Chinese will be offered at Philadelphia or Kansas City. Not in a thousand years.—Spokesman-Review.

Speaking of the defeat of several members of the 2nd Oregon at the late election, the McMinnville Transcript concludes: "We will even up matters in good shape when the gubernatorial election comes, by electing Gen. Owen Summers governor of the state of Oregon by the largest plurality ever given by this state."

In spite of all that has been said and written on the subject, there has never been a 16 to 1 ratio under the coinage laws of the United States. The ratios have been: Act of 1792, 15 to 1; act of 1834, 16.002 to 1; act of 1837, 15.988 to 1. It may be added that when the commerce of the world fixes the ratio at 16 to 1 it will be so fixed without consulting the exigencies of any political party in the universe, and never till then.

In 1896 President McKinley said: "I hope that the time will not be far distant when every workingman in this country can get work, and get it, too, at fair and remunerative wages." The time was not far distant, and it is still with us.

The treasurer of the United States gives figures showing that this country borrows money at a lower rate than any other nation, and that "money is cheaper with us than anywhere else among men." It means much to say in connection with this statement that every dollar issued by the United States is equivalent to gold.

The announcement that a beginning will be made in November in the work of bringing home the volunteers from the Philippines will displease the democrats. Bryan and his party friends were in hopes that Aguinaldo would put up such a hard fight and kill so many American soldiers that the army in the Philippines would have to be enlarged instead of diminished.

A Thousand Tongues. Could not express the rapture of Annie E. Springer, of 1125 Howard st., Philadelphia, Pa., when she found that Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption had completely cured her of a hacking cough that for many years had made life a burden.

A Sprained Ankle Quickly Cured. "At one time I suffered from a severe sprain of the ankle," says Geo. E. Cary, editor of the Guide, Washington, Va. "After using several well recommended medicines without success, I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and am pleased to say that relief came as soon as I began its use and a complete cure speedily followed." Sold by Blakeley & Houghton.

Rev. W. E. Sitzer, W. Canton, N. Y., writes: "I had dyspepsia over twenty years, and tried doctors and medicines without benefit. I was persuaded to use Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and it helped me from the start. I believe it to be a panacea for all forms of indigestion." It digests what you eat.

Robbed the Grave. A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised 'Electric Bitters', and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c, guaranteed, at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.

Starvation never yet cured dyspepsia. Persons with indigestion are already half starved. They need plenty of wholesome food.
