For President—WILLIAM M'KINLEY, of Ohio.

For Vice-President—THEODORE ROOSEVELT,
of New York.

STILL MORE AMAZING IMPU-DENCE.

The Times-Mountaineer is welcome to all the capital it can make out of the deportation of Mullet and "Skin the Goat." Eighteen years ago, when these men were convicted of conspiracy in the murder of T. H. Burke and Lord Frederick Cavendish, the leaders of the national party in Ireland, Messrs. Parnell, Dillon and Davitt at once issued an address to the Irish people and to the world, expressing their horror and despair at the shameful crime which had brought disgrace upon their country. Their manifesto said: "We feel that no act has ever been perpetrated in our country, during the exciting struggles for social and political rights of the past fifty years, that has so stained the name of hospitable Ireland as this cowardly and unprovoked assassination of a friendly stranger, and that until the murderers of Lord Frederick Cavendish and Mr. Burke are brought to justice that stain will sully our country's name." The feelings expressed in this manifesto were generally expressed all over Ireland. In Cork, a meeting, chiefly composed of Nationalists and Land Leaguers, passed unanimously the following resolution:

"That this meeting of the citizens of Cork, spontaneously assembled, hastens to express the feelings of indignation and sorrow with which it has learned of the murder of Lord Frederick Cavendish and Mr. T. H. Burke last night, and to denounce it as a crime that calls to heaven for vengeance; to repudiate its authors, whoever they may be, with disgust and abhorrence, as men with whom the Irish nation has no community of feeling; and to convey our condolence with the families of the murdered."

It remains for a Wasco county Bryanite—not a democrat, thank God—to defend two conspirators in one of the cruellest murders of all the ages; to defend, this is to say, men whom their own countrymen have repudiated and despised, and to condemn the national authorities because they have done their simple duty in the premises and refused these murderers a domicile on an American soil. Mullet and Fitzharris were not condemned to a life servitude merely as suspects, as our contemporary would have it, but for actual and well attested conspiracy in the crime of murder. Their membership in the society of "Invincibles," that planned and executed the murder of Burke and Cavendish was never open to a reasonable doubt. The Irish-American societies that have protested against the deportation of these murderers are guilty of "amazing impudence," and the Wasco county Bryanite organ that justifies them is guilty of still more "amazing impudence."

The talk of nominating David B. Hill for vice-president on the Bryanite ticket is ridiculous. Hill is a gold-standard democrat and a radical opponent of the Bryanite policy of an income tax. And besides that there is not a drop of socialist blood in his body. Hill would make a pretty fair democrat but he isn't a Bryanite by a long way, and Bryanism goes these days.

"William Jennings Bryan has no need to make the assertion that he 'stands where he stood four years ago,'" states the Tacoma Ledger. "It was entirely unnecessary, for his every utterance makes the fact manifest. He does not progress, and even lacks the genius of the democrat and the occupant of the front seat of a carriage of seeing things after they are passed."
