

Throat Troubles

"Bardwell, Ky., where I live, is in the extreme western part of the State and only a few miles from Cairo, Ill., where the Ohio empties into the Mississippi River. It may be that throat troubles are common here because of location, but whatever the reason, I find it wise to constantly keep a supply of Acker's English Remedy for Consumption on hand. It is the best thing I ever came across for coughs, colds and throat troubles, and I have used it in my family for years. No druggist here can be depended upon to have it always, so I am writing this letter to W. H. Hooker & Co., 230 Broadway, N. Y., to order a dozen bottles at a time. My wife is bothered lately with sore throat and difficult breathing, but just as soon as the dozen bottles get here, I will give her a few doses, and she will certainly be well again. I expect to write another letter in a short time saying my wife is cured, for I feel absolutely sure it is what she needs." (Signed) T. A. WHITE.

Sold at 25c, 50c, and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada, and in England, at 1s. 2d., 2s. 3d., 4s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist, and get your money back.

The Oregon delegates of the democratic national convention at Kansas City will leave Portland tomorrow evening. It is stated, unofficially, that the first choice of the delegation for the vice-presidential nomination is James Hamilton Lewis, of the state of Washington.

Twenty Oregon counties have already paid their state tax for the year, as follows: Baker, Benton, Clackamas, Columbia, Coos, Douglas, Gilliam, Harney, Jackson, Josephine, Klamath, Lake, Lane, Morrow, Sherman, Umatilla, Wasco, Washington and Wheeler. There are four that have not paid any portion of their 1899 tax, as follows: Crook, Linn, Malheur and Tillamook. The remaining nine have paid in part.
The treasurer of Kentucky had to send to the state penitentiary the other day to get a professional safe blower to open the doors of the state treasury vaults. The combination of the inside doors to the cash and bond boxes in the vault cell was lost when the new state treasurer took charge of the office. Mechanists worked on the doors for three days and made no progress. Then a message was sent to the penitentiary for the loan of a convict who could blow open a safe. Frank Simmons, who was sent up for safe blowing, was selected by the prison authorities as the best man to do the job, and he justified their confidence by opening the doors in thirty minutes.

It speaks well for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy when druggists use it in their own families in preference to any other. "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past five years with complete satisfaction to myself and customers," says Druggist J. Goldsmith, Van Etten, N. Y. Robbed the Grave.
A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised 'Electric Bitters', and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c, guaranteed, at Blakeley & Houghton's drug store.
