Our Mid-Summer Sale

WILL SOON BE HERE in full force.-Just one month earlier than usual.

We started with an $8.95 Suit Sale, which now develops into a general clearance-a full-fledged bargain event. Not through any special effort on our part; not through unusual advertising. It seems as though each customer told a dozen others, and so the sale has grown to a Christmas crowd looking for July bargains. Rest assured there shall be no disappointment. The most pronounced bargain fiend shall be more than satisfied. It has come to us unsolicited, and we shall accept it with good grace.

Few custom tailors could surpass these suits, though they were to charge $12 or $15; doubtless $20 would please you better at the to-order stores.

State Against George Farris,

At 10 o'clock Thursday night the jury in the case of the state of Washington against George R. A. Farris, accused with the murder of Abe Worrell, brought which means death by the rope, says the Goldendale Agriculturist.

The case was tried before Judge Miller occupying five days, two of which, however, were spent in securing a jury and iv visited Baker City told one of the cit- with arguments of counsel. The case on the part of the prisoner was weak, his defense being almost childish. He tenm of horses, which Worrell objected bought throught Baker Bros., of Gol- of it." That is about the way Farris put it while on the stand. Others think that Worrell was shot

The prisoner went on at great length while on the stand in telling his story, up there for about a month and it is ex. and corroborating in the main the case as made up by the defense. The evidence all went to show that Farris had planned the crime in advance; and the evidence was strong enough to convince twelve of the best citizens as to its truth-resulting, after five hours' deliberation in the above verdict.

The state's case was ably managed by County Attorney Darch, with the assistance of Hiram Dustin and Hon. A. S. Bennett; while Farris' defense was faithfully and earnestly conducted by W. B. Presby, of Goldendale, and H. S. Wilson, of The Dalles.
