

Our Mid-Summer Sale

WILL SOON BE HERE in full force.—Just one month earlier than usual.

We started with an $8.95 Suit Sale, which now develops into a general clearance—a full-fledged bargain event. Not through any special effort on our part; not through unusual advertising. It seems as though each customer told a dozen others, and so the sale has grown to a Christmas crowd looking for July bargains. Rest assured there shall be no disappointment. The most pronounced bargain fiend shall be more than satisfied. It has come to us unsolicited, and we shall accept it with good grace.

$8.95

Few custom tailors could surpass these suits, though they were to charge $12 or $15; doubtless $20 would please you better at the to-order stores.

Remember that it is not for profit this sale was started—a

Mid-Summer Sale

ICE CREAM and ICE CREAM SODA

At Andrew Koller's.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Now take the ancient flint lock down And load it full of shot, Fill up the ancient powder-horn And heat the punk-stick hot, Stuff cotton in your ashing ears,
And, mark you, don't forget The arnie, for Willie now The Fourth awaits, you bet.

Dayton's patent fly and mosquito killer at Maier & Benton's. 26 3c

Hon. J. N. Williamson will deliver the oration at Prineville on the Fourth.

The first meeting of the new city council will convene tonight at the usual hour.

Hay hands are scarce in Klamath county. The ruling wages are $2 and $2.50 per day.

We acknowledge the courtesy of a visit from S. A. D. Gurley, a prominent attorney of Arlington.

Fifty-nine head of Indian ponies from the Warm Springs reservation were shipped today from the Saltmarsh stock yards to the Linton cannery.

George Eby, a smart Puddletop man, was arrested for refusing to answer the census man, and is in Portland awaiting the action of the U. S. court. Foolish man.

Two more gold fields have been "discovered" in Alaska, and by the time discoveries cease there will not be much gold that will not be in the possession of the transportation companies.

Dick Southwell, of Ten-Mile, had his left arm broken at the wrist Saturday afternoon while breaking a wild horse.
He came to town and had the injured member attended to by Dr. Logan.

R. E. Saltmarsh had the misfortune Saturday evening to break one of the small bones in his left wrist. The laces in one of his shoes had become loose, and after he had tied them by placing his foot on the sidewalk his foot caught on the plank and he fell back on the street. Dr. Geisendorfer fixed up the wounded member but it will be of little use to Sattie for the next two or three weeks.

The Astoria News says that Weather Observer Johnson has given the Fourth of July committee his solemn word of honor that he will have dry weather at that place for the celebration.

It is said that the fruit crop will be so heavy in some districts of Oregon that there will not be enough evaporators to take care of it. This does not look much like a failure, says the Pacific Homestead.

The Dalles City vest-day brought up from Portland eight wagons and twenty horses belonging to a party of Germans who were on the way from Eugene to Adams county, Wash. The outfit made well nigh a load for the steamer.

A pilgrim from a logging camp down the river came here yesterday to celebrate the Fourth and got drunk. The marshal ran him in and he was fined $5 this morning. He paid the fine and vowed to the recorder that he would never, never be drunk again.

A spark from a steam shovel last Saturday ignited the grass on the Mosier ranch, at Mosier, and burnt over a large acreage of pasture besides destroying about twenty tons of hay belonging to J. J. Lewis and the pasture of Lark Lamb.

Mr. Hugh Lusk, of Skamania county, Wash., was united in marriage this afternoon to Miss Lillie May Ellwood, of Hood River. The ceremony took place in the parlor of the Umatilla House. Justice M. F. Bird, of Viento, officiating.

The New York Cash Store.

Archey Todd was arrested yesterday morning by Night Watchman Phirman and placed in the county jail. Archey seems to be a Slick Ephraim. About three months ago he borrowed $10 from the bar-keeper at the Columbia brewery on a forged check on Seufert Bros. Saturday he borrowed two blank checks from Pease & Mays and afterwards tried to cash one of them that he had evidently filled out in the name of J. C.

Daley, a well-known sheepman of Klickitat county, who is now, unfortunately for Archey, on a visit to Ireland.
His little game did not work, and Sheriff Kelly, by mere accident, got wind of the business and set a watch for him, with the above result. Archey claims to be a much injured man and pretends he does not know what he was arrested for.
Our new district attorney will enlighten him in the near future.

Capt. G. E. Bartell has received orders from Adj. General Bebee to issue orders to all members of company D, placing them under order at 6 o'clock Friday evening, July 6th, for state encampment.
Quarter-master J. E. Heroux has the company in readiness and will go down to Salem with the intention of making as good an appearance as any company at the encampment so far as regards drilling qualities.

Saturday afternoon sentence was passed by Judge Hewitt on Ferris, the Klickitat murderer. The attorney for the defense made a motion for a new trial, which was denied by the court.
A motion was then made for a stay of sentence, and it also was denied. Ferris was then asked if he had anything to say, and made a statement clearing Miller, who has been mentioned in connection with the murder, of all blame, and saying that the verdict had been fair and impartial. He contradicted the doctors, saying that every shot was fired from the front, except that in the head, of which he knew nothing. Sentence was then pronounced by the court that he be executed privately on a date not sooner than 30 or later than 90 days, no definite time being set.

Astoria Excursion.
The steamer Dalles City will leave the dock at 8 a. m. on July 3d with the excursionists for Astoria, accompanied by the Dalles band, and will run through to Portland arriving at 2:30. Returning the Dalles City will leave Portland July 5th on arrival of the morning train from Astoria, and will run through to The Dalles without making way landings.
