

NEW CITY COUNCIL MEETS

Met to uphold the Mayor in the Office of Recorder and Marshal.

At the first meeting of the new city council last evening the following were present: Mayor George Brown, Councilmen James Hannon, James Like, Charles Jones and G. A. Phelan for appointment as night watchman were read and upon adjourning James Like received five votes, a majority of the council. He is therefore night watchman for the coming year.

Mayor Duff then placed before the council the names of John Michel for recorder and C. V. Chamblin for marshal, and on vote for condemnation by the council two votes were cast in favor of each and seven against.

The council then adjourned and will probably be called in special session before the next regular meeting.
