

For President - WILLIAM M'KINLEY, of Ohio.

For Vice-President - THEODORE ROOSEVELT, of New York.

THE CLASSES VS. THE MASSES.

During an era of prosperity there will be some who will accumulate wealth and perhaps become millionaires. This is true of any prosperous country, and instances might be cited of success in this line in almost every nation.

There has been a change in the last three or four years, capital has come out of its hiding places, business has revived and thrifty men have made money. Still there are poor people, the same as there always have been and always will be.

The moneyed classes are a great benefit to any country, especially to any region during the era of growth. Natural resources need development, markets should be made available by steam transportation, and labor made productive by the employment of modern machinery.

It may be true that the few only are wealthy, while the many are poor; but is it not also true that nearly all the rich men in this country were once poor boys? The money-making or money-saving faculty is rarely possessed by the multitude, and he who exercises it usually suffers the buffets and jibes of his fellows.

generally poor in every regard. The few are the very intelligent, and common sense is sometimes very uncommon.

There should be no antagonism in this regard. If you wish to be rich, save something every day, go without food if necessary, buy cheap clothing or go ragged, and, above all this, by any and all means, make money.

WILD WITH ECZEMA

One of Pittsburg's Most Estimable Business Men Certifies to the Wonderful Efficacy of Cuticura.

I was a sufferer for eight years from that most distressing of all diseases, Eczema. I tried some of the best physicians in the country, but they did me little good. The palms of my hands were covered, and would become inflamed; little white blisters at first would appear, then they would peel off, leaving a red, smooth surface which would burn like fire, and itch; well, there is no name for it. On the inside of the upper part of both my limbs, great red blotches, not unlike hives, would appear, and as soon as I became warm, the burning and itching would begin. Night after night I would lie awake all night and scratch and almost go wild. I got a box of CUTICURA Ointment, a bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and gave them a thorough trial, and after a few applications I noticed the redness and inflammation disappear; before I had used one box there was not a sign of Eczema left. I can truthfully assert that $2.00 worth of CUTICURA REMEDIES cured me.
