

For President—WILLIAM M'KINLEY, of Ohio.

For Vice-President—THEODORE ROOSEVELT, of New York.

THE COUNTRY PRESS.

It is estimated that three-fourths of the people of the United States live in the country and the country towns. To this fact is due the strong hold the country press retains on the American public, says the Review.

Nor is the influence of the rural weekly confined to the country. Much the larger part of the city population comes from the farm.

Many years after the old ties are broken, you will find it upon their desks. It is the remaining tie that binds them to their boyhood home and boyhood companions.

of opportunity. To stranger eyes, the little weekly from some distant state seems dreary and commonplace; but he reads between the lines; he sees behind the scenes.

The country weekly fills a want common to every state in the union. It is one of our American "institutions."

What a story these figures tell of the country's expansion and the growth of the population since the quiet colonial days when Ben Franklin's prudent father refused to help him start a weekly paper, because "there were already two newspapers in America, and a third was not wanted."

The New York World quotes "a well known democratic banker who declined to permit the use of his name," as saying: "I am offering to bet three to one that Bryan will not receive 4,000,000 votes this year, as against 6,500,000 in 1896, and I find no takers."

Help Wanted.

Two girls, who are willing and competent to help, can obtain work by applying at the steam laundry. None but those who are worth the hiring need apply.

Mother's Story of Baby's Cure

Of a Most Distressing Humor by the Cuticura Remedies.

When our baby was a week old, eczema appeared on the top of her head and spread all over her scalp, face, and forehead, forming one mass of sores.

You can realize how much she must have suffered, when she scratched at times till the blood ran intermingled with water. Our family doctor's treatment proved ineffectual, as the disorder, instead of abating, developed more. We then stopped all medical treatment, and commenced with CUTICURA REMEDIES. We used the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, CUTICURA Ointment, and CUTICURA SOAP, all traces of the eczema disappeared, the skin and scalp were left perfectly clear and smooth, and she was entirely cured.

Mrs. E. BUTLER, My oldest boy, age nine years, was troubled with sores on different parts of the body, especially on the leg, about twenty-four in all. They were about the size of a five-cent piece, and would fester very much and eject a pus. They were very painful. After my above experience with the cure of my little girl with CUTICURA REMEDIES, I did not bother with the doctor in this case, but gave him the CUTICURA treatment which completely cured him in four weeks. Mrs. E. BUTLER, 1289 3d Ave., S. Brooklyn, N. Y.
