

For President - WILLIAM MCKINLEY, Of Ohio. For Vice-President - THEODORE ROOSEVELT, Of New York.

GRABS AT A STRAW.

Ex-Senator Corbett has caught his second political wind and is a candidate for the United States senate again, says the East Oregonian. He announces his candidacy in a letter to the Portland Oregonian as follows: "Previous to the recent acts of my political enemies, I had hesitated to become again a candidate for the United States senate. I now offer my services to the state in that capacity, pledging myself to fight for the best interests of the state with the same energy I use in fighting all blackmailing, all forms of repudiation, for the development of the oriental trade, and for whatever will make Oregon and the northwest great and prosperous."

Did mortal man ever witness vainer and coarser work! There is even an appearance that the ex-senator had the "blackmail" suit started against himself for "political reasons," in order that he might have excuse for offering the worn-out issue of "too much Corbett" to the people of Oregon once more.

The "fair Inez" should never be forgiven for driving the old statesman into the field of politics again, where he expects to fight the battle of his life for the double purpose of vindicating his character and satisfying an unruly and unnatural desire to serve a people in the United States, when and by whom he is not wanted. Some people have appetites and ambitions, but this aged man has more than his share of them. He really needs a guardian. It requires more than a scudal, a suit of black-mail, a fat purse, a subservient newspaper and an easy boss to enable a man to break into the United States senate against the people's will.

A dealer in lemons left at this office today a sample lemon from a lot recently received from California, which is literally covered with the San Jose scale. Here is a field that calls loudly for some effective missionary work by the horticultural powers that be. We had no fruit pests till they were brought here, as the scale is still coming in carload lots of affected fruit every day. All efforts to stamp out the fruit pests must be unavailing so long as shippers and dealers are allowed to handle affected fruit without even the pretense of a restraint. The Chronicle hopes the day is not far distant when no fruit raiser or dealer will dare to offer for sale in The Dalles market even a wormy apple without the certainty of arrest and punishment.

The Oregonian knows of only one democratic paper in the northern states that opposed Bryan in 1896 and is supporting him now. The single exception is the Chicago Chronicle which is opposed to the 16-to-1 fallacy, claims it is obsolete, outdated and not an issue at all.

McKinley has not a single element of an imperialist in his makeup, but if he had, Bryan is an autocrat and a despot, as is evidenced by his forcing the democratic national convention to declare for the idioty of free silver when three fourths of the delegates did not want it.

If Ex-Senator Corbett has concluded to run for United States senator because somebody has sued him for $100,000 for alienating his wife's affections, it is a safe presumption that he would have run for president if he had been sued for, say, a quarter of a million.

Ex-Secretary of Agriculture, J. Sterling Morton, reduces the democratic national platform to an essence when he says: "Bryan is 16 to 1. Silver is 16 to 1 is Bryan."

PERTINENT PRESS COMMENT.

An exchange asks, "Who discovered William Jennings Bryan?" Easy; first, his father's family physician; next, himself.—Telegram.

About nine-tenths of the people who went to Nome to dig gold would have done better to stay at home and dig potatoes—or almost anything else.—Telegram.

"President McKinley urged that duties be levied under the Dingley tariff should 'revive and increase manufactures.' This has been done, as our wage-earners well know," states the Olympia Olympian.

Wall Street is betting 4 to 1 on McKinley; it will be 16 to 1 by next October.

Skin-Tortured Babies

And Worn-out Worried Mothers Find Comfort in CUTICURA.

SOME MONTHS AGO OUR BABY'S HEAD GOT SORE. We took him to the doctor, who pronounced it poison and gave us some medicine which did no good. His head got so bad he would cry all night, and my wife could sleep none, and began to look ghostly. His head got so sore that we put a night cap on him, and folded a white cloth four thicknesses inside of it, and just through the night a kind of matter would ooze out from his head, soaked through the cloth and cap and on to the pillow. The top and back of his head was almost a solid sore, and looked so badly that words would not describe it. Almost in despair I told my wife I had seen CUTICURA REMEDIES advertised and recommended very highly and I was going to try them. I bought the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, CUTICURA SOAP, and CUTICURA OINTMENT. We gave him half of the Resolvent, used part of the cake of Soap, and before we had used the second box of CUTICURA Ointment he commenced to get better, and is now as well and hearty as anybody's boy. He is as merry as a lark, sleeps soundly all night, and his hair looks glossy, thick, and soft, while my wife looks like a different woman. I look at him and think I owe it to you and to suffering mankind to write and tell you of this almost wonderful cure. W. W. & J. E. MYERS, Box 90, Monroe City, Ind.
