

Why are we thronged?
What is the attraction?

In hot and sultry times like these, it is only the UNUSUAL BARGAINS that don't go begging. Values, and big ones at that, alone possess the power to interest.

Dated The Dalles, Or., July 27, 1900. C. L. GILBERT, 327-10 School Supt. Wasco Co., Or.

Another Pioneer Gone.

Mr. E. Selden Brooks died at Woodville, Or., on the evening of the 26th inst. He was born in Cass county, Ill., January 31, 1839, and came to Oregon in 1859, in the territorial days of this favored land, with his parents, the late Linus and Eliza Brooks, who shortly after their arrival located and settled on the donation land claim, where now is Brooks station, in Marion county. He was married to Miss Emma Perkins in 1871 and lost his companion in 1877. He never married again. He leaves two daughters, Mrs. Iva B. Collins, of The Dalles, and Miss Emma Seldena Brooks, of Toledo, Or.; he also leaves a sister, Mrs. Wm. E. Brainard, of Mt. Tabor, and two brothers, Mr. Sam'l L. Brooks, of this city, and Henry J. Brooks, of Portland Or.

He was a man of sterling qualities; a man whose tender heart and sympathetic nature were a comfort to all those who were in need and distress that came under his notice.

DEATHS.

At Harland, Wash., Thursday, July 26th, to the wife of William Walker, a son.

In this city, Friday, July 27th, to the wife of Geo. Guinther, a son.

NOTICE.

In justice to the Seufert & Condon Telephone Company, it ought to be said that the fire alarm this afternoon was turned in by the key at their central, their telephone line at the engine house not working on account of its being cut out through the negligence of the Oregon Telephone Company's leaving a wire lying across the drop. The wire, of course, was cut down and communication is now open.

The only store in this city where the Genuine Imported Stransky-Steel Ware is sold.

A little higher in price, but outlasts a dozen pieces of so-called cheap enameled ware.

BEWARE!

Other wares look like it, but the genuine has the name Stransky-Steel Ware on each piece. Do not be deceived. First prize at 10 International Exhibitions. Highest award at World's Columbian Exhibition, Chicago. Preferred by the best cooking authorities, certified to by the most famous chemists for purity and durability. It is cheapest because

BEST.

Remember this celebrated enameled ware is especially imported for and sold in this city exclusively by us.

It does not rust nor absorb grease, does not discolor nor catch inside; is not affected by acids in fruits or vegetables, will boil, stew, roast and bake without imparting flavor of previously cooked food and will last for years.

We caution the public against imitations.

Annual Fire Election.

Annual election of fire chief and assistant chief will take place at the city fire engine house, on Third street, between the hours of 5 and 7 o'clock p. m., August 6, 1900. Active members in good standing in their respective companies are entitled to vote. By order of the Board of Fire Delegates, Dalles City fire department. J. W. T. H. C. LIEBE, Secy.

Spend Sunday at Bonneville.

Put up a lunch and get aboard either of the O. R. & N. trains leaving The Dalles at 4:50 a. m. or 12:35 noon, and spend the day in the refreshing shade of the trees at Bonneville. Fare is only 50 cents for the round trip. Good music and first-class performance under the pavilion free to all. Refreshments can be procured on the grounds if desired. Friday & Sat.

A Good Cough Medicine.

Many thousands have been restored to health and happiness by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It afflicted with any throat or lung trouble, give it a trial for it is certain to prove beneficial. Coughs that have resisted all other treatment for years, have yielded to this remedy and perfect health been restored. Cases that seemed hopeless, that the climate of famous health resorts failed to benefit, have been permanently cured by its use. For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

During last May an infant child of our neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctors had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days time the child had fully recovered. The child is now vigorous and healthy. I have recommended this remedy frequently and have never known it to fail.—Mrs. Curtis Baker, Brookwater, Ohio. Sold by Blakeley & Houghton.

LUXURIES.

Healthful drinks are not luxuries, they are necessities. A full line of cool and refreshing porter, ale, mineral water and beers kept on ice. Take a bottle home for lunch. C. J. Stabling, Phone 234.

WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

During the remainder of the summer season trains Nos. 1 and 2 will stop at Cascade Locks Sundays on being flagged.

Why heat the home these hot days by cooking, when all the delicacies of the season are served at the Umatilla House grill room?

A tract of 7500 acres has been purchased in the Grand Ronde valley, or which it is understood a colony of Mormons will settle.

$2000 in purses will be offered at the Antelope fair which will be held this fall. Five of the best race horses in the circuit of Eastern Oregon are already in training on the Antelope track.

At the great council of the Red Men, which closed its annual meeting at Astoria yesterday, John Mitchell, of this city, was appointed a member of the committee on laws and usages, and Fred Lemple one of the great trustees.

Florence Dorothy, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Merrill, of this city, died this morning at 4:15 o'clock. The child had been in poor health from its birth and its death was not unexpected. The funeral will take place from the residence tomorrow.

John C. Meyers swam seventeen miles in the Mississippi river, between Alton and St. Louis, in three hours and twenty minutes. He had made a wager to swim twenty-five miles in five hours, but a storm came up and swamped the boat in which was the timer and life saver.

It is said there will be a shortage in the California prune crop this year, and that buyers from that state are already visiting the prune sections of Oregon for the purpose of contracting with Oregon growers for this year's crop that they may be able to supply orders they have received.

Judge E. D. Shattuck, of Portland, died at his residence in that city at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. For the past two years he had been in poor health, but was not confined to bed till about a week ago. He was born in Vermont in December, 1824, and came to Oregon in 1853.

At St. Paul the other day Cardinal Gibbons was asked for his views on expansion. He replied in part: "Of course we cannot abandon the islands we have acquired, at least not until a sufficiently powerful home government has been established in each of our new possessions. The duty of America is most emphatically that of teaching the newly acquired possessions to govern themselves."

The Antelope Republican suggests the propriety of revising the Stockman county project, and thinks a small county formed out of southeastern Wasco and northern Crook could be run with less burden to the taxpayers of that district than they are bearing now in connection with two large counties.

The Paul Moter Portage Company have taken a crew up to Pasco to operate the steamer Frederick K. Billings. The Billings will run between Pasco and Columbus, which is situated at the upper end of the portage railway around Celilo Falls. The first work of the Billings will be to carry lumber to be used in constructing landings along the route, which will be used for handling the grain crop this fall.

At 3 o'clock this afternoon the residence of Mrs. Paul Kretz, on Tenth street, was practically burned to the ground. The fire is peculiarly distressing from the fact that only two days ago the remains of the husband and father were borne to their last resting place from the building that is now in ashes. Only a few things from the contents were saved. The fire started in a bed room that was being fumigated.

Mrs. Henry Learned left at this office today four apples of the Red Blight-resistant variety, whose aggregate weight is four pounds and one ounce. One of them weighs eighteen ounces and measures fourteen inches in circumference. The Klattheimer is a fall apple. These are beautifully formed and are without speck or flaw. They are the first product of a young tree that yielded five boxes. Mrs. Learned's place is near the old garrison stable. Who can beat them?

Frank Motter and W. M. Killingsworth are in the city representing the Portland chamber of commerce in a special scheme for advertising the state in general and individual towns and districts in particular. They are soliciting subscriptions for a little book that fits into an ordinary vest pocket and is filled with valuable statistics on every conceivable subject connected with Oregon. The book is sold at five cents a piece, in any quantity, and a town like The Dalles buying, say $250 worth, is entitled to a special write-up of four or five pages. Messrs. Motter and Killingsworth were soliciting subscriptions from the business men this afternoon, and report fair success.

The report in yesterday's CHRONICLE that a brewer in Baker City had copied, bodily, from the Dalles papers an article published in the United States Health Reports, giving an analysis of The Dalles beer by Dr. Amos Grey, and substituted his own name and address for that of August Buchler, of this city, publishing the same in the Baker City papers as an advertisement of his own beer, naturally suggested to Mr. Buchler that he make it his business to see if a thing of that kind can be done with impunity. The matter has been placed in the hands of Charles Schutz, and, as a first step, Mr. Schutz today sent a letter to the publishers of the Reports and asked if it were possible that the Reports should have published an analysis of Baker City beer clothed in the very same words, from first to last, save only in respect to names, as Dr. Grey's analysis of The Dalles beer.

A Soldier's Opinion of the Antis.

Sergeant Charles H. Deems, of Company E, 47th U. S. volunteers, writes a long and interesting letter to an old friend, Charles J. Nickelsen of Boyd, whom the sergeant used to know when he was a mere lad back in old Pennsylvania. We have read the letter and it strongly confirms all that the friends of the present administration have been claiming as to the pernicious effect the teachings of the self-styled anti-imperialists is having on the efforts of our American soldiers to bring the Filipinos into subjection. "Sergeant Deems does not think the war in the Philippines will end soon. The 'niggers,' as he calls the Filipinos, 'are no nearer peace than they were a year ago. They are waiting on W. J. Bryan. They think if Bryan gets to be president they will get their independence. Alas, friend Charlie, they are no more fit for independence than a community of Digger Indians. They are composed of many tribes, some partially civilized but the majority uncivilized barbarians. They are all utterly without sympathy or gratitude. You may treat them with the utmost kindness, give them food, clothing, money, anything they may need or desire, and the next moment if they have a chance, and a hope to escape with impunity, they will hack you to pieces with their bolos. So expert are they in the use of these weapons that I have seen one of them, with one stroke, split a man's head open down to his shoulder. I am glad to see from your letter that you honor the old flag and have faith in the republican party. May God bless you and save you and our common country from the election of a president whose followers and admirers have done more than anything else in the world to prolong the struggle here and to send many a brave American lad to the grave."

Advertised Letters.
