We offer for a limited period the twice-a-week CHRONICLE, price $1.50, and the Weekly Oregonian, price $1.50, both papers for $2 a year. Subscriptions under this offer must be paid in advance.

Rev. D. V. Poling has returned from his summer vacation and will occupy his pulpit at the Congregational church tomorrow, morning and evening. The morning theme will be "The Crowning of the King."

Mr. A. H. Curtiss, who was injured last Wednesday by falling from a platform at the Diamond flouring mills, spent a comfortable night last night and was considered this morning to be on the road to recovery.

The average temperature for the month of August was 66.8, which is 4 degrees lower than the average for 26 years. We had 22 clear days, 5 days part cloudy and 4 days cloudy. The total precipitation was .55 of an inch.

Farmers living south of the Tygh Hill grade complain that the grade is in "as bad condition as it ought to be." It is understood, however, that the county court has offered to contribute half of what may be needed to put the grade in repair, if the settlers living south will put up the other half; a generous offer that the settlers ought to take advantage of and probably will.

On last Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Cass Grazier, of Nansene, lost their infant child, aged four months, after a short illness from summer complaint. The remains were interred in the Odd Fellows' cemetery near town Wednesday afternoon.—Dufur Dispatch.

S. B. Adams says he obtained, in a very short time yesterday, subscriptions to capital stock for a cannery and evaporator to be established at this place in time to handle next year's crop of fruit, amounting to $5,500. He feels confident that he can easily increase the subscriptions to $10,000.

The young people of the city, to the number of nearly half an hundred, gave a dance last evening at the K. of P. hall in honor of the Misses Huber, of Los Angeles, Miss Wheeler, of Portland, and Mrs. F. A. Lueddemann, of Antelope. It goes without saying that they had a most enjoyable time.

N. M. Eastwood, who has been wharfing for the past six years for the D. P. & A. N. Co. at this place, has accepted a position in the forwarding department of the Wasco warehouse and entered upon his duties at that place this morning. Ralph Gibbons succeeds Mr. Eastwood at the D. P. & A. N. Company dock.

Since Miss Edna Driver left on the boat for Portland some eight or ten days ago, her big mastiff, Prince, visits the boat landing every morning and evening and passes through the crowd of lady passengers looking for his mistress. When the affectionate brute has gone the round without finding Miss Edna, he marches solemnly and sadly home.

Mrs. H. L. Jones has opened ice cream and oyster parlors in the store formerly occupied by Carey Ballard as the "Palace of Sweets," next door to the McInerney dry goods store. Mrs. Jones has fitted up the place very handsomely and has stocked it with a full line of candies and cigars. She is prepared to furnish oysters and ice cream for parties and respectfully solicits a share of the public patronage.

John Regan, of Ramsey precinct, met with a serious accident last Wednesday. While on his way home from Dufur his horse fell with him, throwing him to the ground and breaking his arm at the shoulder joint. Mr. Regan was brought to town the same evening and the fracture was reduced by Dr. Dodds, and after being made as comfortable as possible returned home. At last accounts Mr. Regan was resting as easy as could be expected.—Dufur Dispatch.

Last Tuesday G. W. Markham, while driving down the Quinn grade, a few miles above town, with four horses heavily loaded with wood, had the misfortune to have his brake give way, which precipitated the wagon upon the front wheels running over the hind legs of both horses, breaking the leg of one of the horses and seriously injuring the other. Upon examination it was found necessary to kill the one with the broken leg, while the other is thought to be so badly injured as to render him unfit for use in the future. This is a serious loss to Mr. Markham as he, in a great part, makes his living by teaming.—Dufur Dispatch.

Al Perry was arrested yesterday, on complaint of Ward & Robertson, charging him with the crime of larceny in a building. Perry was an employe of the Ward & Robertson stables. William Ellery, a wool buyer, keeps a driving team at the stable and also a spit of clothes that he uses when riding out. The other day the clothes turned up missing. Ward & Robertson offered a reward of $15 for the return of the clothes and Perry at once produced them and got the reward. Suspicion was directed towards Perry and he was placed under arrest. This morning he was arraigned in the justice court and by arrangement pleaded guilty to simple larceny and was sentenced to sixty days in the county jail.

Speaking of the proposed Dalles carnival, J. S. Sullivan, who represents Russel & Co., of Portland, and who has had large experience in such matters in In Decotah, said to the CHRONICLE man, "I believe a street fair would prove the most profitable, as well as the biggest thing The Dalles ever had. I speak from experience with such fairs in the Dakotas and Minnesota. Let the merchants here offer individual rewards for fattest steer or hog, the finest cow or horse, the best sample of wheat, the biggest apple or pear or peach, or cabbage or what not, and you would see a crowd in The Dalles and a competition that you never dreamed of. The actual outlay to make it a success need not cost, in a town of the size of The Dalles, more than two or three thousand dollars and every dollar the business men subscribe will return to them many fold."

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The Best Ever Held in Wasco County—Teachers in Attendance.

It was the opinion of all who attended the institute at Hood River that yesterday was the best day of the best institute held in Wasco county. The morning's work as indicated in the published program was carried out. At noon lunch was served in a beautiful grove by Hood River's hospitable people.

The afternoon session of the institute was held in the same grove. Supt. Robinson spoke of the value of individuality in teaching and of the great responsibility of teachers. President Hawley gave a most instructive account of the impeachment of Andrew Johnson. Dr. Frank Strong, president of the University of Oregon, was introduced to the institute by Supt. Gilbert. Dr. Strong defined briefly the true friend of education.

In the evening lecture on the subject "Some Aspects of Education at the Close of the Nineteenth Century," Dr. Strong said that a great change was coming in the work of education and that Oregon had a bright future if the teachers were well prepared for their work and loyal servants of the people.

The following teachers attended the institute:

From The Dalles schools J. S. Landers, Justus Neff, Melissa Hill, Minnie Mitchell, Mrs. Baldwin, Minnie Elton, Tena Rintoul, Louise Rintoul, Alice Ball, Nan Cooper, Maggie Flinn, Etta Wrenn, Anna Thompson and Mrs. Kate Roche; T. M. B. Chastain, who will teach the Pine Grove school; Louis H. Arneson, the Crapper school; Julia Hill, May Sechler and Josie Spink, employed at Antelope; R. R. Allard, G. W. Brown and Rebecca Wilson, Dufur; Mabel Riddell, Mosier; Edna Brown, Frankton school, Hood River; Z. E. Freer, Wamie; Cassie M. Cheeze, Floyd school; Grace Hill, Mill Creek; Ola Norman, Kimsay district; F. B. Barnes, Frankton school; Mabel Omez, Harvey school, near Prineville; Bertha Hill, Grass Valley academy; Cora I. Coppel, Barrett school; Martha Baldwin, Three Mile; Blanche Davep, Dist. 17; Frances H. Fouts, Chenoweth; Maude E. Mitchell, Grade, Wheeler county; Stella Brown, Upper Five Mile; C. D. Thompson, Minnie Brown, Kate Davenport, Hood River schools. Other teachers were: Maude Sigman, Hester Kent, Mabel O'Brien, H. Kelley, G. W. McClure, Bess Isenberg, Jessie McLeod, Maie Jones; also Misses Mary Frazier and Stella Heinbach, of the Portland schools.
