ONE-LEGGED BALL PLAYER.

Eight-Year-Old Boy Runs Bases Without the Aid of His Crutch.

Members of the Kenwood Country club have a mascot in Willie Howard, the one-legged baseball player, says a Chicago paper. The little fellow, eight years of age, is considered one of the most expert amateur ball players on the south side. He manages to run the bases on one leg. Of late the young man has frequently been asked to appear on the tennis grounds. It is said that whatever side he champions is sure to be victorious in the tennis contests. Any fine afternoon when there is a tennis game in progress Willie Howard is very conspicuous. He is regarded by some of the best tennis experts as the forerunner of good luck. One day lately Willie was in great demand. It is said his services were bid for long before the champion tennis contests began at the Kenwood Country club.

Little Willie, as he is familiarly called by his many friends, takes a prominent part in baseball games when there are no games of tennis in progress. As a batter he is said to be the equal of anyone on the Kenwood grounds. Of late the young fellow has discarded his habit of running the bases with a crutch in hand. It is said that Willie believes it undignified to run the bases in his former way. The result is the youthful ball player now covers the bases in a hop, skip and jump fashion.

OUTS WIN FROM BOOKIES.

Race Track Hangers-on Describe How They Caught On to a Good Thing.

"It was just like this, you see, me and Mickey came to Chicago to be on hand for the opening season of the races at Washington park from Detroit," said a short man with a sandy mustache and wearing clothes that had seen better days around a race track, who was standing near the grand stand in Washington park the other day talking to a tout who was going to give him a good thing, relates the Chronicle. "When Mickey and I hit the town we didn't have a cent, so we had to beg our eluck and banner money from people on the street. The next day we were in for it good. No money, didn't know anybody, only a few touts, who only had eating money for themselves and had a good thing that would win in a walk and the odds were big. Mickey says: 'Pal, I think I can get a few bucks to bet on a good thing, so he did. How he got it I don't know, but in three days after he got it we walked out of the track with $2,200 in our pockets of the bookies' easy money.' That is the story overheard by a man who was standing near the two alleged touts who were telling of their good luck since the opening of the Washington park track.

BROKE THE NEWS SUDDENLY.

Comical Episode in the Meeting of Long-Separated Brothers in England.

A curious little story reached us the other day from the lips of an officer invalided home from South Africa, says the Liverpool Post. The eldest son of a well-known duke had a younger brother in Ladysmith and was naturally anxious and eager for his safety. He himself was serving with the forces of Gen. Buller and was through all the long and arduous campaign which preceded the relief of that place. When it became known that the road was at last open, the young nobleman was sent forward with the first forces to enter the town. He soon found his brother, whom his eyes had been yearning to see for so many long and weary months. "Hallo, Jack!" he shouted, and then, in his excitement and pleasure, for the life of him he couldn't think of what to say next. At last he blurted out with: "Old Tom, the gardener, is dead." An anti-climax which, in spite of the apparently mournful character of the news, caused both the brothers to roar with laughter. Such was the first item of home news which the younger one heard after a sickening period of anxious waiting.

POLITE IN FACE OF DANGER.

Extraordinary Coolness of a Gentleman During a Fire Astonished the Firemen.

"The coolest man I ever met," said a New York fireman, relates Collier's Weekly. "I met at a fire in a dwelling house on Fifth avenue. We found him in an upstairs front room, dressing to go out. The fire by this time was surging up through the house at a great rate.

"'Hello, there!' we hollered at him when we looked in at the door, 'the house is afire!'"

"'Would it disturb you if I should remain while you are putting it out?'" he said, lifting the comb from his hair and looking round at us. He had on a white evening waistcoat, and his dresscoat lay across a chair.

"'Seeing us staring at him, he dropped his comb into his hair again and went on combing. But, as a matter of fact, he was about ready. He put down the comb, put on his coat and hat, and picked up his overcoat.

"'Now I'm ready, gentlemen,' he said.

"'We started, but the stairway had now been closed up by fire. We turned to the windows. The boys had got a ladder up to the front of the house.

"'Now, then,' we said to him, when we came to the window.

"'After you, gentlemen,' he said, standing back. And I'm blessed if we didn't have to go down the ladder first."

The Lawson Pink.

It is reported in Boston from a foreign source that the famous pink which the Boston broker, Thomas W. Lawson, bought for $30,000 and named the "Mrs. Thomas W. Lawson pink" after his wife, has been sold again. The latest purchaser, the report says, is no less a personage than the khedive of Egypt, now sojourning in London, who made the purchase through an agent. The price he is supposed to have paid is not included in the story.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Blakeley's drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

Disposition of Americans.

TIEN TAIN, Aug. 29, via Taku, Aug. 30—Orders received from Washington direct that the 5000 American troops be divided between Pekin, Tien Tain and Taku for the winter. Abundant supplies are now arriving and all that is necessary is being rapidly forwarded to Pekin.

During last May an infant child of our neighbor was suffering from cholera infantum. The doctors had given up all hopes of recovery. I took a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to the house, telling them I felt sure it would do good if used according to directions. In two days time the child had fully recovered. The child is now vigorous and healthy. I have recommended this remedy frequently and have never known it to fail.—Mrs. Curtis Baker, Brookwater, Ohio. Sold by Blakeley & Houghton.
