MUTINY OF FILIPINO PRISONERS

Native Prisoners at Bilibid Attacked the Guard Under Leadership of a Desperate Character—Hard Fight Ensued.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Manila papers just received at the war department give details of a desperate mutiny among the native prisoners in Bilibid prison, which resulted in the death of four and the wounding of fifteen of them.

The report states that the outbreak came without the slightest warning. The officials of the prison were going about their duties on a hot summer afternoon, the 16th of July last, when a little Filipino, serving a life term, assumed a crouching attitude and began to creep up behind the native foreman, giving utterance to a low growl like a wild beast. The effect was electrical on the other convicts. In an instant the mutterings had grown to a wild roar; every prisoner was making for the keepers with murder in his eyes. The senior captain of the native guard, when he commanded the little mob to disperse, was slashed across the back of the head with a bolo.

Then the infuriated men started for the gateway of the prison to overpower the guard and escape. They were met by Major Rogers, the commandant and a small portion of the guard, who fired a volley into the ranks of the fugitives. Three men fell and this seemed to check the prisoners for an instant, but their leader, a Filipino of the most desperate type, urged them on. Though already wounded by the first fire, his spirit was unbroken and four times the rifles spoke before he fell. Then, like rats in a trap, the prisoners tried first one gateway and then another, and probably would have overpowered the small guard and made their escape had not American prisoners themselves come to the rescue and helped to capture the fugitives.

A few more volleys from their reinforced pursuers and the prisoners scurried to their quarters in abject terror.

His Life Was Saved.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from a frightful death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with Typhoid fever, that ran into Pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of Consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it, and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvelous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all Throat and Lung Trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Blakeley's drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

The Kaiser Has No Fears.

STETTIN, Sept. 7.—The emperor and empress of Germany arrived here today to attend the imperial navy maneuvers. In reply to an address of welcome from the Burgomaster, his majesty declared his conviction that success would attend the efforts being made to establish in the far East a stable government and orderly conditions under which the German merchants can carry on trade undisturbed and without risk. In conclusion, his majesty said he felt no anxiety for the future, and was satisfied his plan would succeed and serve the best interests of the fatherland.

No Right to Ugliness.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at Blakeley's drug store.

MAY WITHDRAW FROM PEKIN

A Compromise Suggested for Leaving An International Guard to Protect the Legations.

PARIS, Sept. 7.—Active negotiations are in progress looking to some compromise arrangement with Russia regarding the position she has assumed toward Peking. The communications exchanged by the powers now have better promise of success. The compromise suggested, it is asserted here, is the withdrawal of forces of all the powers from Peking, leaving an international guard to protect the legations, which, it is further asserted in Paris, will be allowed to remain at the Chinese capital pending a peace settlement. The main body of troops, it is also said, will retire to the neighborhood of Tien Tsin, leaving sufficient force along the road to keep open the route and protect the railroad between Peking and Tien Tsin.

Russia's attitude is interpreted here as meaning that she will withdraw her troops outside of Peking, but not necessarily a great distance from that city.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—A special dispatch from Shanghai says Li Hung Chang has made a request for an American escort to accompany him on his journey to Peking, and that United States Consul Goodnow is considering his request. Now that a proposal more in conformity with the original American recommendation has apparently met with the approbation of at least a majority of the powers, the British foreign office has allowed it to become definitely known that the British government is of the opinion that it is advisable for the allied forces to Peking until satisfactory arrangements for peace, etc., are concluded with the Chinese government.

STETTIN, Sept. 7.—The emperor and empress of Germany arrived here today to attend the imperial navy maneuvers. In reply to an address of welcome from the Burgomaster, His Majesty declared his conviction that success would attend the efforts being made to establish in the far east a stable government and orderly conditions under which the German merchants can carry on trade undisturbed and without risk. In conclusion His Majesty said he felt no anxiety for the future and was satisfied his plan would succeed and serve the best interests of the fatherland.

It affords a quick and sure cure in a pleasant form." For sale by Blakeley & Houghton.

MAY PREEMPT DELAGOA BAY

In That Case Kruger Will Find No Refuge in Portuguese Territory.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: The news telegraphed from Lisbon yesterday that a military expedition 1000 strong is about to leave the Tagus for Lourenco Marques, has caused much speculation as to the Portuguese intentions in South Africa. For some time it has been hinted that important developments in Portuguese policy might shortly be expected, and many people believe that there is a secret agreement between Great Britain and Portugal, which will enable the former power to exercise a long-cherished right of pre-emption of Delagoa Bay. Others connect the Portuguese reinforcement with an intention to refuse the Boer fugitives an asylum in Mozambique and the determination of the Lisbon government no longer to permit the Dutch forces to draw supplies from Delagoa Bay.

As long as the Transvaal was an independent state Portugal had no right to prevent goods other than contraband of war reaching the frontier, nor could she prevent unarmed burghers from entering the territory; but if Portugal recognizes the British annexation of the Transvaal as valid, she will be entitled to treat the Boers as rebels against a friendly state and could refuse to grant Kruger or other leaders of escaped Boer combatants permission to seek refuge within the domains of King Carlos. The English government is extremely anxious that the ex-president should not slip through their fingers, and Portugal would certainly be doing the British a very good turn if she denied the old man an asylum and compelled him to surrender to Lord Roberts. It is still more important that supplies from Mozambique should be cut off from the various guerrilla bands which are quite likely to remain in the field even after the final collapse of Botha's army. There are many signs that the military authorities regard the end of the war as close at hand. Lord Roberts is making preparations to return to England, and has already sent four of his chargers down to Cape Town. The general belief is that Lord Roberts is coming home to take up the post of commander-in-chief of the British army, which Lord Wolseley will vacate in October. Other indications of the same kind are that the personnel of the army transport in the Orange River colony has been paid off and disbanded and the imperial yeomanry and scouts employed in that country have arrived at Cape Town, also with the object of receiving their final pay prior to embarkation. It is hoped that war may be declared officially over before the general election, which is almost certain to be in October.

Will Not Buy Cotton.

MANCHESTER, Eng., Sept. 7.—At a meeting of the cotton-spinners here today it was decided, practically unanimously, not to purchase American spot cotton during September. Four-fifths of the employers in the trade were represented. It is anticipated that the decision will lead to the closure of scores of mills for several weeks.
