CURIOUS BILL FOR REPAIRS.

Belgian Mechanic Had a Singularly Worded Claim Against a Church.

The authorities of an old church in Belgium recently decided to make some repairs to its interior furnishings and employed an artist to touch up a very large painting, reports a foreign exchange. When the artist presented his bill the committee in charge refused to pay it unless the details were specified. The next day the bill was handed in itemized as follows:

To correcting the ten commandments, embellishing Pontius Pilate and putting new ribbons on his bonnet	$8.50
Putting tail on rooster of St. Peter and treading his comb	4.00
Respluming and gliding left wing of the guardian angel	6.25
Washing the servant of the high priest and putting carmine on his cheeks	5.00
Renewing Heaven, adjusting the stars and cleaning up the moon	7.00
Touching up gargatory and restoring lost souls	8.75
Brightening up the flames of hell, putting new tail on the devil, mending his hoof and doing several odd jobs for the damned	12.00
Reheating the fowls of Herod and adjusting his wife	5.00
Taking the spots off the son of Tobias	1.50
Cleaning Belshazzar's ass and putting one shoe on him	1.75
Putting outlines in Sarah's ears	1.75
Putting a new stone in David's sling, enlarging the head of Goliath and extending Saul's legs	6.00
Decorating Noah's ark and partially dressing Ham	4.00
Mending the skirt of the prodigal son and cleaning his left ear	3.00
Total	$74.95

Top-Heavy Justice.
An Indiana fence is hardly an ideal place from which to dispense justice, according to the Lewiston Journal, which repeats the story on the authority of an eminent occupant of a judicial bench: A justice of the peace in a country district was oppressively imbued with an idea of his own responsibility in seeing that the peace was kept in the state of Indiana. He never lost an opportunity of showing his authority. He was a farmer, and his farm bordered on the state of Ohio. Indeed, one of his fences was on the state line. One day his son and the hired man got to fighting near this line fence. The justice, quick to see the situation, jumped to the fence, as a better "bench of justice," and assailed the fighters, demanding "peace in the name of the state of Indiana." But the farmer justice's defense of the peace was not based on good premises. He had no sooner asserted his authority than the fence he was on gave way, carrying him over backward—into the state of Ohio. As he felt himself falling he shouted to his son: "Give him the mischief, Jim! I've lost my jurisdiction!"
