

For President- WILLIAM M'KINLEY, of Ohio.

For Vice-President- THEODORE ROOSEVELT, of New York.

BRYAN ROASTED TO A TURN.

Senator Hanna tore the mask of Candidate Bryan in vigorous style last Saturday at Delphi, Indiana.

"The position of the democratic party upon the Philippine question was made and fixed up in the city of Washington by Mr. Bryan, and his close advisers themselves. I was there about that time. I knew what was going on. I could see by the evidences when that question was discussed in the senate, after seeing Mr. Bryan day after day in the corridors and anterooms of the senate, button-holing his men, that were holding back and away from his influence, that he had said that the treaty must be passed, and it was passed. While we of us who had the pleasure and enjoyed the right of voting from principle and sustaining the strong arm of the administration, working from the standpoint of duty, felt that we had taken a prominent part in that glorious act of ratifying the treaty, and saving the honor and integrity of the American army and American navy, and upholding the American people, still, for all that, we were not numerically strong enough to have accomplished that purpose, if it had not been for the cohorts of Mr. Bryan. Did he and his cohorts act from the same motives which inspired the republican members of that senate? No; I am ashamed to say no; because we knew that the purposes he had in view were purely political and intended to be used just as they have been used to make an issue; possibly a paramount issue, but at least a collateral issue in the coming campaign. And that has been the result."

And then Senator Hanna proceeded to quote the scathing words of that grand old man, Senator Hoar, of Massachusetts, spoken about a month ago in presence of twenty to thirty prominent business men of Boston, in response to a request that he give his views on the political questions of the campaign. Senator Hoar said:

"Gentlemen, you all know that I have not been in harmony with my party upon this Philippine question, but that is only one of the many important questions, and as long as my party stands upon the foundation, the principles of which were the beginning and baptism of its life, I shall stand by my party. But I propose to tear the mask from the face of that hypocrite, William J. Bryan. I call him a hypocrite because, like my friends, Senator Lodge and Senator Hanna, I know the motive which inspired the action on his part to ratify the treaty. You told me then, but I could hardly believe it was true, and I now see that it was true, and that he is acting the part of a consummate hypocrite in all his advocacy in opposition to the president on that question."

"We declare in favor of a strict adherence to the traditional policy of the democratic party in the matter of territorial extension: that the speedy annexation of Hawaii, the independence of Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines and their acquisitions are favored, if in keeping with enduring peace with the powers of Europe." This is not an extract from a republican platform; not at all. It is part of the platform adopted by the Democrats at Mt. Clemens, Mich., in June, 1898. It contrasts strongly with what these same democrats are now asked to support if they follow the vagaries of Mr. Bryan.

The Portland Lantern, the object and aim of whose existence has always been a mystery to this deponent, has changed hands and will in future support the Kansas City platform. The diminutive sheet opens its little campaign with the appalling announcement that "Portland and vicinity will go for Bryan and all that remains is to count Bryan's majority." The Lantern's gall is evidently in a vigorous condition.
