

You May Have Heard

Such expressions as "The Coat seems to be alright, only the collar doesn't seem to fit;" or "I think the back wrinkles a little." There is where the average clothier "falls down;" he doesn't try to avoid the wrinkles in his clothing; he is neglectful of details. When we sell you a suit of clothes we want your friends to be able to say—

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and suns and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size, Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N.Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

Next Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Congregational church, Mrs. Helen Harford, state president of the W. C. T. U., will meet with the union. A most cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend this meeting.

Joaquin Miller, the poet, who is in China, credits Li Hung Chang with saying that if it had been known that there was not much loot in Peking, the allied forces would not have been in such a hurry to get there. Miller met the old statesman at Canton, and had a long interview with him.

A gravel train was wrecked this forenoon at a point this side Celilo and fourteen cars thrown off the track. It occurred just in time to obstruct No. 2, that arrives here at 12:15. Transfer was made with No. 1 west-bound, and the substitute for No. 1 passed through here west-bound at 3:30 p. m.

Whipple Bros. & Douglas, of the Deschutes precinct, have just finished threshing a crop of 7000 bushels of wheat and barley from a 340-acre field, sixty acres of which they cut for hay, while fifty acres of the wheat, as well as the barley, were spring sowing. The boys have 400 acres of summer fallow ready for seeding.

Mrs. Helen D. Harford, state president of the W. C. T. U., will address a public temperance meeting in the M. E. church on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Harford is a very logical thinker, a clear reasoner, and a very pleasant and winning speaker. The local union will speak for the lady a large audience.

Labor is so scarce that the hop-growers at Poyallup wait at the trains and quarrel over who shall have any men in search of work. That goes to show that if Mr. Bryan depends upon the army of unemployed for his support in Washington, his vote is likely to be as numerous as the proverbial corporal's guard.

Walt and Charley Douglas, of the Deschutes precinct, have just closed a threshing run of thirty-two days with a J. I. Case 32-inch threshing machine, during which they averaged over $2000 bushels a day, or a total of 65,000 bushels. The largest run was 1525 sacks of wheat in one day. They would like to hear of any machine of the same size that has beaten this record.

There are ninety-one veterans of the different wars in the Oregon Soldiers' Home, classified as follows: Nine Mexican, twenty-five Indian, fifty-six Civil and one Spanish war veteran. Of these twenty-one are hospital patients, most of them permanently such. There are but two empty beds in the hospital, a number inadequate to meet emergencies which may arise any day.

Uncle Johnny Graham, who returned yesterday from a visit to Sherman county, says all the farmers over that way say they are coming to The Dalles fair, sure. He says, what is quite true, that hardly any of the farmers attended the Portland fair. They were too busy; but most of them will be free to take a two or three days' lay off by the time the Dalles fair opens, and they are going to do it.

W. H. Van Bibber has abandoned the dairy business and sold the younger portion of his milk cows to B. T. Collins. The older cows he will fatten and dispose of for beef. Mr. Van Bibber has been in the dairy business for thirty-five years. Every morning of these long years, with one exception, if memory serves us, at a little after midnight Mr. Van Bibber covered the three miles between here and his ranch and delivered to his customers the two milkings of the previous twenty-four hours. He has grown rich and prosperous and might, years ago, have retired from business on an ample competence had not old habits kept him in the barnes.

On his last visit to England Bishop Potter, of New York, was addressed as "your grace" until the phrase became a nightmare. When he arrived home again it happened that the first person to address him as he walked down the gangplank was a longshoreman who knew him. "Hullo, bish, how are you?" said the man, and the bishop fell to thinking which of the two styles he preferred.

Dr. R. E. Smith, of the Oregon Infirmary of Osteopathy of Portland, and graduate of the American school of osteopathy of Kirksville, Mo., under the founder, Dr. A. T. Still, will open an office in The Dalles Tuesday, Sept. 18th, where he will be prepared to treat all chronic and acute diseases. Office hours 11 and 12, Chapman block. There seems to be no money in the canyoning business and consequently the abattoir at Linnton will shut down within a short time. The exportation of canned horse-meat to European countries has been discouraged by restrictive legislation, and by the acts of foreign countries in every way. This being the case, the peaceful career of the herds of horses on the hillsides of Eastern Oregon will no longer be interrupted.

J. R. Burton, a prominent lawyer of Abilene, Kan., made a republican speech at Sedalia, Mo., a short time ago to an immense audience and received the closest attention. Only once was he interrupted when a Bryanite on a front seat called out in stentorian tones: "The republicans have nominated two kings." Burton stopped and in the most suave manner said: "My friend, don't you know that two kings always beat two jacks?"

"If I were to give you an orange," said a learned judge, "I would simply say, 'I give you the orange,' but should the transaction be entrusted to a lawyer to put in writing he would adopt this form: 'I hereby grant, give and convey to you all my interest, right, title and advantage of and in said orange, together with its rind, skin, juice, pulp and pits, and all rights and advantage therein, with full power to bite, suck, or otherwise eat the same, or give away with or without the rind, skin, juice, pulp or pits, anything hereinbefore or in any other deeds or deeds, instruments of any nature or kind whatsoever to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.'

County surveyor J. B. Goit has returned from Juniper Flat, where he made two surveys, one from Clear creek and the other from White river, for the purpose of determining which is the more practicable way to get water for irrigating and domestic purposes on the Flat. The ranchers, who have made up their minds to do the work without asking outside help, finally decided on the White river route and expect to commence operations this fall. It will take nine miles of flume to bring the water on the flat, at an estimated cost of $9000, or some $50 for each quarter section to be benefited. It is calculated to build a V flume, with three foot sides and a capacity of 1100 miners' inches. The flume will have a grade of a little less than an inch to the rod, which will give a flow of four and a half miles an hour. These estimates will give each quarter-section to be benefited five miners' inches of water. The ranchers will erect a saw mill of their own for the purpose of getting the lumber needed for the flume. They expect in a short time to have their organization perfected so that they can accomplish as much work as possible before winter sets in.

Mann, of Oakland, Calif., accompanied by Mrs. Mann's daughter, Mrs. Leonora Martin, of San Francisco, are visiting relatives and friends at The Dalles and Boyd.
