

"The Circus Girl."

Below is what the Portland Oregonian has to say about the McCoy Comedy Company, which opens in this city, at the Vogt opera house, for a two-night engagement commencing Monday, Sept. 24th, presenting the first night the comedy drama, "A Circus Girl." The second night they will have on the boards the latest dramatization and fad of the day, "Quo Vadis." Popular prices. Tickets will be on sale, commencing Saturday morning, at Clarke & Falk's drug store.

"McCoy Comedy Company, in 'The Circus Girl,' met with a genuine ovation from a packed house last night at the Metropolitan theater, in the presentation of the opening attraction of the season. A continuous round of laughter greeted each succeeding ludicrous situation, with which the play abounds, and from the way 'The Circus Girl' caught on last night there is a safe prediction of a 'big house' engagement.

"To follow the intricacies of the play would require a brain overendowed with gray matter. Domestic and marital relations are portrayed in complicated situations, as would result from such infringements as Arthur Hamming-top and the circus girl were indulging in. R. A. Graham, as Arthur Hamming-top, proved himself himself to be a thorough comedian of the Dixon type, self possessed and exact. His efforts met with the hearty approval of the large audiences. Maudie Sutton, in the title role, was chic and pretty, her scene with Joshua, in the latter part of the second act, being particularly clever.

"During the course of the play Maudie Sutton sings a catchy rag-tune, and little Fannie and Flossie Keeler do an artistic cakewalk.

"'The Circus Girl' will be the attraction all week, with the usual Saturday matinee."

Battle of Komatipoort.

LOURENCO MARQUES, Sept. 18.—Fighting is proceeding at Komatipoort. All the available men have been sent to the frontier. It is expected that the Komatipoort bridge will be destroyed. There is great uneasiness here.

Komatipoort is a town on the frontier of the Transvaal, and the railroad leading from Pretoria to Portuguese territory. It is situated about fifty miles from Lourenco Marques. With the occupation of Komatipoort, the British would be able to cut off all supplies reaching the Boers by railroad from Portuguese territory.

Through the months of June and July our baby was teething and took a running off of the bowels and sickness of the stomach," says O. P. M. Holliday, of Deming, Ind. "His bowels would move from five to eight times a day. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house and gave him four drops in a teaspoonful of water and he got better at once. Sold at Blakely's drugstore.

Turner Desires Campaign Funds.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 18.—Senator Turner, of Washington, has been chasing Chairman Jones, of the national democratic committee, all over the country. He wants to induce Jones to put a large part of the campaign fund into Washington state, in order to carry it. Turner said to some of his friends that he believed there was a chance of winning Washington state, and he hopes to pull Rogers through, whose nomination he forced at the recent fusion gathering.

"My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhoea," says J. H. Deak, Williams, Oregon. "We were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance, and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I am happy to say it gave immediate relief and a complete cure." For sale at Blakely's drug store.
