DOLLAR AND MAN.

The Bryan talk about greed and commercialism and putting the dollar above the man might seem ap propriate enough in the mouth of a college professor, sure of his job for life and addressing an audience of well-to-do mugwumps who find their ing an air of super ority to the worka-day world. There are gentlemen who have no command of facts but who have no command of facts but take great delight in insisting upon their principles. The facts are liable to be more effective.

"At the price of the most violent and destructive crisis on record, such a crisis as can only be brought on by a sudden subversion of the standard of values and of the whole business credit. At the price of indefinite business paralysis and distress. At the drice of the ruthless spoliation of the savings accumulated by the toiling masses. At the price of robbing our war veterans of half the value of their pensions. At the price of greatly increasing the number of unemployed by discouraging enterprise, and of curtailing the value of wages of those remaining at work. At the of those remaining at work. At the price of the respect of the world for our intelligence and practical sense.

And, worse, far worse, than all this, at the price of something that has never been forfeited since this republic was born—at the price of the greatest good a nation can possess and for the preservation of which it should shed its last drop of blood—at the price of our national honor. For this nation, so rich and powerful, would stand before the world as a wanton, reckless repudiator, as nothing better than a fraudulent bank-rupt. This will be the cost of the experiment.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on Blakeley, the Druggist, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every battle guaranteed, or price refunded.
