He accuses the republicans of being in the wrong and revolutionary in buying the inhabitants of the Philippines at so much per head, although there have in the past been five great national purchases of the same nature, chiefly under democratic presidents.

In 1803 Jefferson paid $15,000,000 for Louisians. That was a higher price per head, if the bargain is to be so described, than was given for the Filipinos.

In 1819 Gen. Jackson gave $5,-000,000 for Florida. This also ex-Philippine quotations.

In 1848 President Polk paid $18,-250,000 for New Mexico and California.

In 1853 President Pierce paid $10,-000,000 for the Gadsden territory.

In 1867 President Johnson paid $7,200,000 for Alaska.

In all, prior to the purchase of the Philippines, we paid about $56,000,-000 for new territory, in none of which was the inhabitants' consent to be governed ever asked for, and in none of which, when consent was forcibly refused, did the authority of the United States fail to be upheld by the occupant of the White house wonderful in building up the health. and the military forces under his Only 25 cents per box. LEST WE FORGET.

The inauguration of a democratic president in March, 1893, marked the beginning of the most distressful times ever known in this country.

In the preceding November the majority of the nation's working people had seen fit to try the experiment of bettering their condition through entrusting political power to the democratic party in both the ad- strictly pure liquid paints ministrative and legislative branches of the government. Within less than one year after the industrial workers had decided, in November of 1892, not to let well enough alone, prosperity had set like the sun, there was a vast army of unemployed men, and starvation and misery reigned among tens of thousands previously well to do.

The suddenness and completeness with which this terrible change in 1893 was wrought in the fortunes of the American people, furnished a fearfully bitter lesson. But it is a lesson that it is better for us to hold in vivid remembrance at this time rather than learn it all over again by taking another dose of democracy mixed with Bryanism.

"How can any farmer be a republican?" asks Mr. Bryan, and the New York Sun proceeds to assure FRENCH him that his curiosity will be piqued still more when he hears from Kansas next November.
