

For President - WILLIAM M'KINLEY, of Ohio.

For Vice-President - THEODORE ROOSEVELT, of New York.

POINT OF ARGUMENT MISSED.

The Porto Rican election laws require that voters shall have been residents of the municipality for one year, that they must be taxpayers and that they must read and write.

The Democrat misses the point of the republican argument. The republicans are not "howling" at democratic restriction of the ballot, per se, but at the hypocrisy of Bryanism that "howls" about its restriction among the ignorant masses in our new possessions while democratic restriction, among a much more intelligent class of voters in the South, is accepted without apology, much less condemnation.

The populist candidate for governor of Texas has withdrawn from the ticket and written a letter in which he roundly denounces the democratic party for its inconsistency. At Bryan's statement that the republican party will destroy the republican form of government he is particularly scathing, saying the democrats are the only organized party that ever deliberately shot to death the American flag; that ever disfranchised citizens by millions; that enslaved its free born. It forced the war with Spain, and then obstructed the appropriations to pay for it; it voted to ratify the treaty with Spain and pay $20,000,000 for the Philippines, and has ever since been clamoring to turn them loose and shake the responsibility.

"Abraham Lincoln and Bryan! Abraham Lincoln and Altgeld! To associate these names together as allies in a common cause—aye, to pronounce them together in the same breath—is not only a fraud, it is a sacrilege." So said Carl Schurz, speaking at Peoria in 1896, and what was true then is true now, having gained emphasis with the passing years.

"The party which will not allow the constitution to follow the flag through the Carolinas, through Mississippi and Texas, has no occasion to distress itself about the constitution's journey 4,000 miles across the sea."—Republican State Platform, New York.

"Thirty-eight years ago Mr. McKinley on the field of Antietam was promoted from sergeant to lieutenant," says the Ledger. "He was fighting then as now because somebody wanted to haul down the flag."

Already the census man has found over 528,000 manufacturing establishments, as against 322,638 in 1890. This looks as though the trusts were not crushing out individual enterprise at such a great rate.

Bourke Cockran, of New York, who now prates of "imperialism" and is trying to get the silver issue out of the New York campaign, has said: "The American nation will never consent to substitute the republic of Washington, of Jefferson and of Jackson for the republic of an Altgeld, a Tillman or a Bryan."
