WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

The ladies of the Lutheran church will serve lunch during the carnival.

New shoes for fall and winter just received at the New York Cash Store.

Professor Sandvig's second dance of the season will be given at the Baldwin Saturday night.

Lost—White bird dog; yellow spots on head. Reward for return to H. W. Lindgren, room 7, Mrs. Brittain's.

Frank Taylor has bought the Roe residence in Laughlin's bluff addition and moved his family into it from the old Sharp ranch on Three Mile.

The complaint of Joseph A. Cary against his wife, Minnie M. Cary, asking for a divorce, was filed in the office of the county clerk yesterday by Ned H. Gates, attorney for the plaintiff.

Tomorrow the ladies of the Good Intent Society will have on sale at Mrs. Jones' cafe, next door to J. P. McInerney's store, pies, cakes and all kinds of pastry. Call and buy something for Sunday.

Jack Sellers, who has been employed as a blacksmith at the O. R. & N. Co.'s shops in The Dalles for 20 years, lacking six weeks, left yesterday for San Francisco where he and Mrs. Sellers will make their future home.

R. B. Gilbreth, of Columbia precinct, has bought the Whealdon residence on the bluff and will move his family into it some time next week. The change of residence is made in order to give the children the benefit of The Dalles schools.

The Telegram says Paul Mohr, of the Central Navigation Company, made an agreement to meet the representatives of the creditors of the road this morning at 10 o'clock, in the Chamber of Commerce building, and make them a proposition for settlement.

Arthur Clark, in behalf of the Heppner football team, has challenged The Dalles for a game of football, to be played during the coming carnival. The average weight of the Heppner team is 160 pounds. The Dalles boys will surely never let a little town like Heppner give them the bluff.

Mr. A. M. Stringer, who has been employed by the general committee of the street fair as general superintendent, has taken such a liking to The Dalles that he has concluded to make his home here and has purchased the lease of the Mission gardens and orchard from Mr. Stadlerman, where he and a Mr. Kinnerly will erect a distillery in the immediate future for the manufacture of fruit brandy.

L. Corgrove, who was arrested here Wednesday night on the charge of having stolen a finger ring from the jewelry store of Adcox & Co., pleaded guilty to the charge yesterday afternoon in the recorder's court and was fined $25 or twelve and a half days in the county jail. In default of payment of the fine he was remanded to the custody of the sheriff.

Mr. A. M. Stringer, who has been employed by the Carnival committee as general superintendent, had the misfortune yesterday to lose a parcel containing pictures of arches and other designs for street fairs and a roll of unmounted photographs of no value to anybody but himself. The finder will confer a favor by leaving the parcel at the Umatilla House.

Fifty Warm Spring braves have been engaged to take part in the coming carnival. Among them will be a number who toured Europe in Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show and received flattering encomiums from the crowned heads of that country. They will have an Indian village inside the enclosure, where they will appear decorated in war colors and give Indian war dances. It is believed that not less than 150 Indians will join in the grand parade.

Straube Brothers, of Waterman, Wheeler county, brought to town yesterday afternoon 18 head of partly broken horses which they are offering for sale at the Saltmarsh stockyards. The horses had only been at the yards a few minutes when a span of mares was sold to a Hood River man for $175. The Hood River man had been in town two or three days and tried to effect a purchase of almost every wheat hauler he met, without success. Straube Brothers sold another mare this morning for $75. They expect to sell the balance of the lot here without any particular trouble.

The general committee of The Dalles Carnival and Street Fair have engaged the services of A. M. Stringer as artist, decorator, designer and general superintendent. Mr. Stringer has been engaged in similar work for the past 35 years. He held a similar position at the late Pendleton fair and comes here with a flattering testimonial from the Pendleton board of directors. He was on the staff of the chief artist at the World's Fair and held a similar position at the Paris exposition. His employment here is a guarantee that The Dalles fair will be something that The Dalles people will not be ashamed of when it is all over.

LUEDDEMANN-FRENCH WEDDING

A Highly Esteemed Young Couple of The Dalles United in Wedlock.

The long and intimate relation of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. French to the business and social history of The Dalles is adequate reason for the kindly interest manifested by this community in the betrothal and marriage of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Eleanor French to Mr. Ernst Lueddemann.

Added to the high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. French are held, is the fact that Miss French was born and has grown to a charming young woman in this city, and has won for herself a warm place in the affections of all who know her, and Mr. Lueddemann, during his two or three years' residence here, has established a reputation as a young man of integrity and good character, and made many warm friends.

In response to invitations a large number of the friends of the bride and groom gathered, on Wednesday evening, Sept. 26th, at the M. E. church to witness the ceremony which united their lives in wedlock.

The church had been transformed into a beautiful bower by a profusion of evergreens, delicate vines, potted plants and white and pink cut flowers; over each aisle was erected an arch of ivy, the arch over the right aisle having at the top the letters L F worked in flowers, while that over the left aisle had but the one letter, L.

At half past eight o'clock the wedding party entered the auditorium of the church to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march rendered by Mr. William Birgfeld, who presided at the organ; the party was led by the ushers, Messrs N. J. Sinnott, Gus Bonn, Forrest Fisher and Fred W. Wilson. Following the ushers came Messrs Frank French (a cousin of the bride) and Mr. A. L. Gude, the groomsmen; Miss Beulah Patterson and Miss Pearl Williams, the bridesmaids; little Jessie Hostetler and Edna Pease, flower girls; Miss Harriet Stevens, of Portland, the maid of honor; and finally Miss French leaning upon the arm of her father. As the party passed up the right aisle and approached the altar it was met by the groom, accompanied by his brother, Mr. Max Lueddemann, of Antelope, who came from a room at the side of the altar.

The ceremony used by Rev. U. F. Hawk, the pastor, was the usual service of the church, slightly modified, and was both beautiful and very impressive.

As the party retired through the left aisle Mr. Birgfeld rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The bride was very beautiful, attired in silk organdie over white satin, veil and orange blossoms, and carrying a cluster of white roses. Miss Stevens was likewise robed in white, while Miss Patterson and Miss Williams wore pink and carried pink roses. The costumes were very elegant and becoming.

Immediately after the ceremony the wedding party returned to the residence of the bride's parents where they received the congratulations of the relatives and intimate friends of the family. The home of Mr. and Mrs. French was beautifully decorated with smilax, asparagus and other vines with cut flowers; the hall and front parlor in pink and green; the back parlor in yellow and green; the sitting-room in red; the dining-room was tastefully decorated in pink and white with festoons and lovers knots of silk ribbon. During the reception a very delightful wedding lunch was served.

The guests present at the reception, besides the wedding party, were: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. French, Mrs. Nellie F. Bolton, Noncarl and Carmel Bolton, Mr. and Mrs. Edward French, Mr. and Mrs. Smith French, Dr. Gertrude French, of Portland, Mrs. D. E. Gilman and Mrs. J. W. Gilman, of Wheeler county, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meredith, Mrs. J. W. Meredith, Miss Jeannette Meredith, Miss Mary Adams, Miss Paulina Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Legg, of Salem, Mr. Wm. Carter, of Newburg, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moser and Miss Evelyn Steele, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hinkle and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lueddemann and Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin, of Antelope, Chas. Adams, of Tygh Valley, Mr. Frank Hurlbert, of Shaniko, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Laughlin, Loyd Laughlin, Miss Irene Adams, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Condon, Mrs. Emma Thompson, J. W. Condon, Clifton Condon, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Pease, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hostetler, Mr. Edward Hostetler, Mr. Starr, Mr. and Mrs. Hal French, Rev. and Mrs. Warner, Mr. and Mrs. W. Lord, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Houghton, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wilson, Mrs. E. M. Wilson, Mrs. A. M. Williams and Mrs. Gude, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith, Miss Carrie St. John and Rev. and Mrs. U. F. Hawk.

As the bride retired to exchange her wedding dress for her traveling costume the bride's bouquet was cast from the stairway and caught by Miss Evelyn Steele.

The wedding gifts were numerous and elegant, evidencing the hearty good will of the many donors to the bride and groom. The following is a list of the presents:

Cut glass celery dish, Mr. and Mrs. Ketchum; picture, Mr. Ellery; spoons, Mr. and Mrs. Stanfin; embroidered sofa pillow, Mrs. H. S. Wilson; vase, the Misses Gude; game carver, Miss Evelyn Steele; handkerchief, Mrs. W. G. Simpson; vase, the Sommersvilles; spoon, the Misses Ruch; salad set, Mrs. Hinkle; cut-glass water bottle, Miss Meredith; fish knife, Mr. Chas. French Bolton.

Telegrams of congratulations were received by the bride and groom from many absent friends, and the reading of these at the reception added pleasure to the occasion. Among those thus remembering the happy couple were the parents of the groom and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bruckby, of Tuscombia, Ala., Mr. Balf. Johnson, Astoria; Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Mays and M. C. Lyon of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Geiger of Heppner.

A pleasant incident of the occasion was the presentation by the bride to each of the maids of a beautiful pearl stick pin, and by the groom to each of the groomsmen and ushers of a similar scarf pin.

The bride and groom left on the early train Thursday morning for Portland, whence they go via the Canadian Pacific to Washington, New York and other eastern cities, returning through the South, where, in Alabama, they will visit Mr. Lueddemann's parents. They will be absent six weeks or two months.
