trained lions, have no equal on the saw-dust arena. They are the finest specimens of the family of Leo that can be found in America. Mons. Hagenbeck, their famous trainer, enters their den and feeds them daily. He puts them through their paces, pretends to shoot them and gives a thrilling exhibition of nerve and daring at each performance. Two camels will act as beasts of burden by carrying all those who would experience the sensation those enjoy who sail in the "ships of the desert." Three dodkeys and a whole menagerie of animals, wild and tame, will compose the other myriad of attractions.

German Village.

A troupe of famous Tyrolean singers will entertain those who sit in the German village and dream of the Rhine. Their program will be of the vaudeville character. It will include many of the most celebrated warblers of the continent. Several of the artists are cantatrices of international reputation.

Mighty Midway.

One of the most startling and sensational features of this congress of rare attractions is the daring trapeze act by Mone and Madam Cober, who have no equals in the aerial world. This great act occurs under the broad canopy of heaven only. The "Jap's Slide for Life" also is astonishing. The miraculous bicyclists never fail to elicit salvos of applause.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless, run-down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents, at Blakeley's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

Murder at Prosser.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Oct. 1.—W. W. Scott, of Kiona, this county was shot and killed about 1 o'clock this morning at Prosser by an unknown man, supposed to be the robber who held up a traveler on a freight train a few hours earlier. Another man was shot and perhaps fatally wounded. Scott's murderer escaped. Scott, armed with a shotgun, and accompanied by the man who claimed to have been held, went to a box car on a siding at Prosser. The men inside were ordered to come out, which they did. Scott's companion identified the two men as the robbers. As he pointed them out, four shots were fired by one of them, and Scott fell dead, shot in the head and heart.

The man wounded was not concerned in the melee, but stood some distance away. He was a tramp. Scott was a merchant at Kiona, where he had been station agent and postmaster. There is no clew to the identity of the murderer.

Millions Given Away.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, bronchitis, hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on Blakeley, the Druggist, and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed, or price refunded.

Red Hot From the Gun

Was the ball that hit G. B. Steadman of Newark, Mich., in the Civil War. It caused horrible ulcers that no treatment helped for twenty years. Then Bocklen's Arnica Salve cured him. It cures cuts, bruises, burns, boils, felons, corns, skin eruptions. Best pile cure on earth. Twenty-five cents a box. Cure guaranteed. Sold by Blakeley, the druggist.

HAPPY, LAZY RUATAN.

Island Off the Coast of Honduras Where No One Works, Because There is No Need of It.

Ruatan, the largest of the five "Bay islands," a little chain or key lying some 30 miles off the coast of Spanish Honduras, southeast of Port Cortez, and only four days' travel from New Orleans—is some 40 miles long and 3 miles wide.

It has a population of about 3,000 people, mostly Carib Indians, and I doubt, says a writer in the New Orleans Times-Democrat, whether there is in all the world a more beautiful and prolific spot. The people are lazy simply because they don't have to work. Cocconuts form their mainstay, and there is nothing easier to grow.

To start a grove, one merely burns off a piece of land, and plants the nuts in rows 20 feet apart. In from four to five years' time the trees are a dozen feet high, and are beginning to bear, and after that the planter is fixed for life. He may bid adieu to care.

The nuts are never picked, but as they mature they drop off, and this shower of fruit goes on steadily month after month all the year around. How long a tree will bear nobody can say, but there are some on the island that are known to be over half a century old, and are still dropping their harvest of nuts.

When the native needs something at the store, all he has to do is to gather together some nuts and trade them for what he wishes. He hurls them by striking them on a stake driven in the ground, and a man can easily haul 3,000 a day in that manner.

Other fruits grow just as easily as the coconuts, and the only reason why that especially is grown is because it furnishes an easy crop, for which there is always a ready market. There are plenty of bananas, oranges, mangoes, plums and pineapples, and they are all delicious. They grow wild, without the slightest cultivation, and all one has to do is to pick them.

Vegetables are equally prolific, and the native yams easily average 40 or 50 pounds in weight. A piece of cane stuck in the ground takes root and renews itself perennially for years. Roses and flowers of almost every imaginable variety run wild from one end of Ruatan to the other.

A stranger who comes to the islands is invariably amazed at the prodigality of nature and the apathy of the natives—that is, before the lazy feeling gets into his blood.

The thermometer has never been known to fall below 65 degrees or to rise above 80 degrees. Being part of Spanish Honduras the island is, of course, under the government of that republic, but it is too far away ever to be disturbed by the storms of revolution, and at present things are peculiarly serene.

The Honduranian government is represented by an administrator, a commandante and a governor. There is never any friction, and their simple duties are confined chiefly to the collection of customs.

There is no military establishment, and the only jail on the island is a small one-room hut, in which a plain drunk occasionally sleeps off too much native brandy. Theft and other crimes are unknown, and doors are never locked.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation.

With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

MIDWAY ATTRACTION

THE DALLES NEVER SAW THE LIKE OF ITS GREAT AND WONDERFUL REVELATION.

Streets of Cairo; the Oriental Theater, Streets of All Nations, Mexican Theater, Animal Shows, and a Dozen Other Amusements to Please and Captivate Visitors.

The world's greatest fair was held in Chicago. The splendors of the Columbian exposition linger like a dream in the minds of those who saw them and were dazzled by their grandeur and matchless beauty. The Midway Plaisance was the greatest feature attraction. It was unique, it was diverting, instructive and far-famed. The Dalles is about to see a reproduction of the memorable show with all the features that recently made such a hit at Portland.

The Harbour Midway is seven big shows in one and each is an attraction within itself. Probably the first in interest will be the Streets of Cairo.

Here will be seen 25 real Egyptian people, men and women, who came from the Nile and have felt the scorching desert sands; people who have faced the fierce hermatian winds and were soothed to repose by the gentle siroccos that blew from Lydian shores. They have scaled the pyramids and marveled at the sphinx of Gezeh. These weird people will give an exposition of the manners and customs of their countrymen. They will imitate an Egyptian wedding procession that, in some respects, will outrival the splendor of Lala Rookh, leaving Delhi for the vale of Cashmere. The Egyptians are world-erful athletes. Their sword combats are intensely interesting. Their wrestling bouts are exciting in the extreme. The Padon women will illustrate the theme of Egyptian home life. They will tell fortunes by the stars and by other methods known only to their mystic art. Rajsh, a real Egyptian nobleman, is with this Midway and appears daily in his immitable specialties. In the streets of Cairo is the noteworthy

Oriental Theater.

This is the sanctuary of La Bella Fatima, the Little Egypt of the West. She is the central figure of a coterie of hours whose dark skin and darker eyes are fascinating as they twinkle like stars newly hung from the hand of the Maker. Her troupe is composed of the most celebrated muscle dancers from the land of the Pharaohs. The danse du ventre, or Couche Chouche, attained great popularity at the World's Fair, and today it is still looked wonderingly, as it is the national dance of the strange peoples portraying it. The so-called stomach dance is not pirouetting, ricocheting, gyrating; it is what it is, and must be seen to be thoroughly understood. La Belle Fatima wears proudly the gold medal won at the World's Fair, Paris, for the most graceful and artistic dancing. She has won so many trophies of a similar nature that she is "hung round with ribbons and stuck o'er with medals."

Streets of all Nations.

These will be intensely interesting. Prominent among the attractions will be the family of Japanese performers. Little Irene, the 3 year-old Jap, has no equal upon this habitable globe as a contortionist. Her work is not alone clever, but marvelous. Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlain, the champion sharpshooters, give exhibitions of their skill in handling a gun that seems miraculous. They have challenged Johnny Graham and Annie Oakley, of Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show, and offered to shoot a match with them for any purse they might name. Next of importance to the Streets of All Nations is the Mexican Theater.

Four of the chief actors are princes and princesses from the Latin countries of South American, where monarchy was one time all important. The other members of this company are Mexicans who bring with them the airs of mysticism that surrounds all those who hail from the land of the Montezumas. They will give a continuous performance of the higher class. Only the highest-priced vaudeville artists compose this celebrated company. There is no music more entrancing than the lit of Mexican song, where the philomela and the lute hold sway. Those who delight in the mandolin and the "balbul" will go into ecstasies when they hear the troubadors of Mexico.

Animal Shows.

In this zoological congress will be found animals from every clime. The boxing kangaroos, "Jeffries" and "Fitzsimmons," are a whole host in themselves. They give a splendid exposition of the manly art of self-defense. The performing monkeys are perfectly irresistible. "Nelle" and "Nero," the Catarrh Cannot Be Cured. With local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quack medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years, and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing Catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.
