

THE NEW PASSWORD IS PIANOS

Remarkable Showing Made in One Day in The Dalles.

A copy of the "Wool City Special" was left at your door today. Please read it. We have carefully considered "ways and means" to increase our country trade in high-grade pianos. Our plan is embodied in the "Special." Our Portland business has been phenomenal from the day we started in '98. Our energies have, heretofore, been directed to that trade; but now we are bidding for the trade outside of the city, and yet all this time there has been a strong undercurrent running in our favor. We have made friends, and their kind words have made more friends, until today we believe we do not exaggerate when we inform you one-half of our country trade has been conducted by mail. Right from the start we have sold goods on the money-back system, if not as represented. This plan makes the customer feel secure from the minute he ordered his piano, and this applies to you.

Read the "Wool City Special" carefully. It means money to you now, and it means money to us later.

You know our pianos; they are known everywhere as the three greatest American manufacturers (and that means the best in the world)—the Chickering, Boston, the Weber, of New York, and the Kimball, of Chicago.

Here is a list of yesterday's customers: St. Mary's Academy purchased a beautiful Cabinet Grand Weber in oak. This is the second instrument of this make the academy has purchased from Eilers' Piano House.

Mrs. Polk Mays, of this city, bought a magnificent style eight Kimball. (Notice cut of same in the "Wool City Special.")

J. A. Douthit, of the Times-Mountaineer, bought another of the world-famous Kimballs in rosewood.

Prof. Birgfeld is enthusiastic over his selection. It is a Weber in San Domingo mahogany.

By courtesy of these friends you are invited to inspect the pianos in their homes during this sale.

Mrs. Sarah Crabtree and Mr. James B. Bundy both made selections yesterday. These instruments go into the interior.

You can have them at cost, just as we say in the "Special," and for the reasons stated in the "Special." Come to Jacobson Book & Music Company's store tomorrow morning, where we will go over the whole subject, and if you do not see the consistency of our method we can hardly hope to send an elegant and thoroughly up-to-date $400 piano to your home tomorrow evening for $286.

Remember, this is no poorly devised scheme to sell pianos; but a bona fide introductory sale arranged and conducted by Eilers' Piano House, of Portland, and the Jacobson Book & Music Company, of The Dalles.

Yours Respectfully,
EILERS' PIANO HOUSE.
Messrs. Davis and Johnson, representatives.

A Minister's Good Work.

"I had a severe attack of bilious colic, got a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, took two doses and, was entirely cured," says Rev. A. A. Power, of Emporia, Kan. "My neighbor across the street was sick for over a week, had two or three bottles of medicine from the doctor. He used them three or four days without relief, then called in another doctor who treated him for some days and gave him no relief, so discharged him. I went over to see him the next morning. He said his bowels were in a terrible fix, that they had been running off so long that it was almost bloody flux. I asked him if he had tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and he said, 'No.' I went home and brought him my bottle and gave him one dose; told him to take another dose in fifteen or twenty minutes if he did not find relief, but he took no more and was entirely cured." For sale at Blakeley's drug store.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages there should be cleanliness. Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Drug-gists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail.

A MARVELOUS UNDERTAKING,

Yet Perfectly Feasible, When Considered in Its True Light.

The finest and most costly assortment of fine pianos ever seen in this city can be examined at the store of the Jacobson Book & Music Company, of this city. It includes the world-renowned Chickering pianos, of Boston; the now-famous Kimball pianos, of Chicago, and the beautiful and most artistic Weber pianos, of New York, besides a half-dozen instruments of medium grade, and quite a number of very fine organs. Among this most comprehensive exhibit of fine pianos, in all of the choice and fancy woods known only in high-grade, up-to-date piano-building, there may be found an exact duplicate of the celebrated World's Fair premium design of the now-famous Kimball make, in rich, massively hand-carved case of choicest English quarter-sawn oak. There is also a duplicate of this make as exhibited at the Omaha International Exhibition, where Kimball pianos carried off the first prize and only gold medal awarded. The splendid assortment of Whitney, Lindell, Milton and Singer pianos deserves special mention.

But the marvelous feature of this beautiful array of musical instruments is that the Eilers Piano House, of Portland, for the reasons announced in another part of this paper, proposes to dispose of the entire lot of these beautiful pianos in The Dalles and vicinity, to retail buyers, within the next ten days, an undertaking which would seem utterly utterly unaccomplish, were it not for the extremely low figures and easy terms of payment at which each and every instrument in this stock is now offered for sale.

The prices at which these instruments are now being offered are the lowest ever made anywhere on pianos of same grade and quality, and since musical instruments are now no longer classed as articles of luxury, but are being pretty generally considered as an actual necessity in every well-appointed home, it would seem reasonable to predict that out of the thousands of homes in The Dalles and vicinity, there are thirty-five families who may be able to take advantage of the unprecedented opportunity now presented.

Every instrument is unconditionally warranted by the respective manufacturer by Eilers Piano House, and locally by the Jacobson Book & Music Company, and thus a purchaser is fully protected in every instance.

"My baby was terribly sick with the diarrhoea," says J. H. Doak, Williams, Oregon. "We were unable to cure him with the doctor's assistance, and as a last resort we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. THE CELEBRATED ..COLUMBIA BREWERY...

AUGUST BUCHLER, Prop.
Of the product of this well-known brewery the United States Health Reports for June 28, 1900, says: "A more superior brew never entered the laboratory of the United States Health reports. It is absolutely devoid of the slightest trace of adulteration, but on the other hand is composed of the best of malt and choice of hops. Its tonic qualities are of the highest and it can be used with the greatest benefit and satisfaction by old and young. Its use can conscientiously be prescribed by the physicians with the certainty that a better, purer or more wholesome beverage could not possibly be found."
