The Glacier publishes an interesting letter from Edwin Henderson, an Oregon volunteer in the Philippines, to relatives at Hood River, which gives a frightful picture of the savage cruelty of the George Washington Aguinaldos, for whom Bryanism is just now shedding so many crocodile tears. Read the following words and say if these savage beasts are fit for self-government. "They take an American prisoner," says Mr. Henderson, "and begin with a bolo, cut his scalp into strips, cut off his ears, lance his nose, cut off his fingers at every joint, then at the wrist, then the toes in the same manner; cut feet and arms off, then put ropes around the stumps and unjoint the legs, do, do, until you are dead. I love them as much as I love onions or pole cats. I used to pity them when I was in Manila but my heart has gone to stone. One man in my company has experienced the death I have just spoken of, and every man has made a promise to avenge his death. Our brave and good quartermaster, Notrie, died fighting like a hero that he was; while the rest, with the exception of one who was taken prisoner, retreated. The man who staid was court-martialed, the others were given awards of merit. I did not hear the straight of that story until I got to my own company."

The executive committee of the gold democratic party has issued a long address to the members of the party. The address attacks Bryan bitterly, and insists that silver is the issue. The address concludes as follows: "Mr. Bryan seeks power by an appeal to anti-expansion, and the anti-trust sentiment of the people. The difficulties of our external policy were unforeseen, as their solution is at present unrevealed. The evil of trusts has no party parentage, and will be remedied by the combined intelligence of our political parties. Without minimizing the perils of either, we affirm that no greater evil can befall our government than the impairment of its vigor, the destruction of our credit and our industries, which Mr. Bryan is specially pledged to effect if he gets into power. Therefore, we appeal to our countrymen again to avert disaster from their country by his defeat."

In 1898 the San Francisco Examiner said: "Then, when it came to securing military bases in the West Indies, these same democratic leaders chaffed and haggled over items of war expenditure. Now, again, they are giving evidences of opposing the popular will in the matter of the annexation of the Philippines. It is high time to call a halt. The democratic party will not follow such leadership. The people already have repudiated it." Now the Examiner is wildly anxious to get these same democrats to approve what they repudiated four years ago by the Examiner's advice and consent.

Clark & Falk are never closed Sunday. Don't forget this.
