ACCOMPLICES OF MURDERER PULLED

One Pleaded Guilty to a Charge of Robbery, but Declares the Real Slayer of Scott Has Not Been Captured, and That His Name is Harry, and He is a Desperado.

NORTH YAKIMA, Wash., Oct. 8.—Sheriff H. L. Tucker has in custody two alleged robbers, belonging to a gang operating in this section and in the vicinity of Wallula and Umatilla. The men give their names as Carey Harlow and Harry Morgan. They were arrested on suspicion of having murdered W. W. Scott, of Kiona, a few days ago. Both parties have been identified as robbers and Harlow has pleaded guilty to the charge. They claim that the murderer and a pal escaped and are at large, probably in hiding about Wallula or somewhere in Oregon.

Three men left this city on a freight train going east. They had been engaged as hoppers and had probably $25 each. When near Prosser they say three desperados boarded the box car in which they were riding and ordered them to surrender and give up their money. James O'Conner claims he had $25 and Fred Webb had $40, all of which was given to the robbers. The bandits then jumped from the train and escaped. When the freight pulled into Kiona they hunted an officer and returned with him to Prosser on the next train.

The robbers were soon located in trying to get into a box car. They were accompanied by several traps and members of the gang of bandits. O'Conner and Webb identified the robbers and pointed them out to Officer W. W. Scott. He ordered them to surrender, but one man, the leader, drew a revolver and shot four times. Three shots took effect in Scott, killing him instantly, and the fourth took Fred Evans, a tramp from Indiana, riding on the freight train. The robbers and all others ran away, leaving the dead and wounded men all alone. They were later picked up and taken to the city. Scott was buried and Edwards brought to this city and placed in the hospital.

Sheriff Tucker and posse trailed Carey Harlow to Castle Rock, on the Columbia river, and captured him. He admits being one of the robbers but denies the killing. He says the man who did the shooting is known among the band as Harry, and is a desperado of much notoriety. He boasts of being one of the best revolver shots in the West. At the time of the robbery he had $500 in gold and $200 in paper. He carried two revolvers, a 44 and a 38-caliber. The man captured on the Columbia says he is only 18 years old. He gives the following description of the murderer:

Harry is six feet tall, weighs 160 pounds, has light hair, very light blue eyes, red face and smooth shaven. He is of slight build, has a scar made by a cut on the right side of neck and one made by a blow on right side of head. He wore a brown suit and No. 8 shoe. Is very familiar with railroad terms and understands how to board a running train. The county officials have offered a reward of $500 for the capture of this leader of the robber gang. The man he murdered was formerly agent of the Northern Pacific Railway company at Kiona and a member of the Masonic fraternity in this city.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 20c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

St. PETERSBURG, Oct. 8.—Admiral Alexieff, in reporting the occupation of Shan Hai Kuan, on the gulf of Liao Tung, says:

"In accordance with an agreement of the admirals, the forts have been divided among the different nations. The town has not been occupied, but the gates are guarded by artillery. The forts are nearly intact, and the whole route from Hong Ken to Shan Hai Kuan is now occupied by the Russians. After the occupation of Shan Hai Kuan, the Americans refused to participate in the operations. Part of the Russian force is advancing northwards."
