All we ask

is an opportunity to prove that our newspaper talk is not simply the use of space and big words.

Just a little of your time

You'll find it time well spent, and we can convince you of the good points of our clothing. While you are here we want to show you a few of our specials:

- No. 1. Overcoat at.....$10.00
A handsome dark blue and black garment, very stylishly made up, good serge lining, medium length, box cut. We call this special because as values go ordinarily this coat would be cheap at $12.50.
- No. 2. Large line of men's overcoats, from.....$5.50 to 20.00
- No. 3. Men's all-wool wove suits..... 8.50
- No. 4. Men's cheviot, oxford, kersey suits.....$10.00 and 12.50
- No. 5. Men's dark fancy worsted suits, single and d.-b. vest.....$15 and 16.50
- No. 6. Men's fine tailor-made fancy tweed, cheviot and serge suits, from.....$20.00 to 25.00

Our Boys' Department is so well known for its immense variety and economical prices that it is hardly worth while to mention it. The fall and winter stock is now at its best. We show novelties and staples in great profusion. No trouble to show goods.

Now is the time to buy your winter suit. A full line of Men and Boys clothing at the New York Cash store.

Dr. Donne received a telegram today announcing that Grand Master Wells, of Astoria, will be in town tomorrow night and will visit Columbia Lodge of Old Fellows.

Miss Lane's collection of Indian baskets will be on exhibition all the week at the Lang residence on Fourth street, from 7 to 9 p. m., as well as from 2 to 5 as announced Monday.

Don't fail to attend the Rex ball at the Vogt opera house Friday night. During the opening grand march the identity of Rex, who is only known by the executive committee, will be revealed. Music by the Birgfeld orchestra.

Mr. S. F. Fouts and Miss E. A. Jukes were united in marriage at high noon today in the parlor of the Umatilla house. The young couple are from Hood River and the wedding was so strictly private that not even the name of the man who tied the knot is known to the public.

At the Vogt opera house last night one of the acrobats, while turning a hand-spring on the shoulder of another acrobat three high, missed his footing and fell to the floor of the stage, lighting on his head. He was unconscious for an hour and a quarter but was getting along nicely this afternoon.

The carnival executive committee make special request that all bills against the carnival be presented to the secretary, Henry J. Maier, not later than next Monday night. If you are a creditor of the carnival please attend to this as the executive committee are anxious to have all affairs of the carnival settled as promptly as possible.

Some miscreant last night stole from the managements' booth all the surplus exhibitors' and committees' badges, in hope, possibly, of using them so as to save the ten cents admission fee to the carnival grounds. The gate keepers and special policemen are on the lookout for bogus exhibitors and committee men and will make it very interesting for any one found wearing any of the stolen badges.

A poll was taken today of the twenty hands at present employed at The Dalles scouring mill with the result that eighteen were for McKinley and two for Bryan. When it was suggested that Bryan would get cold comfort from the mill one of the lads answered: "Do you suppose that any man who has sense enough to work in a scouring mill is going to vote for a man that is a rank enemy of the wool industry? Not much, we ain't."

Attorney N. B. Brooks, of Goldendale, is in the city looking after the interests of one Charles Beard, a farmer from near Centerville, who suddenly disappeared last Saturday and has not been heard from since. The last seen of him was at Goldendale, Saturday night. It is known that he had several hundred dollars on his person, but whether he has left the country or been foully dealt with cannot be determined. Beard was a bachelor and had on the ranch a married couple who kept house for him.

Everybody out in the Fifteen Mile neighborhood knows the old "Dutch Mann" place. J. T. Acheson purchased it a short time since and about three weeks ago moved his family into the old farm house. Mr. Acheson was not long in his new home when he discovered a swarm of tame bees in a cleft of the basalt cliff near by. Having secured them he deferred further explorations till last Sunday when seeing more bees enter clefts in the cliff he determined to smoke them out. Instead of another swarm of bees Mr. Acheson smoked out twenty-three rattlesnakes, a blow snake, a skunk and a woodrat. Just what else there is in the rocks of the "Dutch Mann" homestead Mr. Acheson expects to find out later on.

Tomorrow in addition to its other attractions will be school children's day at the fair. At 1:45 p. m., 600 of The Dalles school children will form in line at the Academy grounds and, headed by The Dalles band, will march down Union street to Nolan's corner, thence east on Second street to Washington and thence to the carnival grand entrance, where they will be admitted free. Each class will be headed by its teacher and all will carry American flags, 600 having been provided for that purpose. In the carnival grounds the procession will pass in review of the queen, sitting on her throne and accompanied by her maids of honor. To many this procession of 600 hearty, happy school children will be one of the prettiest sights of carnival week.

FIVE MONUMENTS

Drawn from the Recesses of Nature, Art, Commerce, Geography and Good Judgment.

L. Conini has an exquisite piece of his handiwork exhibited at the fair; a massive block of marble supporting a beautifully-chiseled angel-child. Jacobsen's Book & Music Co. has a Kimball piano on display. This piano is beyond doubt the result of the best there is in man, from an artistic standpoint. It is a monument in the realms of piano forte construction. Eilers' Piano House, in the exigencies of trade, see fit to offer to the people of The Dalles this rare work at cost. The amount saved will be no little monument itself.

Mrs. S. J. Wilson, of Monument, saw the monument of the piano-makers' art, and, taking advantage of the monumental enterprise of the new agents here, elected to save a considerable monument of gold coin, ordered the instrument shipped at once to Monument. This is a monument in favor of the lady's good judgment.

Only two days more. Get in while you may. This is truly an opportunity that seldom comes to good investors. Jacobsen's Book & Music Co. are the agents for our line of high grade pianos—the Weber, the Chickering, the Kimball. EILERS' PIANO HOUSE.

Tomorrow's Baby Show.

The baby show tomorrow afternoon ought to be one of the most attractive and interesting features of the carnival. If there is a shadow of doubt that all the world loves a lover, there is never a shadow of a doubt that all the world loves a handsome baby.

The merchants of The Dalles and the farmers and fruit men of the county have acted nobly in making an exhibit that is not only a credit to The Dalles and Wasco county, but in some respects rivals the exhibits at the late Portland carnival where they had a population ten times greater and twenty times richer to draw from.

Will the mothers of The Dalles and Wasco county do their duty tomorrow and help demonstrate to the world in general and Oregon in particular that your bunch grass fed youngster takes no back talk from any youngster on the American footstool? We have got them, ship loads of them, singly and in couples and triplets, let us have them out.

The committee offers a cash prize of $6 for the finest baby, $5 for the next finest and $4 for the fattest baby.

The baby show will take place tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

THE CARNIVAL IS A HUMMER.

First Night Receipts Represented 7800 Ten-Cent Admission Fees—Three Score Horticulturists Contributed to the Display.

There is not a man in The Dalles who has contributed a cent in money or time to the harvest carnival that is not proud of the result. It far exceeds the most sanguine expectations of any body. The cash receipts of Tuesday night represented 7800 ten-cent admission fees. There was a natural falling off last night and a large number of counter-attractions outside; still the receipts represented 4900 ten-cent admission fees. Comparisons are not always odious, and we have it on the best authority that the first night receipts at the late Walla Walla fair, in a town of double the inhabitants of The Dalles, were not one-third of the first night receipts here. The management are more than satisfied with the result, and are living on Easy street so far as the financial outcome is concerned. And this is not the best of it. The visitors are pleased and delighted.

The general expression is that the horticultural display is the finest ever seen in Oregon, and many of them add, "or any where else." As one said this morning: "I tell you sir, Wasco county beats the world in climate, fruits, vegetables, cereals, and everything that contributes to the material happiness of the race."

To show the interest the horticulturists alone have taken in the fruit and vegetable exhibit, we submit the following list of sixty exhibitors, the largest number that have ever made horticultural exhibits at one time in the history of Wasco county:

M. Emerson, Harry Mahear, Ben Southwell, W. J. Davidson, Kocetz & McHesley, L. L. Lane, C. W. Barzee, B. F. Laughlin, Fred Fisher, R. J. Wickham, Willis Hendricks, R. J. Young, W. S. Fausher, J. E. Kennedy, S. F. Blythe, H. H. Hubbard, C. Dittman, W. Kennedy, H. C. Bateman, Peter Ehrick, C. R. Smead, James Elliott, Peter Hannigan, J. W. Marquis, H. J. Henderson, Henry Klindt, Hugh Falmer, Adam Fleck, H. B. Gordian, James Nelson, Mr. Erickson, George Ennn, A. Sandoz, C. Signe, Dr. Hudson, Theodore Mesplic, Ed Wicks, L. Bonami, Louis Sandoz, Mike Spiesinger, A. P. Vace, L. I. McCartney, Hans Hanson, Wm. Taylor, Marshall Hill, Robert Cooper, C. Morgan, D. Creighton, Sam Creighton, Dr. Sanders, H. W. Seidler, Frank Taylor, China Pete, F. C. Jones, Harry Hudson, E. D. Colby, Andrew Linton, C. W. Emerson, Fred Houghton, Mr. Roberts of Multnomah county, Jack Daley of Sherman county and Harry Cummings of Morrow county.

Dissolution of Partnership.
The partnership heretofore existing between J. A. Carnaby and J. W. Blake is this day dissolved by mutual consent. The business will be continued under the style and firm of Carnaby & Summers, who will collect all bills and pay all obligations of the late firm. CARNABY & SUMMERS, The Dalles, Oct. 1, 1900. o10-w4w
