is an opportunity to prove that our newspaper talk is not simply the use of space and big words.

Just a little of your time

You'll find it time well spent, and we can convince you of the good points of our clothing. While you are here we want to show you a few of our specials:

- No. 1. Overcoat at $10.00
A handsome dark blue and black garment, very stylishly made up, good serge lining, medium length, box cut. We call this special because as values go ordinarily this coat would be cheap at $12.50.
- No. 2. Large line of men's overcoats, from $5.50 to 20.00
- No. 3. Men's all-wool wove suits 8.50
- No. 4. Men's cheviot, oxford, kersey suits $10.00 and 12.50
- No. 5. Men's dark fancy worsted suits, single and d.-b. vest $15 and 16.50
- No. 6. Men's fine tailor-made fancy tweed, cheviot and serge suits, from $20.00 to 25.00

Our Boys' Department is so well known for its immense variety and economical prices that it is hardly worth while to mention it. The fall and winter stock is now at its best. We show novelties and staples in great profusion. No trouble to show goods.

Yesterday evening's Telegram had a very good picture of Judge W. L. Bradshaw, of this city, who was elected the other day at Astoria grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias.

At 3:30 this afternoon Special Policeman Gilbreth arrested a white man in the East End for selling whiskey to an Indian. Mr. Gilbreth caught the man in the act, and collaring both him and the Indian marched them to the calaboose.

Messrs. A. E. Lake and Simeon Bolton have finally succeeded in persuading a young couple to submit to a public wedding. The names will not be given out before the ceremony which will come off on the grounds at 9 o'clock tomorrow, Saturday night.

The carnival executive committee make special request that all bills against the carnival be presented to the secretary, Henry J. Maier, not later than next Monday night. If you are a creditor of the carnival please attend to this as the executive committee are anxious to have all affairs of the carnival settled as promptly as possible.

On Tuesday evening last the citizens of Shaniko met and discussed the propriety of taking steps to have the town incorporated, and when left to a vote every person present voted for incorporation. A committee was appointed to look after the matter, and in due time Wasco county will have another incorporated city and Shaniko will put on municipal airs.—Shaniko Leader.

Recorder Ned Gates had before him this morning three victims of the cup that cheers, as well as demoralize, who were arrested last night in a helpless condition of inebriety. In consideration of the fact that all three were merely celebrating the carnival, the sympathetic recorder discharged them without fine. One of them belonged to the Warm Springs braves of the Midway.

At the request of the carnival executive committee a special meeting of the common council was held yesterday afternoon, at which the committee called the attention of the council to the multitude of street fakirs that were plying their several gambles and other devices on the public streets of the city since the carnival commenced and asked that the gambling devices be suppressed, and the others, coffee and candy stands, lunch counters and the like, should be ordered off the public streets. The council responded promptly to the request of the committee, and in a short time the marshal had the streets cleared of the whole gang.

THE BIGGEST DAY YET SEEN

Delegations From Portland and Heppner Arrived This Afternoon and these, With a Host of Other Visitors and 600 School Children Jammed the Carnival Grounds.

Yesterday's attendance at the carnival was larger than that of Tuesday and some 4000 admission tickets of all kinds were sold. Today's attendance will far exceed opening day.

At 1 o'clock some eighty gentlemen and ladies arrived from Portland. The gentlemen in part, represented the Portland Chamber of Commerce. Among the visitors were thirty ladies.

On account of the death of Dr. Strong, a relative, President Taylor was obliged to telegraph his regrets to President L. E. Crowe, of the Commercial Club, that he was not able to accompany the Portland delegation. The visitors were met at the Umattilla house by the Dalles band and a large number of prominent citizens, who escorted them to the dining room of the hotel, where Mayor E. B. Dufur, in a neat and appropriate speech, welcomed them to the hospitality of the city.

On behalf of the delegation Ex-Senator Corbett, in a pleasant little talk of a few minutes, thanked the mayor and citizens of The Dalles for their hospitality and voiced the pleasure it gave the delegation to pay a visit to The Dalles.

After luncheon the party marched to the fair grounds in good time to witness the banner procession and exhibition of the carnival, the marching of 600 Dalles school children from the academy grounds to the fair grounds, each carrying an American flag. No spectator will ever witness a prettier sight than this was if he live a thousand years. The procession was led by the band, followed by the queen in her carriage, accompanied by her pages and followed by another carriage containing the maids of honor. The children marched two abreast, the little tots of 6 and 7 in front and the pupils of the High school closing up the rear. Walking closely together they extended from the carnival entrance down Second street to the court house, as handsome and healthy a lot of youngsters as the eye ever gazed on. No wonder S. B. Adams got excited looking at them and, with a suspicious moisture in his eye, pointed to them and said to a bystander: "If anybody asks you what is the greatest and best product of the Inland Empire, tell them it's our children. If you will tell any mother of one of these little ones that that ain't so, I'll give you $20 a hair for every hair on your head five minutes after."

A large delegation arrived from Heppner this afternoon, just how large we could not learn, but a still larger number is expected tomorrow. At 3:30 this afternoon the grounds were so full of people that standing room was almost at a premium.

The following are the names of the male portion of the Portland visitors, so far as we have been able to locate them. The list falls five or ten short:

Hon H W Corbett, Hon F P Mays, Chas Hyde, S J Mayer, E R Kieble, Hon Arthur Wilson, H A Heppner, H E Dorsch, E C Masten, Dr G H Chance, E B London, A G Thurston, I Mendelson, S H Soule, W D Maxson, A H Breyman, F L Stinson, S B Hannawalt, F D Franklin, H W Mitchell, G A Hardy, L Cobblett, F M McFarland, C A Whalen, R W Blackwood, F D Simmons, C W Gray and daughter, W C Gardiner, Hon H H Northup and party, Ambrose M Cronin, Jas Thompson, E W Crichton, E Lombardi, J K Gill, H S Hagan, Wm Harber, Chas E West, F Patterson, R Yoder, John Engelhardt, G A Vogt, James Hopkins, W Smith, D M Averill, F W Snerwood, L Story, Delos D Near, W B Honeyman, J R Wheat, Russ E Sewall, H D Griffin, L H Wells, Jno Windblast, A Noltner, Theo Bernheim, Julius Heilbron, S B Starrett, C M Wynott.

FINED FOR LARCENY OF HAY.

A Jury Convicts a Dutch Flatlander of Stealing a Ton and a Half of Hay and He is Fined $25.

F. W. Wickham, of Dutch Flat, was tried yesterday before Justice Brownhill on the charge of larceny of a ton and a half of hay. District Attorney Menefer appeared for the state and Sam Stark, a young law student, appeared for the defendant. The jurors were J. L. Thompson, Joseph T. Peters, R. L. Oakes, George Krause, John Pashek and Geo. W. Joles. The complaining witness was Jacob Obrist.

The testimony was to the effect that Obrist had baled a quantity of hay for Wickham, and Wickham not paying for the baling when the work was completed, Obrist took his pay in about a ton and a half of hay, which he removed with Wickham's consent from the Wickham place and stored in a building. Obrist consented, before removing the hay, that Wickham should have thirty days to redeem it at $6 a ton. Wickham said he would redeem it in two weeks. At the end of thirty-six days the money had not been paid and Wickham, without the consent of Obrist, removed the hay from its place of storage and sold it. On discovering that the hay was taken, Obrist followed Wickham to town and had him arrested.

This is believed to be a fair statement of the case as it was presented to the jury, which, notwithstanding the earnest and able plea of Wickham's counsel, found him guilty as charged.

Probably because Wickham's act was the result of his own folly and imprudence and was at worst only "constructive" larceny, as the lawyers would probably call it, the justice inflicted the lowest fine, $25, or twelve and a half days in the county jail. Wickham paid the fine and was discharged.
