

STAND BY THE OLD FLAG.

Nine-Tenths of the "Grizzled Veterans" Will Support Comrade McKinley.

HOOD RIVER, Oct. 18, 1900.

EDITOR CHRONICLE:

The old soldiers here have not as yet called a meeting for an expression of sentiment as to how they stand on the question now; but I will say for nine-tenths of them they will stand by the old flag and their old comrade, William McKinley.

Abraham Lincoln taught the American people some lessons that they have not forgotten, and we who lived in his time and knew him best are not deceived by the catch phrases and garbled extracts from his speeches, with which the Demo-Pop. leaders are trying to deceive the people today. They quote Lincoln hoping to catch republican votes; but it will not win. The younger generation read history, and we old soldiers, who helped to make it, remember too well that the same party raised the same cry and abhorred Abraham Lincoln in 1864 just as they are doing now. Baboon, monkey, tyrant, usurper, murderer, were common expressions in their public utterances when speaking of Lincoln during the campaign of 1864, and it is the same party, led by many of the same men today, who are repeating a great many of their old sayings and applying them to McKinley, who leads the same old party with the same old principles that Lincoln gave his life for.

Again I say they can't fool the old soldier. We do not consider it a matter of politics now since we see that Bryan is attempting to array one class against another; but we know what it means and feel that every patriotic citizen should vote against the Nebraska, regardless of politics, to save our country from anarchy, which is sure to come if Bryan is elected and carries out what he is daily talking of. Stand by the old flag, boys, and vote for McKinley.

Wheat Trade.

The market during the past week has been of a declining character and exporters are only buying wheat at a ruling price. Stocks at Portland and Puget sound are now fully 6,000,000 bushels, enough wheat to load ships for several months to come, and as cargoes in Europe have declined fully 6d the last fortnight, shippers are rather cautious in over buying. The situation is not very encouraging to the farmer, who is holding his wheat for 50 cents at interior points. The weakness abroad has had the effect of lowering charter rates, and the one disengaged vessel here at Portland that refueled 31c 3d some weeks ago, will have difficulty in obtaining 47c 6d. Nevertheless some farmers in different sections of the interior are selling freely and are contented to let go their wheat at ruling figures. Reports are coming in that wheat has been engaged to go East, but very little so far has been shipped. This is nothing unusual, as every season we ship from 400,000 to 600,000 bushels. No doubt this season, on account of the shortage in the Dakotas and Minnesota, there will be considerable more to go in that direction. Many of the eastern mills are anxious to obtain wheat from here, especially our bluestem, that is par excellence in quality this season, to be used principally for mixing purposes.

Valley millers are having Eastern Oregon wheat shipped to them, and are mixing the same with their home-grown grade, and the quality of flour from there is better than heretofore. Quotations are: Club, 13c; bluestem, 56c; valley is quoted by millers on the basis of 60c at Portland.—Commercial Review.
