The educational entertainment to be given by Miss Margaret Jenkins for the church building fund of St. Paul's guild, will be held in the Baldwin opera house on Friday of next week, Oct. 26th. Miss Jenkins will be assisted by the best local talent.

Mrs. St. Charles, of La Crosse, Wis., on the 12th inst., gave birth to five boys. She has had sixteen children in seven years, triplets and twins predominating among them. Mrs. St. Charles is evidently a believer in Washington's famous maxim, "In peace, prepare for war."

Out in Kansas, says the New York Commercial, the banking business is languishing. The "bloated gold bugs" of four years ago are in some instances being forced to shut up shop entirely, there being nobody to borrow their money. In the town of Richmond the Putnam bank has notified the state banking commissioners that there is "nothing in it" any more. This bank has deposits of $99,000, while the loans and discounts amount to only $8,000. The capital of this institution and over $60,000 of the farmers' money on deposit in its vaults are lying idle. Prosperity in Kansas has made the farmer a lender instead of a borrower. And the money changer must get back to the soil or starve.

A Washington, D. C., dispatch says that it is stated there that copies of the official Boer records are in the hands of a gentleman in New York, which prove the charge that Webster Davis received $125,000, Macrum $75,000 and Montague White $1,000,000 to raise a pro-Boer agitation in the United States. An official in the state department said that nothing in the official records furnished proof of the charges. This official had seen copies of the purported Boer records, however, and private letters from Africa corroborated every charge.

The genius who wrote the "Realistic Romance" of jolly old Uncle Josh's generous purchases for his newly married niece in last night's Times-Mountaineer played a mean trick on our esteemed contemporary. "En route to their home," says the witty author, "the party called at the Times-Mountaineer office. 'You'll want the news every day,' remarked Uncle Josh, 'and as this is the favorite local paper here I'll subscribe.' When the trio reached the house that tired feeling seemed to come over them all at once." Just why "that tired feeling" came over them all at once the truthful narrator modestly refuses to state, but the plain inference is that they found a copy of the paper they had just subscribed for on the doorstep, and after they had read it Uncle Josh, it appears, had to send to Charley Stubbing's for a bottle of Green River whiskey to brace them up.

Attention, Redmen!

All members of Wasco tribe No. 16, I. O. R. M., are urgently requested to trail toward the wigwam next Tuesday, setting of the sun, at the 7th run, 30th breath. Business of the greatest importance will be brought before the tribe. As Kische Manitou has directed our trails straight, and through agreeable regions, the chiefs, warriors and hunters will be regaled with corn and venison.

By order of the Sachem. o18-23
