ROASTED TO A TURN.

In Bryan's Own Town Hanna Brands Him as a Slanderer and Hurts His Teeth.

"A man who knowingly or unknowingly will circulate slanders about another man is not fit to be a constable," said Senator Hanna in his speech at the Oliver House in Lincoln last night, in referring to Bryan.

When Senator Hanna was introduced, he was received with a roar of applause. Senator Hanna spoke at some length, taking up the bitter and anti-imperialism issues, and finally referred to the charges, which, he said, had recently been made by Mr. Bryan that the republican campaign manager had entered upon extensive bribery in order to secure the election of the republican ticket.

"In regard to that statement," Senator Hanna said, "before an audience in Lincoln I want to hurl it back in his teeth and tell him it is as false as hell. When it comes down to personalities, I am willing to stand before the American people on my record as a business man, and let him stand on his. I have been in business forty years; I am employing 6000 men, pay the highest wages, treat them like men, and they all respect me, and when Mr. Bryan, or any other man, charges me—and I am willing to appropriate it all, as I am chairman of the board of managers of this republican campaign—with any such methods as those, I propose, as I said, to hurl it back and denounce him as a demagogue in his own town."

Senator Hanna then referred to Mr. Bryan's alleged reference to him as a "labor crusher," made first during his senatorial campaign in 1897, and continued:

"I want to remind every man that a man who will drag an honorable name into the mire for the sake of making votes is not worthy to be considered for the high office of the president of the United States. And I believe that there are thousands of people in the state of Nebraska who resent it as an insult to their intelligence and their ideas of fair play and justice; because, when a man has an opportunity through newspapers or through the public rostrum to make charges too trifling to be denied and those charges go undenied and enter into the minds of the people whom the man so charged has no opportunity to convince, any man who will use these tactics to further his own selfish ambition, is not fit to be constable."

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a Great Favorite.

The soothing and healing properties of this remedy, its pleasant and prompt and permanent cures have made it a great favorite with people everywhere. For sale by Blakeley druggist.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size, Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N.Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.
