

For President—
WILLIAM M'KINLEY, of Ohio.

For Vice-President—
THEODORE ROOSEVELT, of New York.

HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF.

History repeats itself. The instincts that governed the copperheads of the civil war period still govern their political successors. The following resolutions adopted at a Democratic meeting held in New York September 1, 1864, with slight changes and the name of McKinley substituted for that of Lincoln would pass as an extract from one of Bryan's speeches:

"Resolved, That the administration of Abraham Lincoln, by its imbecility in the conduct of the war and its ruinous financial policy has forfeited the confidence and respect of the loyal states. It has usurped power not granted by the constitution, has endeavored to render the executive, aided by the military, superior to the legislative and judicial branches of the government; it has assumed to destroy life and confiscate property by unconstitutional proclamations; it has caused the arrest and imprisonment of persons without warrant or due process of law; it has violated the right of asylum by surrendering to a despotic power persons entitled to protection under the law of nations, and by its general conduct of public affairs and its notorious extravagance and corruption in every department of the government has created an enormous debt, impairing the credit of the nation and seriously diminishing the resources and happiness of every citizen."

At Arkansas City, Kan., last Tuesday, Postmaster General Charles Emory Smith answered Mr. Bryan's well-known query about past hauling down of the flag thus: "Mr. Bryan's query about the past hauling down of the flag is a fair question, and deserves a fair answer. I will try to give it. The flag was carried to Mexico by the law of war. It was carried out by the law of peace, for the terms of settlement provided for the cession of California and surrounding territory, but not of Mexico. The flag went up in California and has never come down from there. It was carried to Cuba to free humanity by the law of war; and it will be taken from there under the pledge of the law of congress. It was carried to China to rescue our ministers and missionaries, and it will be taken from there, since that is accomplished, and because we are not an imperialistic nation. It was carried to the Philippines by the law of war, and will remain there by the law of peace."

Senator Hanna has been cartooned without mercy and maligned and abused as if he were a public enemy. Mr. Bryan has been the chief offender. In every speech, in any part of the country, he has held Senator Hanna up to scorn and ridicule. He did this in his Salem speech in the June campaign. Every true American will concede Mr. Hanna's right to defend himself, in all fairness. He rested under the calumnies for four years and more, without asserting this right. But now that he has undertaken the task he is doing the job very completely. He shows himself fully equal the task.—Salem Statesman.
