

For President-- WILLIAM M'KINLEY, of Ohio.

For Vice-President-- THEODORE ROOSEVELT, of New York.

BRYAN'S HYPOCRISY.

If it were wrong for the United States to acquire and hold possession of the Philippines, the man Bryan is responsible for the wrong more than any man under the stars.

Pat Bryan on the stand and he must admit everything we have said. Now, why did he urge the ratification of a treaty that he now denounces as imperialism and destructive of the constitution?

The trusts know no party. Democrats, populists, Bryanites, republicans, all and equally are in them to make money, for trusts are organized to make money and for no other purpose.

Yesterday at Huntington, W. Va., Bryan attempted to answer the republican dinner pail argument by saying that "Esau sold his birthright for a full dinner pail."

and the working people of this country had all they want of that kind of truck four years ago.

There was a democrat once who said: "If any man attempts to haul down the American flag, shoot him on the spot," says the New York Sun.

Senator Hanna's speeches have succeeded in stirring up the animals in the Bryan menagerie to a fever heat.
