The only store in this city where the Genuine Imported Stransky-Steel Ware is sold.

A little higher in price, but outlasts a dozen pieces of so-called cheap enameled ware.

BEWARE!

Other wares look like it, but the genuine has the name Stransky-Steel Ware on each piece. Do not be deceived. First prize at 10 International Exhibitions. Highest award at World's Columbian Exhibition, Chicago. Preferred by the best cooking authorities, certified to by the most famous chemists for purity and durability. It is cheapest because

BEST.

Remember this celebrated enameled ware is specially imported for and sold in this city exclusively by us.

It does not rust nor absorb grease, does not discolor nor catch inside, is not affected by acids in fruits or vegetables, will boil, stew, roast and bake without imparting flavor of previously cooked food and will last for years.

We caution the public against imitations.

Representative Moody received word from Washington today that a pension of $2 per month and $2 per month additional for a minor child, dating from 13, 1880, had been granted to Mrs. Julia Kienning, widow of Augustus A. Kienning, late corporal in Co. H, 17th Wisconsin Infantry.

The republican central committee have made arrangements for the registration of all voters who failed to register June, and who are otherwise entitled to vote at the coming election. Necessary blanks will be found at the office of Hudson & Brownhill, where agents for registration will be registered without cost.

The Astorian says that President Roosevelt and other prominent officials of O. R. & N. recently made a trip to the Ilwaco railway the other day with a view to the extension of the road from both ends. There is a rumor afloat that it will be extended to South Bend to make a connection with the Northern Pacific at that place.

Mr. Julius M. Baldwin, of Walla Walla, a former resident of this city and nephew of the late Julius Baldwin, was united in marriage Wednesday, Oct. 24th, inst., to Miss Gertrude B. Greshamer, also of Walla Walla. The young couple will make their home in Walla Walla where Mr. Baldwin is foreman of the job department of the Morning Union.

Marshal Driver met with a strange accident this morning that has rendered him temporarily lame. While crossing the street in the neighborhood of Fourth and Union something struck him in the calf of the left leg that left a mark as if of a spent ball. The ball, however, if it was a ball, could not be found and no report was heard. The leg is quite stiff and swollen.

Miss Margaret Jenkins has been requested to repeat "The Whistling Regiment" at her entertainment tomorrow night. It will be remembered as a very pleasing number lately given on a program in the Methodist church. Classic statue poses will also be two entertaining numbers given tomorrow night, by seven charming young ladies in costume, posed by Miss Jenkins.

On Tuesday evening the attraction at the Vogt opera house is the New York latest success, "Kelly's Kids," which is a musical comedy in three acts. With the Kelly's Kids Co. are the famous Otta and Bouldin and Griffin and Griffith. These artists will be remembered as the ones who left such a favorable impression on the people of The Dalles two years ago while playing here with "The Dazzlers."

Detective Joseph Day came up from Portland on the noon train and took back with him this afternoon one Fred Hickey, alias Fred Waller, alias Dutch Hickey, who is wanted in Portland for stealing a number of mandolins from the Burkhardt building in that city. The authorities at Portland have been on the hunt for him for months, and he was arrested here by Nightwatchman Alisky on the description sent him by the Portland chief of police.

A very pleasant afternoon was spent yesterday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Klindt, below town, the occasion being the anniversary of the birthday of Mrs. Klindt. The time passed all too rapidly in conversation, games, wandering through the elegant flower garden and extensive vineyard, and partaking of an elegant repast. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Liebe, Mrs. H. C. Nielsen, son and daughter, Mrs. John Maiken, Mrs. C. C. Hobart, Mrs. McNamara and Mrs. Gourlay.

At a meeting of citizens held in the Commercial Club rooms the other night a committee, consisting of Messrs. Jud Fish, D. V. Poling, Grant Mays and E. C. Pease, was appointed with power to rent the necessary grounds for a race track and fair grounds at some point contiguous to the city. Mr. C. J. Crandall was appointed to secure a location and superintend the work of building a regulation circular half-mile track. It is said that a desirable site has been found on the Catholic Mission which can be rented from Mr. Stadelman. It is also said that subscriptions for the work have been already pledged to the amount of $1000.

A theatrical novelty is promised for this city next week in Geo. Cohan's brand new farce comedy, "A Wise Guy." Mr. Cohan has become famous for comedy sketches, and to find the gentleman in the ranks of farce writers is interesting in itself. The public taste has changed, however, and the playwright who would keep pace with the times must devote much time to the study of the public pulse. In "A Wise Guy" Mr. Cohan has gone into the rural districts for a subject and transported to a summer boarding-house a happy crowd of New Yorkers in search of recreation. The result is said to be an interesting little tale of flirtation and fun, and the introduction of a quantity of good music is declared to result in a combination of songs, jokes and comedy situations which render "A Wise Guy" one of the most agreeable entertainments of the season.

Colonel George T. Thompson, of this city, one of the best militia officers the local militia ever had, and a man who rose from the ranks by pure merit is another life-long democrat who refuses to follow the fortunes of Bryan, and who will vote the republican ticket next month for the first time in his life. Colonel Thompson, who has all the instincts of a true soldier, first turned against Bryan after that gentleman threw up a commission that he had accepted with a great flourish of trumpets, and which had been given him over the head of a much better man than himself. In spite of the favor that had been shown to Mr. Bryan he abandoned his command in order to hasten to Washington to secure the ratification of the Spanish treaty, when, as subsequent events have proved, his sole object and intent was to make the results of the ratification of the treaty a political issue that he calculated would boost him into the presidency.

For the past couple of days they have had most of the time at the city jail a young Japanese, who gives every evidence of being crazy as a bed bug. Night before last he went into the waiting room of the railway station and upset the stove. For this he was arrested, but as he appeared to be silly rather than vicious, he was allowed his freedom last night, when he went to Keller's confectionery store and ordered a cup of coffee. On receiving the coffee he proceeded to mix it with pepper sauce, vinegar and every condiment on the table. Then drinking the mixture he ordered a cigar and walked off without saying as much as thank you. He then crossed the street to Charley Frank's saloon, where he ordered beer for the house. He was again placed under arrest, but during the night he battered his shoes into bits trying to break open the jail door, and not succeeding, he threw the ruined foot ware out through the bars. He will probably be examined as to his sanity this evening.

Baker City voters are confronted with a very peculiar state of affairs pending the city election November 5th. In the face of high pressure, two leading republicans have declined to run for mayor; one republican declined in favor of a democrat; one democrat whose petition was filed withdrew in favor of another democrat; one councilman resigned to make his race for mayor stronger, making it necessary to elect six instead of four members, another resignation having already necessitated the election of five councilmen, and the mayoralty question has simmered down to two democrats. Party lines are down, only two councilmen so far having been nominated, and it seems to be a free-for-all devil-take-the-hindmost race.

Sees Bryan in a New Light.

M. J. Anderson, of Dufur, who stumped parts of the county four years ago for Bryan and free silver, publishes a rattling good letter in today's Oregonian giving the reasons why he can no longer follow the fortunes of the fusion candidate. We quote the following racy paragraph:

"The Bryan of 1896 was well masked, if he was the same Bryan of today. I saw him then as a patriot. I see him now as a hypocrite, if nothing worse; the greatest dictator this century has ever known talking of the will of the people; the idol of our country's enemies preaching patriotism; the slanderer of our country's idols fearing for our national honor; the man who secured the ratification of the Paris treaty fighting against the fulfillment of its provisions; the avowed friend of labor asking the wage-earner to fight his own and his employer's interest; the great advocate of the principles of Jefferson opposed to expansion; a man backed by every disloyal southern brigadier quoting Lincoln; preaching consent of the governed for the brown man and marching arm in arm with those who have taken the ballot from the black man."
