A Political Yarn.

A good, political yarn is being told by a man about town as coming from a friend. The truth of the story cannot be vouched for, but it is too good to be lost.

A democratic brother was praying in a church prayer-meeting and, at the conclusion he said, in all seriousness, "We prayer Thee that the democrats may hang together."

The opportunity was too good to be lost, and a republican elder shouted, "Amen."

The democrat gasped, but regained himself and continued, "but not in the sense that our republican brother means, but in the spirit of accord and concord."

"Any cord will do Lord, any cord will do," was the answer.—Telegram.

Grand Farewell Meeting.

A farewell meeting will be given Brigadier Marshall and wife, who has charge of the Northern Pacific chief division, which comprises the states of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, on Tuesday, November 6th. The brigadier is saying good-bye to a number of corps, and will visit The Dalles at that time. Major Harris, his chief secretary, is accompanying him to The Dalles. Come to the Salvation Army hall at 8 o'clock and hear him for the last time. Plenty of music is being arranged for. Coffee, cake and sandwiches will be served at the close. All invited.

CAPT. W. R. CRABTREE,
LIEUT. CREFFELD.

FURNISHING NOTES.

Neat and Tasteful Adjuncts to the Completion of a Household.

The new prairie grass matting is simply delightful; they come in soft greens, reds, blues and ecrus, the natural tints of the long, wiry prairie grasses of the west, which are now proving sources of income to the farmers. Formerly these grasses were supposed to be an unmitigated evil, says Ladies' World.

Prairie grass matting is much heavier than the Chinese and Japanese products, and much more durable; they all have the same clean and fragrant smell that makes them so acceptable as floor coverings. Prairie grass matting is full yard wide and costs 40 cents per yard.

Never were there shown more beautiful lamps than are now made. Especially notable are the piano lamps of welded wrought iron and copper in carmine finish. The antique copper and carmine copper are also beautifully combined in other models. The carmine finish, royal copper is not new, but it is ever beautiful and has never before commensured.

Very attractive portieres in green and soft dull crimson in fish-net, seine pattern, have been selling for three dollars each; the meshes are as large as those of a coarse seine, and the curtains are finished top and bottom by handsome tassels.

Another style in a sort of cross-striped open work pattern comes in rich reds and deep blues, and has upper and lower finish of tassels. The material is cotton, a sort of soft cord, and the colors are claimed to be fast; they drape very gracefully and need no rings.

A handsome top border for a plain curtain, that is, a curtain without figures, may be made by taking a strip of burlap having a figure, and outlining this figure with gold thread and then powdering it with colored spangles.

FROZEN DESSERTS.

Three Dishes That Will Be Appreciated by the Guest in Warm Weather.

For hickory nut ice cream make a boiled custard of one pint of milk, 1 1/2 cupfuls of sugar, four eggs and one-third of a teaspoonful of salt. When it is cold add one quart of cream and two cupfuls of hickory nut meats that have been powdered fine in a mortar; then freeze, says the New York Tribune.

Coffee ice cream frozen in a cylindrical mold, with the center filled with lemon ice, is an attractive and delicious dessert. For the ice cream mix two tablespoonfuls of arrowroot with half a cupful of cold milk. Beat four eggs well and mix with it. Then beat one pint of milk and pour over the mixture and add four cupfuls of white sugar. When it is cool add two quarts of cream. Put it into the freezer, and when it is partly frozen turn in two cupfuls of strong coffee and freeze thoroughly. Pack it in a cylindrical mold.

For the lemon ice mix together the juice of six lemons, two cupfuls of sugar and three cupfuls of water. Strain and turn it into the freezer. When the ice and salt are packed add to it two cupfuls of sweet milk and freeze at once. Fill it into the center of the coffee ice cream.

Maple mousse is easily and quickly made. Put one pint of maple sirup into a saucepan with the yolks of eight eggs. Stir over the fire until the sirup thickens, then remove at once and stir until it is cold. Fold into it one quart of whipped cream and pack in a mold in ice and salt for five hours.

A Peach Mousse.

This velvety cream can be made a very perfect dish for either luncheon or dinner. Prepare a dozen large ripe peaches, remove the stones, reduce them to a pulp and then strain. Soak one teaspoonful of gelatine in cold water, dissolve it in a tablespoonful of hot water, and add to the peach pulp. Then set the whole on ice to become cold. Sweeten one pint of cream whipped to a stiff froth, then fold in the peach pulp and pour into a mold. Cover tightly and pack in ice for three hours.

Creole Orange Custard.

Take the juice from six large oranges and place over a slow fire, adding sugar to taste. When the sugar is dissolved, remove from the fire, and when nearly cold, add the yolks of six eggs well beaten and a pint of milk which has previously been boiled. Again place on the fire, and stir until it thickens. To serve, place in glasses and add the whites of the eggs, which have been well beaten with sugar.—Utica (N. Y.) Observer.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 50 Warren St., N. Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

THE CELEBRATED
...COLUMBIA BREWERY...
AUGUST BUCHLER, Prop.
Of the product of this well-known brewery the United States Health Reports for June 28, 1900, says: "A more superior brew never entered the laboratory of the United States Health reports. It is absolutely devoid of the slightest trace of adulteration, but on the other hand is composed of the best of malt and choicest of hops. Its tonic qualities are of the highest and it can be used with the greatest benefit and satisfaction by old and young. Its use can conscientiously be prescribed by the physicians with the certainty that a better, purer or more wholesome beverage could not possibly be found."
