The Dalles Daily Chronicle.

WEDNESDAY . . . OCT. 31, 1900

For President-WILLIAM M'KINLEY, of Onto.

Por Vice-President-THEODORE ROOSEVELT. Of New York,

troller of the currency shows the nying him to The Dalles. Come to the Watch.' largest volume of money and the Salvation Army hall at 8 o'clock and highest amount per capita in the hear him for the last time. Plenty of of the celebrated Jame E. Patton history of the nation. Under the withering dread of free silver and the close. All invited. the blighting effect of "tariff reform" the per capita circulation had fallen in 1896 to $21.10, a reduction of $3.34 below that of the last year of the Harrison administration. On the first day of October the total amount of money in circulation was liver remedy, gives a splendid appetite, $2,113,294,983. Taking the popula- sound digestion and a regular bodily tion of the United States at 76,295, habit that insures perfect health and 220, as officially announced yesterday, the per capita circulation is $27.70, an increase of $6.60 per capita of population in the three West Jefferson, O., after suffering 18 years and a half of the McKinley months from Rectaf Fistula, he would administration and under the gold die unless a costly operation was perstandard. This is a larger increase formed; but he cured himself with five of the circulating medium than millions of the most ardent free Saive in the World, 25 cents a box. Sold silverites ever dreamed of. And by Blakeley, Bruggist. yet the demand for free coinage at 16 to 1, without waiting for the consent of any other nation, is part of the Bryanite platform and the man who votes for Bryan votes for the overthrow of the gold standard that alone has made this increase of circulation possible, as well as the destruction of the confidence and prosperity of which an honest circulating medium is the basis.

One of the most remarkable at- tam-o'-shanters. tacks ever delivered against Bryan was the likening of him to Satan by Carl Schurz on Sept. 5, 1896. In his famous speech at the Central music hall, Chicago, Mr. Cchurz said: "Mr. Bayan has a taste for scriptural Christ was taken up on a high box 507, The Dalles. mountain and promised all the glories can people up the mountain and says, 'I will take from you half of your debts, if you will worship me.' But, Mysterious Pain Cure, a Scotch remedy, then, brave old Uncle Sam rises up and the pain is gone. Sold by Clarke & in all his dignity, manly pride and Falk. hoest wrath, and speaks in thunder tones: 'Get thee behind me, satan. For it is written that thou shalt worship the God of truth, honor and righteousness, and him alone shalt thou serve."

The New York World has figured out that Tammany's committee is collecting $4,150,000 a year through the police as a tax on crime, and gives a list of the forms of vice and the average rate of tribute, which is from $75 per month to $100 per week each, as follows: 150 pool rooms, $780,000; 100 swell gambling houses, $520,000; 1,000 little gambling houses, $1,300,000; 500 policy shops, 650,000; 1,000 dives, $900,-000; illicit tax on crime per year, $4,150,000. And this is the supply tank which pours revenue into the campaign fund of Bryan. Every dollar of it is tainted. Every dime and penny is smeared with the vileness of the slums, of the criminal joints and drinking dens of New York City.

The Bryanites may declare paramount any issue they see fit, but the thing they have the most difficulty in contending with is republican prosperity.

And now abideth bronchitts, laryngitis and Bryanitis, but the greatest of these is Bryanitis, says chased the tools and ladders. He has the Proneer Press.

"Where is your boasted prosper- tion. ity?" asks Candidate Bryan, and the and the New York Evening Post answers the question very neatly, in A Difficult Problem. Bryan fashion, with another, "Where is your boasted adversity?"
