HOW ARE YOU GOING TO VOTE?

Remarkable Letter of an American Workingman on the Paramount Issues.

[The American Economist.]
Fellow Workingmen! How Are You Going to Vote?

I do not suppose for a minute that any intelligent laboring man is going to throw away his vote on any candidate who cannot get a single electoral vote. Either Bryan or McKinley will be elected and a vote for any one else is not only a vote lost, but a vote against the man who will be elected.

You have read the platforms of both parties and the letters of acceptance of both candidates. You have read some of the pamphlets sent out by the committees. You have read and heard some of the speeches of Mr. Bryan, Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Hanna, Mr. Hill and others. Now I want you to read and think over just a few sentences of plain talk from a workingman.

I have made up my mind how I am going to vote and I want to ask you to vote the same way.

I am not an orator nor a scholar. I cannot make a speech nor write a magazine article. I am just an ordinary everyday workingman with intelligence enough to have a little common sense and tell it to others. I am not writing this for pay. It will probably cost me a week's wages to get a few thousand printed. Then if Mr. Croker or Mr. Hanna want to circulate it they are welcome to it.

Now as to what I am, how I am going to vote and why.

I am a workingman with a wife and four children. Eight years ago, in 1892, I was doing fairly well, and my older boys were both at school. I voted, as did all good democrats, for Grover Cleveland. In less than six weeks after election, just before Christmas, I lost my job. I could not get another. Things went from bad to worse. The boys left school and tried to earn a little money. We never got in the bum line at Madison Square, but we did sometimes get near the bread line at Tenth street. I could not tell you all the hardships of those four years. Always behind in the rent and half the time without anything to eat. The wife worked hard and the boys and I did anything to earn a dollar. It seemed sometimes as if we must give up, but the patient, hopeful wife would say: "Cheer up, old man, you will get work soon and then we will be on our feet again."

My men, have you got a good faithful wife? Have your children got a good, patient mother? Then you know what kept us from absolute despair.

Well, 1896 came and another election. With thousands of other democrats I voted for McKinley and hoped for a change. In less than a month I got a job, and have had work constantly these four years. The boys soon went back to school. I am now getting $18 a week. One of my boys entered college last month; another went to a preparatory school and will enter college two years from now—if I do not lose my job. My wife and I have plenty to eat and wear and we are happy, oh, so happy, to see our boys growing to be educated men.

Fellow workingmen! Do I need to tell you how I am going to vote?

I don't exactly understand this question of Imperialism, except that I am for the Stars and Stripes, and I do not believe anybody can or wants to make this country an empire.

I know little about the money question, except that when I earn a dollar I want 100 cents, and when I put a little money in the bank I want to be sure of taking out as much as I put in, with a little interest.

I don't know much about the Tariff, except that Free-Trade would throw me and thousands of others out of a job, with no chance to get another.

I don't know much about Government by Injunction, the Consent of the Governed, Initiative and Referendum, etc., except that I believe in law and order and good judges and honest courts.

I don't know much about the Income Tax or Municipal Ownership or the Franchise Law. The boys will know all about these questions and I'll leave everything for them to settle.

I don't know any more nor any less than you do, fellow workingmen, but I do know this that, you and I and our wives and children were never so well off as we are today, and I believe we are going to be still better off or a great deal worse off after election.

I haven't anything to say against McKinley or Bryan, but I know, and you know, that if Bryan is elected, thousands and hundreds of thousands of us are going to be out of work for the next four years, if not longer, while if McKinley is elected, I believe there will not be an honest, capable man who is willing to work that will not be able to find it.

If Bryan is elected, my boys will have to leave school. If McKinley is elected, my older boys will soon have a complete education, and the mother and I will never have to worry again.

Fellow workingmen, you want better wages, don't you? You want more than a mere existence. Well, you are not going to get it if we have Free Silver, Free-Trade and Free Soup.

Why, we workingmen could elect a president ourselves if we would.

Let us stand together, let us earn all we can, let us save all we can, let us read and study and learn all we can. We shall grow stronger and stronger every year. We can never gain anything through Bryanism. Let us get books and papers instead of pawn tickets. Let us give our boys an education, and the workingman of the future can think for himself, can make laws for himself, can elect his own president.

But this year we must choose between Bryan and McKinley. Every vote for Bryan is a vote for idleness and poverty. Every vote for McKinley is a vote for employment and prosperity.

The election of Bryan would throw the workingman and his condition back to that of 1895.

If I could make a speech I would go out on the corners and talk to every crowd I could get together. If I could write for the papers, I could do so. But I will understand my simple sentences, and I ask every workingman who reads this to vote for me and my job and my boys and my home, and I'll vote for you and yours.

Union of Scotch Churches.
EDINBURGH, Oct. 31.—The formal union of the Free and United Presbyterian churches, decided upon yesterday at the joint meeting here of the Free Church Assembly and the United Presbyterian Synod, who consummated today. The members marched from the respective halls to Waverly Market and held the first meeting of the United Free Church of Scotland. Large crowds witnessed the procession. The Rev. Albert Robert Rainey, D. D., was chosen moderator of the United Free Church.

The scene at Waverly Market was striking, though marred by rain. Some 3000 ministers took part in the procession, and dense crowds along the route cheered them repeatedly. The hall where the uniting act was signed was draped with crimson and yellow, and liberally bedecked with flags used by covenanters. The Earl of Aberdeen, Dr. Parker, the Rev. John Watson (Ian McLaren) and delegates from Canada, Australia, Jamaica, Africa, France and elsewhere participated. The small minority which opposed the union met in a separate hall today and constituted themselves a Free Church Assembly.
