WAYSIDE GLEANINGS.

Extra good values at the New York Cash Store.

A marriage license was issued yesterday to P. E. Temple and E. Cantrell, of Dalur.

D. S. Crapper, of Hood River, was in town last night the guest of the Umatilla House.

Yesterday a marriage license was issued to Charles McIntosh and Annie Rawson, of this city.

Rev. J. B. Lister, state evangelist, will preach at the Christian church tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock.

A private dispatch from Morrow county says it has gone for republican prosperity by about 400 majority.

The ladies of the Lutheran church will have a pie and cake sale at J. C. Nickelsen's store previous to Thanksgiving.

Wm. Runne, of Grand Dalles, spent last night in the city in order to get the election returns at the earliest possible moment.

Professor Sandvig's dancing class commences tonight. All persons desirous of learning to dance should be present on the opening night.

The ladies Good Intent society has decided to have a sale of pastry on the day before Thanksgiving. The place of sale will be announced later.

A protracted revival meeting will commence in the Methodist church this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Preaching tonight by Rev. Chris Nickelsen, of Heppner.

All members of the driving club are requested to meet at the Club rooms this evening at 9 o'clock. Bids for the construction of the speedway will be opened at the meeting.

"Smiling Albert's" genius displayed itself yesterday in the sign that was nailed to the front door of Falk & Co.'s saloon, which bore the legend, "Closed on account of Willie's election."

Even the school children have caught the McKinley infection and caught it bad. In one of the rooms yesterday the teacher voted the little folks and found 34 for McKinley as against 17 for Bryan.

We are sole agents for the well-known Hamilton Brown shoes. Be sure and get our prices before making your purchases. Ladies' light weight dress shoes for $1.50 and $2.50 at the New York Cash Store.

A private dispatch from Grant county gives McKinley a majority of 235 in seven precincts. The republicans expect to carry the county by a majority of 350 to 500. Grant county used to be very strongly democratic.

Mr. Charles McIntosh, of Three Mile, was united in marriage this forenoon, November 7th, to Miss Annie Rawson, of this city. The marriage ceremony took place at the residence of Mrs. Waters, the bride's mother, Rev. D. V. Poling officiating. The young couple left on the afternoon train for Portland.

From private dispatches received today by Representative Moody we learn that Wallowa county has gone republican by about 100 majority. Four years ago Wallowa gave Bryan a majority of 261. Harney county's majority for Bryan four years ago was 251. This year it will be from 25 to 50.

The latest returns from Washington state indicate that McKinley has carried the state by from 5000 to 6000 majority. The republicans concede the defeat of Frink, republican candidate for governor, by probably 5000 votes. Klickitat county, across the river from here, has elected every candidate on the republican ticket by an average majority of over 400.

Coyotes are said to be feasting on lambs along the line of march taken by Heppner sheep when returning from the mountains, tells the Gazette. When separated from their mothers, as thousands of lambs have recently been, they drop out of their bands in bunches of fifty to two hundred and straggle around by themselves. Some of them get into other bands, but many of them get into coyotes.

A number of creameries in Oregon are now paying 25 cents per pound for butter fat. At the same time Oregon is now making more butter than ever before at this time of the year. The Methodist World. The state has been exporting a good deal of butter this year. Coos county creameries have always sent the bulk of their product to San Francisco, and there has been a strong demand in California all summer and fall for Oregon store butter. A good deal of Oregon's choicest creamery butter goes to Washington cities.

Wasco county gave the prohibition candidate for president 75 votes, distributed among the precincts as follows: Biglow, 11; Baldwin, 2; Boyd, 3; Columbia, 4; Dufur, 16; East Hood River, 9; East Dalles, 5; Falls, 1; Mosier, 1; Mountain, 2; South Hood River, 4; Trevitt, 3; Wamic, 5; West Hood River, 8; West Dalles, 4; Ramsey, 2. Debbs, the candidate of the social democrats, got 36 votes, distributed as follows: Biglow, 1; Dufur, 1; East Dalles, 12; Falls, 8; Mosier, 4; Trevitt, 3; West Dalles, 4. The Middle-of-the-road populists polled eight votes distributed as follows: Bakeoven, 1; East Hood River, 1; East Dalles, 1; Falls, 1; South Hood River, 1; West Hood River, 3. West Hood River, it may be observed, is the home of one of the middle-of-the-road candidates for presidential elector. The three votes of that precinct show how much lice a pop cuts in his own precinct in these piping days of McKinley prosperity.

LATEST RETURNS.

McKinley Will Have a Majority of 111 in the Electoral College.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7, 1900.—The Examiner this morning concedes McKinley's election by the following electoral vote: California, 9; Connecticut, 6; Delaware, 3; Illinois, 24; Indiana, 15; Iowa, 13; Kansas, 10; Maine, 6; Maryland, 8; Massachusetts, 15; Michigan, 14; Minnesota, 9; Nebraska, 8; New Hampshire, 4; New Jersey, 10; New York, 33; North Dakota, 3; Ohio, 23; Oregon, 4; Pennsylvania, 22; Rhode Island, 4; South Dakota, 4; Vermont, 4; Washington, 4; West Virginia, 6; Wisconsin, 12; Wyoming, 3; making 289 electoral votes and a majority in the electoral college of 111.

How He Was Rebuked.

Miss Anna Boyd, the leading woman of the "Hindoo Hoodoo" company, is as witty as she is beautiful. A story reaches us of a very pretty and womanly rebuke administered by her to the handsome, but unaccomplished son of a pig iron millionaire—a youth who is noted as much for his curly hair as for his engaging manners. He was denouncing a pan roast after the show with a choice little company at Stanley's, when Miss Boyd entered with some friends. The youth twitched nervously in his chair and looked at the actress, then said to one of his companions: "Say, that's Miss Boyd. Jolly girl. Feller promised to introduce me, but guess I'll fix it right now." So he called for a sheet of paper and dashed off the following note, which a waiter handed to the lady:

"Dear Miss Boyd: I have often heard of you, and I presume you have heard of me. A friend of mine has promised me an introduction, but he is not here. Will you waive ceremony and let me join your party?"

After reading this graceful missive, Miss Boyd nibbled thoughtfully at the point of a gold pencil case, looked quizzically at the young man, and sent back this reply:

"My Dear Young Man: You had better join your mama."

As the curly-headed youth is telling the story on himself, we do not feel that we violate any confidence in relating it.

The Hindoo Hoodoo Company will appear at the Vogt on Saturday evening, Nov. 10th.

Mrs. Johnson Entertains at Mosier.

MOSIER, Nov. 5, 1900, On last Wednesday evening the young people of this vicinity were invited to spend the evening with Miss Mabel Riddell at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson. It being Halloween the young people were first greeted by grinning jack-o'-lanterns from gate posts and house tops. The evening was enjoyably spent in cracking jokes as well as nuts and playing Halloween tricks and games. The merriment was kept rife until a late hour, when, after each had tried his or her fortune, they all went home well satisfied with the evening, although those whose fortunes consigned them to single blessedness had a determined look on their countenances which defied fate itself.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson, Mrs. French, Misses Lillie Johnson, Mabel Riddell, Bessie Middlewart, Elsie Middlewart, Nora Root, Edna Root, Dollie Graham, Anna Dunsmore, Lurean Dunsmore, Hester Kent, Hulda Granlund, Adeline Sellinger, Daisie French, Messrs. John Wellburg, Geo. Chamberlain, Wm. Rowland, Price Hunter, John Davenport, Chas. Davenport, Bennard Sellinger, Frank Middlewart, Leo Root, Elmer Root, Gordie Graham, Wm. Graham, Edward Dunsmore, Harry Davis, Clarence Dunsmore, Willie Marsh.

Southern California.

Notable among the pleasures afforded by the Shasta Route is the winter trip to Southern California and Arizona. Renewed acquaintance with this section will ever develop fresh points of interest added sources of enjoyment, under its sunny skies, in the variety of its industries, in its prolific vegetation and among its numberless resorts of mountain, shore, valley and plain.

The two daily Shasta trains from Portland to California have been recently equipped with the most approved pattern of standard and tourist sleeping cars, but the low rates of fare will still continue in effect.

Illustrated guides to the winter resorts of California and Arizona may be had on application to Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised 'Electric Bitters'; and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c, guaranteed, at Blakeley's drug store.

Body of a Man Found in the Columbia.

ASTORIA, Nov. 5.—The body of a man was found by the Point Adams Life-Saving crew floating in the river near New Astoria this evening. The remains are supposed to be those of Harry Steindoff, of Napa, Cal., who fell overboard from the steamer Bailey Gatzert on October 30. Coroner Pohl left this evening to take charge of the body.
