

PUNGENT PARAGRAPHS.

Heir in fact—"What does heir at law mean?" "Allegedly the same as attorney at law."—Detroit Journal.

Mabel—"Henry compared me with sparkling wine last night." Clara—"Because you have improved with age."—Philadelphia North American.

He (with the contempt of a boy of 16)—"Girls always giggle more than boys." She (with the meanness of 15)—"That's because they have to look at boys."—Stray Stories.

McGarble—"Tis said thin doods has a pair o' suspenders for every pair o' pants." Schwartz—"Vell, so hat I." McGarble—"How many pair of pants do you own?" Schwartz—"Vun."—Manchester Union.

Practical Grammar.—Teacher—"Now, Tommy, give me a sentence, and then we'll change it to the imperative form." Tommy—"The horse draws the wagon." Teacher—"Now put it in the imperative." Tommy—"Get up!"—Stray Stories.

Its Reason for Being—"But why," asked the amateur anarchist, for the twentieth time, "why do we need any law at all?" "Law," said the flippancy person, "is necessary for the conservation of our own property and other people's morals."—Indianapolis Press.

The Boy Told Him.—After a recent supper in the rural district a clerical-looking individual arose to respond to a toast. "What am I here for to-night?" was the question he opened with. "To eat," shouted a hungry small boy near the door. "You've done drunked six cups of coffee an' swallered the last biscuit on the plate!"—Atlanta Constitution.

It is much easier to be polite and neighborly than to fly into a passion when things don't suit you. Take this note, for instance, addressed by a lady to the woman who lived next door: "Dear Madam: Your children, who are numerous and appear to be disorderly, no doubt deserve the frequent floggings you give them; but, as my nerves are weak, I write this to ask if you can't do something to deaden the sound!"—N. O. Times-Democrat.

FAMILY LIVES IN A TREE.

New Jersey Man Who Has Built Himself a Home Well Above Ground.

John Rausch, of Haledon, N. J., and his family live up a tree. A more unique habitation cannot be imagined. In the branches of a big oak he has built his home. It is perched among the leaves and over the top of the queer abode towers the top of the tree, forming its chief roof.

Rausch, says a letter to the St. Louis Republic, is a German laborer who has worked around Haledon for five years. He has seldom earned more than a dollar a day. He grew tired of paying rent and, with the German's love of owning a home of his own, he tried to buy some property, from the real estate dealer of the place, William Buschman. The latter owns nearly all the land in that vicinity, and is anxious to have the property improved. He told Rausch he would give him a nice lot for little money if he would build a house. True the lot was far away from the road, but it was dry and well situated. It was covered with fine trees, and an especially majestic oak grew in the center.

After paying for the lot, Rausch found he hadn't money enough to start the house he had promised to build. His wife and three small children are up his meager earnings. Buschman told him he would have to give up the lot if he didn't begin the house.

Rausch thereupon secured a number of big boxes. He had conceived the idea of making the branches of the tree serve for uprights and timbers.

The nails in the boxes were sufficient. On the strong lower branches he crossed and recessed the boards. It made a very uneven floor, but the branches were strong and the boards would not slip. The house is circular, but very irregular.

Above all there is a smaller structure that Rausch calls his garret. When the wind blows the whole structure shakes and swings like a hammock, yet the whole family live there.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages there should be cleanliness. Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly.

Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail. D. T. LAKETHE, 55 Warren Street, New York.

Fell in a Brush Fire.
SALEM, Nov. 7.—The 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mack, who live near Stayton, fell in a brush fire on Monday afternoon and was terribly burned before she was rescued.

The father and mother of the child were digging potatoes near the house and the little one was only a short distance from them when the accident occurred. She is in a serious condition.

SCIENCE AND INDUSTRY.

The new German dictionary of the carbon compounds names 74,147 of these substances, and the end is yet far off.

The British consul at Copenhagen calls the attention of persons trading with that country to the necessity of registering their trademarks in Denmark.

"Nature" notes a remarkable fact in connection with the West Indian hurricane of September, 1898. It appears that before the hurricane one of the tamest and commonest birds on the island of St. Vincent was a small humming bird, but none of these birds have been seen since September, 1898.

American inventive genius is more active than that of all other countries combined, and for the year ending July, 1900, has been more in evidence than ever, patents granted for the period number 25,540, or more than 3,000 over those of previous years.

Last year's output of manganese was the largest on record, 800,000 tons, divided as follows: Russia, 300,000 tons; Spain and Portugal, 100,000 tons; India, 75,000 tons; Brazil, 62,000 tons; Turkey and Greece, 34,000 tons; Chili, 37,000 tons; France, 28,000 tons; Cuba, 15,000 tons; Japan, 5,000 tons; other countries, 10,000 tons. The annual consumption in Europe is about 600,000 tons and that of the United States 200,000 tons.

Among some remarkable lunar photographs made by Messrs. Lasey and Pubsorey, of the University of Paris, is a stereoscopic image of the whole hemisphere of the moon, the direction of light giving relief and showing very strikingly the details of craters and mountainous regions. The picture was obtained by taking a plate of the moon at ten days and another at 20 days, enlarging these 60 times, and carefully placing side by side.

According to Herr Reimann, there is no relation between rancid taste and the odor of butter and the quantity of free acid found in it. The greater the amount of casein and of milk sugar in butter, the more quickly does it become rancid. It does not appear that light and air exercise any direct influence upon the process. Butter made from sterilized cream will rarely become rancid, but if brought into contact with rancid butter it will turn in a few days.

That Throbbing Headache

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and strong nerves and build up your health. Easy to take. Try them. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by Blakeley, the druggist.

Englishmen Pleased.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The morning and afternoon papers here declare that sixteen to one has been forever killed by Bryan's defeat and are jubilant in consequence, thus expressing the pleasure of a great majority of Englishmen at the result of the election in the United States.

When you cannot sleep for coughing, it is hardly necessary that any one should tell you that you need a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to stop the irritation of the throat, and make sleep possible. It is good. Try it. For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.

Bryan Feels Badly.

LINCOLN, Nov. 7.—Bryan cannot conceal his feelings. He looks disappointed and acts that part. He breakfasted at 9 o'clock and stated he had enjoyed a full night's rest. He promised a public statement as soon as he analyzed the vote. He is out to the quick over the negative position of his town's people. It is predicted he will not remain long in Lincoln.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

Wanted—A second-hand fire-proof safe. Must be in good condition and not too large. Apply at the CHRONICLE office. 631-tf
