

Money in Raising Potatoes.

SALEM, Nov. 14.—Charles L. Dailey, formerly a member of the state board of horticulturists, experimented this season with several acres of potatoes, with a view to determining whether there is a profit in potato-growing and what varieties will pay best.

In speaking of his observations, Mr. Dailey said that he learned first of all that in order to make potato-growing pay the best, a man must be in a position to give his crop proper attention when it needs attention. Mr. Dailey has been extensively engaged in growing, curing and dealing in potatoes this season, and gave his secondary consideration to potatoes. But under this condition, his crop paid a heavy expense bill and left a margin that makes good wages for the time employed.

So far as varieties are concerned, Mr. Dailey is convinced that for money-making the Burbank is the potato to grow. Other varieties may produce a heavier crop, but none other finds so ready a market at good prices as does the Burbank. He also found that the selection of seed is more important than most people think. It was formerly the custom of farmers to save their small potatoes for seed. They are gradually giving up this method, and are using large, well-formed potatoes for seed. But Mr. Dailey thinks the question of size and uniformity is not so much a consideration as the "blood." He says that the producing characteristics of the seed are more important than the sizes of the potatoes planted. In other words, potatoes that have been allowed to deteriorate through years of planting are not fit for seed, even though the size may be good. Whatever the variety, scrub seed will not produce as good crops as seed that retains all the characteristics of the variety.

Editor's Awful Fight.

F. M. Higgins, editor Seneca Falls News, was afflicted for years with piles that no doctor or remedy helped until he tried Bucklen's Arnica Salve. He writes two boxes wholly cured him. It's the surest pile cure on earth and the best salve in the world. Cure guaranteed. Only 25 cents. Sold by Blakeley, the druggist.

"For three days and nights I suffered agony untold from an attack of cholera morbus brought on by eating cucumbers," says M. E. Lowther, clerk of the district court, Centerville, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die, and tried a dozen different medicines but all of no purpose. I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and three doses relieved me entirely." This remedy for sale by Blakeley, the druggist.

Drying preparations simply develop dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y.

The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation.

With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.

This is the season when mothers are alarmed on account of croup. It is quickly cured by One Minute Cough Cure, which children like to take. Sold by Clarke & Falk.

Acker's English Remedy will stop a cough at any time, and will cure the worst cold in twelve hours, or money refunded. 25 cts. and 50 cts. Blakeley the druggist.

We offer for a limited period the twice-a-week CHRONICLE, price $1.50, and the Weekly Oregonian, price $1.50, both papers for $2 a year. Subscriptions under this offer must be paid in advance.

Wanted—A second-hand fire-proof safe. Must be in good condition and not too large. Apply at the CHRONICLE office. 631-14

For sprains, swellings and lameness there is nothing so good as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. Try it. For sale by Blakeley, the druggist.

Best values for the least money at the New York Cash Store. A special in children's and misses' shoes, while they last.

Nasal CATARRH

In all its stages there should be cleanliness. Ely's Cream Balm cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly. Cream Balm is placed into the nostrils, spreads over the membrane and is absorbed. Relief is immediate and a cure follows. It is not drying—does not produce sneezing. Large Size, 50 cents at Druggists or by mail; Trial Size, 10 cents by mail. ELY BROTHERS, 56 Warren Street, New York.

SCIENCE AND INDUSTRY.

France makes nearly 26,000,000 pairs of gloves yearly, and of these 18,000,000 pairs are exported.

An ingenious mechanical device pastes paper labels on button cans in ten hours. Down a shoot rolls a ceaseless procession of cans, and each can picks up a label as it passes.

Water, if subjected to great compression and then decomposed by means of an electric current into its elements, oxygen and hydrogen, explodes with tremendous force in the process.

An example of patient industry is the sorting of huge quantities of hair as it is carried on at Tientsin, China. Each one of the brushes has to be picked out, measured and placed in the bundle of hairs of corresponding length.

The Council of the American Chemical Society has passed resolutions favoring the creation of a bureau of chemistry. The laws of the various states controlling food adulteration are largely ineffective, because of the interference of interstate commerce laws, and can be made effective only through national legislation.

More perfect combustion in furnaces is secured by Mr. Paul Schlicht by novel means. He has discovered that on properly introducing an air current into a chimney, it takes a course opposite to that of the hot gases, and its oxygen reaches the center of the fire in a heated condition favorable for completely uniting with the fuel.

Advantage is taken of different bands of porosity in agates to effect the coloring, which is done in the case of black onyx by immersing the stone in a mixture of honey and water where it remains several weeks at a high temperature. It is then treated in sulphuric acid, which carbonates the saccharinous matter that has penetrated the stone, thus rendering certain bands an intense black. Various colorations may be produced by different chemical reactions.

BUILT HIS OWN SEPULCHER.

An Eccentric Austrian in California Makes Preparations for His Interment.

In a grave built under his own directions the body of John Stivitch, an eccentric Austrian, was laid to rest at Jackson, Cal. Long before death summoned Stivitch the latter designed his own grave, or, more properly speaking, tomb. He spent many days cheerfully drawing up the plans, and with childish delight superintended the construction of the narrow mausoleum. When it was completed he laid himself down to die with a sigh of content, says a San Francisco exchange.

The grave is of ordinary length and width and seven feet deep. Its walls are of concrete and concrete a foot thick lines the bottom. Twelve inches from the bottom were placed four iron bars, upon which rested the coffin. After the coffin had been lowered iron bars were placed in like manner and the same distance from the top, and over them was placed a heavy zinc cover, fitting perfectly tight. Over this will now be placed a layer of concrete of the same thickness as on the walls, and on top will be the marble bearing the name, place of birth, age and date of death.

This manner of burial had been a hobby with Stivitch for a long time, and when he made his will he set aside $500 to cover the expense, the same being on deposit in a bank of Amador county, to be turned over to the contractor on completion of the work and its approval by a nephew, Andrew Perovich, who is named as executor in the will. Stivitch was 73 years old, a miner; had lived here many years and had many friends. He leaves an estate of several thousand dollars, but no nearer relatives than the nephew named.

The old man had no special disease, but had been failing for months. When told that the work on his peculiar grave had progressed as far as possible he remarked to Dr. Gall, his physician: "Doctor, if you let me die to-night I will give you $100." But it was not to be. He lived eight days longer, during which time many citizens visited the cemetery to inspect the resting place for all that was mortal of the odd old Austrian.

Richest Army Officer.

The Ninth regiment, which is fighting in China, has on its roster one who is probably the richest officer in the army—Second Lieut. Robert S. Clarke, formerly of New York. Mr. Clarke is a grandson and one of the principal heirs of the late Alfred Corning Clarke, and his wealth is estimated at several millions. He is still in his early twenties, and is a graduate of Yale university. He received his commission in the army about a year ago.—Chicago Chronicle.

THE CELEBRATED
...COLUMBIA BREWERY...
AUGUST BUCHLER, Prop.
Of the product of this well-known brewery the United States Health Reports for June 28, 1900, says: "A more superior brew never entered the laboratory of the United States Health reports. It is absolutely devoid of the slightest trace of adulteration, but on the other hand is composed of the best of malt and choicest of hops. Its tonic qualities are of the highest and it can be used with the greatest benefit and satisfaction by old and young. Its use can conscientiously be prescribed by the physicians with the certainty that a better, purer, or more wholesome beverage could not possibly be found."
