

DEPRIVE SETTLERS OF HOMES

Commissioner Binger Hermann Reverses the Decision of the Lakeview Land Office in the Warner Valley Case.

LAKEVIEW, Nov. 19.—Today the local land officials received a copy of the decision of Commissioner Hermann, of the general land office at Washington, in the case of the State of Oregon and the Warner Valley Stock Company vs. J. I. Morrow et al. in which several tracts of valuable land in Warner Valley is involved.

On February 3, 1900, the land officials of the Lakeview Land Office rendered a decision in favor of the settlers who had settled upon this land 12 or 14 years ago, and for which they have been in controversy ever since.

This decision by the local land office was the first real encouragement the settlers had ever had and they were elated over the result of their arduous efforts to gain a home on these lands.

It was contended by the settlers that while land for which the state of Oregon had granted a title to McConahey Bros. (afterwards embodied in the incorporation which formed the Warner Valley Stock Company) as swamp land, and which could not be such according to their testimony, was covered by the waters of a permanent lake in the year 1860. The case was appealed from the Lakeview Land Office decision, and after going into the testimony Commissioner Hermann decided that the land was not covered by the waters of a permanent lake as stated by witnesses for the settlers in the case before the Lakeview Land Office, and reversed the decision. This decision is final and will take the homes from many families kept poor by the constant expense of land suits since their settlement in Warner.

Colonel C. A. Cogswell expresses his regret of the settlers losing their land; nevertheless his vigorous aid has been employed in their defeat and for the victory of the Warner Valley Stock Company, of which he is a member, and the state of Oregon, who made the supposed error in granting land titles for such lands. Warner Valley is practically covered with tules, and in early days was considered unfit for cultivation or for purposes other than stock grazing, therefore it was an easy matter for applicants to obtain titles to it as swamp land. Later developments, however, proved that section to be a rich agricultural valley, hence the attempt by intending settlers to wrest from the grasp of monopoly a few desirable locations for happy homes. The decision is an important one and will no doubt caution settlers from investing in smuggled lands hereafter in Oregon. Hundreds of thousands of acres of just such land lie in Eastern Oregon and are controlled by large corporations and land grabbers.
