

BREAKING AWAY FROM POLITICS.

One of the editorial writers of the Council Bluffs Nonpareil in endeavoring to follow instructions to drop politics now and write about something else, turns in the following copy, which fairly indicates the condition of the average editor's mind as he attempts to turn his thoughts from the campaign to other matters:

"The discussion of the Westminster confession of defeat is being subjected to a revival of business such as was not known four years ago. Among numerous paramount issues brought out by the leading church controversialists is the question whether the confession's teaching concerning the salvation of the infant industries is such as conforms with the plain declaration of independence and of inspired writ. If this is true, then many of the presbyteries in the outlying precincts will find that in all the rites and ceremonies the ground of their argument was among the territory gained under the democratic administration of Jefferson. The proposed revision would make such changes in the tariff of faith as to cause many to lose their trust in all the statements of religious belief, although just such trusts existed under Cleveland *as exist now. The fathers of the church never held that the doctrine of predestination followed the flag or that the statement in their creed had that sort of a clear ring which exists in Tammany. So far as the doctrine of salvation being free at the ratio of 16 to 1 it is evident that the theological statements cannot show where even the elect can break into the solid south so long as they associate with republicans and sinners. The church must recognize the consent of the governed or else free trade and undying love will be trampled under the iron heel of imperialism. So far as the baptism of these infants is concerned there are those who hold the only remedy to be to squeeze all the water out of the stock and thus destroy that very trust in the future, which is recognized by all faiths. The expansion of the church necessitates such a change in customs and duties and such a resentment of the platforms as will carry conviction to the heart of every repentant and patriotic voter. Those who are seeking to convert the world find great encouragement from the reports of the polls already taken. The world is changing and some precincts are almost unanimous. Let every man do his duty and creed will be saved, but don't forget to register."

The tonnage of vessels at present reported en route to Pacific coast ports shows that bound for the Columbia river exceeds that bound to all other ports on the coast, excepting San Francisco, by 55,511 tons. These ports include San Diego, Port Los Angeles, all Puget Sound ports, and all British Columbia ports. If Hawaii be counted in with its 31,648 en route tonnage, the coast ports outside of San Francisco exceed the Columbia river by just 9,627 tons. San Francisco has 44,172 more tons en route than has the Columbia river.

The Pendleton Tribune suggests the name of L. B. Reeder for speaker of the Oregon house of representatives. The Tribune says Mr. Reeder is a "good lawyer, an accomplished parliamentarian, an experienced legislator, a genial gentleman and last, but not least, rock-ribbed republican." The Tribune thinks it would be a graceful act for Western Oregon to concede the speakership to Eastern Oregon.

"From the way my wife coughed for six months, I knew she had consumption. She showed it in her face, too, and her body wasted away to a mere skeleton. After she got down and bed the doctors couldn't do any good. I called in both Dr. T. A. Shannon and Dr. N. L. Hawsen, each of whom is a first-class physician, but they had nothing that would reach the trouble in her lungs. My wife's father came to see her one day, when she got very low. He lives in Cedar Lake, Wis., while we live in Rice Lake, Wis. He said he knew what was needed, and made me get a bottle of Acker's English Remedy for Consumption. I went to Schmidt's, our local druggist, and got a bottle, and it helped her right away. She took eight soc. bottles, and they put her back on her feet and made her as sound and well as any woman in town. She has taken on flesh again, she doesn't cough, and if any one who doesn't know the facts was to be told she was so near death with consumption, he wouldn't believe it. My wife does all her housework, and at night sleeps as soundly as you please. Her stomach no longer gives her any trouble at all. Maybe you doubt what I am telling. If so, I advise you to see J. N. Schmidt, the druggist who sold me Acker's English Remedy for Consumption. He'll tell you the same thing. He says Acker's English Remedy is wonderful in all throat and lung troubles; that it is sold on a guarantee to cure, or money returned, and he never yet had a bottle come back to his store, although he has sold hundreds of them. My name is Luther Bedell, Rice Lake, Wis.

Acker's English Remedy is sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee that your money will be refunded in case of failure. 25c, 50c, and $1 a bottle in United States and Canada. In England 1s. 2d., 2s. 3d., and 4s. 6d.

Southern California. Notable among the pleasures afforded by the Shasta Route is the winter trip to Southern California and Arizona. Renewed acquaintance with this section will ever develop fresh points of interest added sources of enjoyment, under its sunny skies, in the variety of its industries, in its prolific vegetation and among its numberless resorts of mountain, shore, valley and plain.

The two daily Shasta trains from Portland to California have been recently equipped with the most approved pattern of standard and tourist sleeping cars, but the low rates of fare will still continue in effect.

Illustrated guides to the winter resorts of California and Arizona may be had on application to

Story of a Slave. To be bound hand and foot for years by the chains of disease is the worst form of slavery. George D. Williams, of Manchester, Mich., tells how such a slave was made free. He says: "My wife has been so helpless for five years that she could not turn over in bed alone. After using two bottles of Electric Bitters, she is wonderfully improved and able to do her own work." This supreme remedy for female diseases quickly cures nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, headache, backache, fainting and dizzy spells. This miracle working medicine is a godsend to weak, sickly, run down people. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50 cents. Sold by Blakeley, the Druggist.

Bismark's Iron Nerve. Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are out of order. "For three days and nights I suffered agony untold from an attack of cholera morbus brought on by eating cucumbers," says M. E. Lowther, clerk of the district court, Centerville, Iowa. "I thought I should surely die, and tried a dozen different medicines but all to no purpose. I sent for a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and three doses relieved me entirely." This remedy for sale by Blakeley, the druggist.

Drying preparations simply developed, they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smokes and snuffs and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm is such a remedy and will cure catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. A trial size will be mailed for 10 cents. All druggists sell the 50c. size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., N. Y. The Balm cures without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. With Ely's Cream Balm you are armed against Nasal Catarrh and Hay Fever.
